A Washington-Lincoln program will be given at the high school Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, by the members of the G. A. R. and Women's Relief Corps and the public school. A splendid program has been arranged and a good moral service will be held in honor of the two greatest Americans. Programs will be held in the grades of the school on Friday afternoon to which all are welcome.

Last Friday evening 35 members of the local Oddfellows lodge motored in the truck of Web Maddux, to Bay City, where their fellow brothers entertained them in a splendid manner. A program and speeches were given and afterwards a sumptuous banquet was served. A large body of Oddfellows gathered for the evening.

Contractor Heyd has a crew of men at work laying the foundations of the concrete building that is being built by the First National Bank, just north of the bank building. The excavation was already done and so the work is just advanced that much. The building will be a one story structure which will be used for a pool and billiard parlor.

Over 200 people attended the very successful Fireman's Annual Ball, held in the auditorium of the new city hall. The affair was a great success in every way and all had a splendid time. The ball opened with a grand march. Pool, cards and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour. The department is now duly installed in their new quarters and will soon have their rooms finished in splendid shape.

Buel, Jim Williams, R. Zweifel, George Williams, Jay Baker, C. Christensen, W. Maxwell and T. W. Lyster.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent by the members and guests of the Kill Kare Klub at the home of Mrs. Everson and Mrs. Shrode, last Friday. The program was at Mrs. Shrode's and was both interesting and instructive. Mrs. Miller read a paper on "The effects of Foreign immigration on the low wage problem," which was followed by a general discussion of the subject. The invited guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Crenshaw and Mrs. Ira Smith. The club will next be entertained by Mrs. Haberlach.

The weather was so delightful last Sunday that many people who are busy throughout the week availed themselves of the opportunity of enjoying the spring day and organized hiking parties which scattered in all directions. The favorite hike was over the lighthouse trail to Short Beach or Netarts, and at least 20 people hit the trail that day. The trail is very badly cut up by the past storms, the water that melted from the snow came down the hill and washed the trail in many places, but still a pleasant hike may be had to the beach.

The members of the Masonic and Star lodges and their friends and relatives spent a pleasant evening at the Masonic Hall on Saturday. A program consisting of a vocal solo by A. H. Gaylord, a violin solo by E. E. Koch, a reading by Attorney Henderson, and a vocal solo by Mrs. E. E. Koch. Last Friday the Tillamook high school negative team met the Astoria team in that city and although the boys presented their argument in the best of style two of the three judges voted for Astoria. The local affirmative team defended Tillamook in the Christian church on Friday night against Rainier. The arguments presented by the team did not clash and the local debaters outdid the visiting team, composed of Miss Shauassey and Mr. Dove, in delivery and rebuttal easily giving them the debate. The decision however was a surprise, the vote being two to one in favor of Tillamook. The loss of the debate at Astoria eliminates the local school from further contests in the state league.

The local city basket ball team saluted to Garibaldi last Friday evening in automobiles, where they met and defeated the Garibaldi basketball squad in the fastest game of the year. The first half was easy for the team, and the score stood 23 to 10 in favor of Tillamook, but the Garibaldi players came back the last half and almost caught up with the lead. The final score was 29 to 23 in favor of Tillamook. The Garibaldi team is considerably strengthened and the local men had to play hard to win. A return game will be played on the local floor at the opera house on Friday evening, and the best game of the year is expected. The Tillamook squad is composed of Wallace center, Foster and Maddux forwards, and Severance and Stanley guards.

Evening Party at Miami.

On Saturday night last a dance and supper were given by the ladies of the Geibish & Joplin camp as an expression of their appreciation of the many kindnesses and courtesies extended them by Mr. C. W. Hulise, Supt. of the Miami Quarry Co. Among those present were Mr. C. A. Clark, Supt. of the Geibish & Joplin quarries, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Hulise, and a large number of the members of both camps.

The hall was tastefully decorated with greens and a delightful evening was enjoyed by all present.
