

"At Home" Party.

Over 60 invitations were sent out for the "At Home" given by Mesdames F. C. Baker, C. I. Clough and John Groat, which took place at the home of the former on Friday afternoon. It proved a highly successful social gathering and the large number of ladies who attended spent a delightful afternoon together, the entertaining features of the afternoon, being vocal and instrumental music, ruck and needlework. Rook, however, was the most attractive, and the honors fell to Mrs. Holden and Mrs. Hoy. The hostesses served a delicious lunch which was greatly enjoyed.

Misses Emma and Lillian Groat assisted the hostesses in serving lunch. The invitations included: Mesdames Alderman, Poorman, Bales, Koch, Miller, C. Schultz, O. Schultz, M. Schultz, Reichers, Byers, Lamb, Holden, Halton, Crenshaw, Hall, Gosser, Wendt, Moulton, Sanders, Onbanks, Schrodte, Hoy, Bunge, Haberlach, Everson, Reedy, C. B.
