

THE "PRUDENT MAN" DOES NOT TRUST TO LUCK HE PUTS HIS MONEY IN OUR BANK

The CAREFUL man—the man who takes no long chances—is the one who will win out over the man who goes blindly into things and trusts to "luck." Nothing can stop the success of a man who keeps sober, works hard and regularly BANKS a part of his income from his labor or his business. Is it no better to have your money and keep your balance GROWING—than to trust to DANGEROUS "luck"?

Pie and coffee was served, and the speakers were H. T. Botts, W. C. Miller, D. L. Shrode, A. G. Beals, W. S. Buel, Mrs. Edwards, J. C. Edwards, C. Haberlach, F. C. Baker and C. E. Trombley. Professor Crockett hopes to be able to secure a good substitute and one who will carry on the debate coaching. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Erickson was the host and hostess for an attractive typical German Christmas party, entertaining the Social Circle Club, their husbands and a few invited guests at their residence Christmas night. Holiday decorations in crimson and green marked the interior decorations, the feature of which was a splendid Christmas tree glittering with trinkets and gifts which Santa Claus assisted the host and hostess to distribute. Dancing and a short program in German was especially appreciated. Mr. Marx and Mrs. Feldschau sang a duet, Mrs. Erickson accompanying on the piano. Mrs. F. Heyd gave a recitation, also in German, which was much enjoyed. At a late hour an elaborate supper was served, covers being laid for eighteen.

City of Bay City, Oregon, on relation of C. F. Stone and J. H. Hicks, doing business as Stone & Hicks, vs P. A. Sandberg, W. J. Logus, Ed. Worthington and E. D. Landingham is a suit filed in the circuit court. The complaint alleges that on the 4th of February, 1915, the plaintiffs entered into a contract with the defendant P. A. Sandberg to improve certain streets in Bay City, in which the latter agreed to pay all payments to all persons supplying labor or material. On the 4th of March, 1915, a bond was filed with P. A. Sandberg, W. J. Logus, Ed. Worthington and E. D. Landingham as sureties on a bond for $15,000. Plaintiffs furnished the defendant Sandberg with gravel to the amount of $1075.00, $500.00 having been paid, and with other money owing John Nelson and Peter Nelson, sues for $825.18.

At the budget meeting in Yamhill County Judge Dodson stated that the court had been able to obtain but $9,000 from the state highway commission for this road, in consideration of the two counties raising $4,500, and that Tillamook County had already provided a levy for $7,500 which would not all be expended on this particular road. Mr. Hefty moved that the county appropriate $4,500 for this purpose. Dr. G. S. Wright stated there was reason to believe that the county could get $10,000 more from the state next year. W. T. Vinton amended the motion to make the amount $7,500, the same as Tillamook. The vote on the amendment was lost and the original motion was carried.

On Saturday evening, January 15th, the wielders of fiery words and weighty arguments, the debaters of the Tillamook High School, will meet the Scappoose High School representatives in forensic battle. The local negative team composed of Delmer Powers and Clifton Martin, will travel to Scappoose with coach Crockett, while Lee Doty and Ernest Crockett will defend the local roster. The question "Resolved: That the United States should adopt the essential features of the Swiss system of military training and service," is one of the big questions of the day and the local boys have worked for months until they feel that they have got to the bed rock on the subject. Delmer Powers the leader of the negative team is a convincing speaker and Clifton Martin wins his audience at the start with his witty way. Lee Doty the first speaker on the affirmative has developed a fiery delivery that promises to burn up his opponents and Ernest Crockett leader of the affirmative team has debated for three years in Pendleton High School under one of the best coaches in the state. Coach Crockett is deserving of much credit for his work in developing the boys and it is an acknowledged fact that without a good coach no high school team can hope to succeed.

Christian Church Notes.

The early part of the evening was spent by the Rebecas in their installation ceremonies and this was followed by the Oddfellows' installation. At 10:30 a program was given which included two numbers by the McDonnell group and two vocal solos by Mrs. Allen Page. Rev. Van Winkle favored the audience with selections on the guitar, besides other numbers the McGhee orchestra played several delightful numbers, eleven pieces now being in the orchestra.
A sumptuous banquet was then served and all had an enjoyable evening. According to the latest report there are 204 members in the local Oddfellows lodge.

Lyceum Course.

