Coming "Avening Conscience," The story is a terrible pictureization of the power of conscience. It illustrates the workings of a diseased mind. It shows that mind flitted from heaven to hell. The clash between intellectuality and natural emotions results in a hypothetical series of dramatic incidents. The cast speaks for the acting. Gem Theatre.

Womens' Civic Improvement Club Calls for Bulbs.
Tillamook should be the Dahlia City of the Pacific Coast, as our climate is admirably suited to the culture of this plant. Our dahlias took the first prize for exhibition outside of Portland at the National Dahlia Show given in that city last fall. Though our growers had made no effort to raise prize blossoms for exhibiting, they won the silver cup which has been received and is soon to be formally presented to the city.

The Womens' Civic Improvement Club has chosen the dahlia as its club flower and as the club is very anxious to aid in beautifying the city, it wishes to urge every one to plant dahlias.

Bulbs planted in your parkings and yards will be a joy to yourselves, your townspeople and the visitors during the summer. The people of Tillamook have been severely criticized, and justly so, for lack of civic pride. Let us no longer deserve such criticism but wake up, get to work and plant dahlias or anything else that will help beautify our city.

Some bulbs have been offered the club for distribution but we want all we can get. If you have any to donate for this purpose, please notify a member of the City Beautiful Committee or send them to Mrs. F. R. Beals, corner of 3rd Street and Sixth Ave., East, by April 16th.

They will be distributed among those who ask for them first and promise to plant and faithfully care for the same. The call is made especially for dahlias but anything in the line of shrubs, plants vines, etc., that will help beautify will be gladly accepted and given out by the committee.
