

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Beginning of Pastor's Third Year—Church Has Made Wonderful Growth.

Last Sunday marked the beginning of the third year for Rev Van Winkle as pastor of the Christian Church. During that time there have been one hundred and sixty three added to the membership, with a loss by death and otherwise of 24, leaving a net gain of 139. The average attendance at Sunday school has increased 100 per cent during the two years and the efficiency of the school has made a greater gain than that.

According to reports made at the last inter-denominational convention at Roseburg the Tillamook Christian Sunday School now has the largest cradle roll in the state of Oregon.

Perfect co-operation at all times existed between church and pastor and we believe that the coming year will be filled with progress and victories.

Composing the bridal party there were, in addition to the bride and groom, the bride's sister, Miss Loras Hiner, the groom's brother Peter Wyss, Mr. Jackson, and Prof and Mrs. Hanson of Beaver and Fairview.

Wade-Desmond.

At high noon, on June the 17th, a number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Desmond, of Pleasant Valley, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Minnie, to Mr. Albert Wade, of Myrtle Point, Oregon.

It would be hard to imagine a prettier or more impressive picture than that presented by the wedding party as they passed into the parlor to the strains of Sohenim's wedding march, played by Miss Charlotte Wade, and took their places beneath the beautiful floral arch.

The bride was dressed in a lovely creation of white chiffon and meseline, with tiny bride's roses entwined in her dark brown hair, and a bouquet of white "Victorias" upon her arm. The bride's maid, Miss Allie Hanson, was prettily gowned in pale pink silk, and carried LaFrance roses of the same shade.

The groom and best man, Mr. Wilbur Broughton, wore the conventional clothes for such occasions.

The decoration of the house, consisting of roses, ferns, snowballs and evergreens, furnished a beautiful setting for the picture.

Rev. R. G. Sumerlin, with an impressive ceremony, united the young couple as husband and wife, and after loving and hearty congratulations, the company sat down to a delicious and bountiful wedding dinner.

The happy young couple were the happy recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. Sumerlin, Miss Julia Sumerlin, Mr. and Mrs. Desmond, Miss Hallie Desmond, Mrs. Marie Wade, Mr. Bruce Wade, the Misses Charlotte, Grace and Lois Wade, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wersckhal, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woods, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. C. and also has finished a special course at the University of California and is now engaged with his father in operating a large farm in Multnomah County at Troutdale, where the young couple will reside and be at home to their many friends. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Youel, pastor of the Presbyterian church, using the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony, in the presence of relatives and friends. The guests from out side were: Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Strebin, of Troutdale, Oregon, parents of the groom, Mr. A. Wilhelm, of Seattle, Wash., and Dr. J. H. Montgomery, of Portland.

Honey-Hathaway.

On Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hathaway, parents of the bride, Thane Honey and Miss Barbara Hathaway were united in marriage, the Rev. N. W. Phelps performing the ceremony, those present were relatives of the contracting parties. The young people are well and favorable known in this county and their friends extend to them their best wishes for a happy and prosperous union.

Mrs. Nicklaus Dies in Portland.

Died at the Saint Vincent Hospital in Portland, Friday morning June 2, 1916, at 2 o'clock a.m., Mrs. Garnet Mabel Nicklaus, wife of J. T. Nicklaus and daughter of Prof. and Mrs. H. S. Brimhall, of Garibaldi, age 23 years, 11 months and 22 days. The cause of her death was typhoid fever.

Rev. Luther H. Dyott, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Portland preached the funeral sermon.

The body was laid to rest in a beautiful white casket, six young ladies dressed in white as honorary pall bearers.

Mrs. Nicklaus was formerly a member of the United Artisans assembly No. 338, Arleta, Portland, and members of that order acted as pall bearers.

Deceased was well and favorably known in Tillamook County, at Beaver, where she resided with her parents for several years. Her husband was formerly a prominent ranchman in Tillamook County.