After a month's intermission, the fourth number of the local lyceum course will be held on Saturday, Jan. 2nd. The program will be rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wells, entertainers who are well known for their versatility and cleverness. Each of them is capable of giving an entire evening's entertainment alone.
The committee which has the lyceum course in charge has arranged a special rate of $1.00 for the remaining three numbers of the course and it is expected that a better response will be given than heretofore. The remaining numbers include, besides the Wells Entertainers, the Old Town Quartette, a male organization, and Totten, a magician and illusionist. The quartett will be here early in February and Totten in March.

Basket Ball.

In a fast and exciting basket ball game at the opera house on Wednesday night, the local high school team walloped the Alumni to the tune of 20-4. The game from whistle to whistle with excitement and many brilliant plays were executed. The most interesting of the game was when in three minutes of play the high school worked together for three field baskets, shot one right after the other by Ray Erickson, adding 6 points in short notice. The Alumni, although all good individual players failed to connect with the basket because of poor shooting and team work. Ray Erickson as usual was the high school star making four field baskets or 8 points. Crockett in the second half made 6 and Jones, Crimmins and Lucas each made two points in the half they played.
The game clearly showed the superiority of the school boys and is much more decisive in score than the last game which was 16-14 in favor of the high school. The lineup was as follows. Alumni, Buel, center; Ebiner and Lamar, forwards; A. Boquist and F. Erickson guards. The high school, Edwards and Lucas, centers; R. Erickson, Jones and Crockett, forwards; J. Erickson, Crimmins and Fletcher, guards. Foster referee and Sanders umpire.
The high school basket ball team is getting a stiff workout this week preparatory to the big games of the future by playing the Alumni on last Wednesday night and playing the Garibaldi team on Friday and the local town team on Saturday night. There is plenty of material out of which to pick a good team and Coach Sanders is continually switching the men in different positions. The local team is probably much better than the average school team of this state.

Proclamation Designating Letter Writing Week.

Whereas, it appears that much beneficial publicity will result for Oregon and all its communities by the writing of letters descriptive of our State to our acquaintances, friends, and relatives who have not the good fortune to dwell in Oregon; and
Whereas, it is pointed out that the best results in such a letter writing campaign can best be obtained by organizing and setting aside for it a definite period; and
Whereas, many organizations have already interested themselves in individual efforts along this line;
Now, therefore, I do hereby proclaim the week of January 17th to 22nd, 1916, as Oregon Letter Writing Week, and during that week it is desired that the people of the organizations and communities of our state bend their energies to dispatching as many messages as possible to people in other states and countries descriptive of the opportunities, resources, and attractions of Oregon; and I further suggest that our newspapers, officials, school teachers, and community organizations will do well to give the purpose and plans of Oregon letter writing week recognition and their hearty co-operation, so that organized effort for intelligent and far reaching publicity for Oregon may be achieved.
In testimony thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of Oregon to be hereunto affixed this eighth day of January, 1916.
James Withycombe, Governor.

City Council.

On Monday evening the city council met in regular session with the following officers present: Mayor S. A. Brodhead; Councilmen R. T. Boas, H. A. Williams, W. J. Hill and David O'Donnel; Recorder, Aschm; Attorney Botts and Marshal Myers.
On account of Geo. Edmunds not accepting the office of councilman from the second ward, the committee appointments were not made at this meeting.
Attorney Botts, Recorder Aschm and Marshal Myers were re-appointed for the ensuing year.
The report of viewers for benefits and damages in regard to improvements in Miller's and Thayer's additions was continued.
Six months interest on city hall bonds amounting to $630 was ordered paid.
A soft drink ordinance was taken under consideration. An ordinance providing for the violation of the prohibition law given its first reading. Among other things the ordinance provides the following penalties. First offense $100 fine or 30 days in jail; third offense 3 to 6 months in jail. The ordinance is a lengthy one covering the same ground as the state law. In passing this ordinance the council is providing ways of securing revenues, as all fines secured from violators within the city limits will be turned into the city treasury. We understand that the council will endeavor to draw the line pretty close in regard to the near beer joints.
We had to omit Mayor Brodhead's message owing to lack of space.
Ezra Putman was in town from his ranch near Hebo yesterday. He is soon to reach his 86th birthday and says he is figuring on living to be 115. Mr. Putman is certainly an active chap for his age. He says he is interested in the coming national election and if the republicans need his help in the campaign he will take the stump for the good of the cause. Anything but another democratic administration, says Ezra.—Cloverdale Courier.
