Editorial Snap Shots.

Was Dr. Reedy just fooling when he gave out the announcement that he was contemplating enlisting? It's up to him to make good.

Did it ever occur to the taxpayers, in depriving Bayocean of a road, that there is more or less danger to the traveling public in reaching that place in small overcrowded launches. If the road to that place was completed the transfer would be from this city by autos.

It appears to us that as there is a dispute between the contractor and the two county courts, as to what is owing on the Sour Grass road, it would have been better to have agreed upon some competent person to figure it out, instead of going to law. It requires someone who knows how to do so, which will have to be done, anyway.

The snap shot man predicts that, before many years, Germany will adopt a republican form of government, that is the people of that country will do so at the first opportunity. News reports from Berlin last week stated that a Socialist had been convicted of treason for taking part in peace meetings. Incidents like that will do more to bring about a change of government and undermine the iron rule of the Kaiser.

A lady suggested, that as other cities have names to distinguish them, that Tillamook take the name of "Cheesarians." That is not a bad idea, but what is a suitable dress? We offer this suggestion, if the above name is chosen, that the Cheesarians be dressed as dairymen, somewhat after this fashion: White cloth cap with yellow band, "Tillamook" printed on it, a long white smock with yellow band and white shoes.

We do not know whether this is another Ford pun or a genuine receipt for killing gophers. Anyway, as a large number of our dairymen are driving the sissies, they can try it. This is what we clipped from one of our exchanges: "Over in Colorado they use Ford automobiles to kill the gophers—What? Yes sir. They locate the gopher's house, slip a piece of hose over the Ford's nose (exhaust) and just set it to snorting. After the Ford has blown his breath into the hole for fifteen minutes the gopher is glad to die. That is one thing additional to the Ford's glory. Its going some when you can utilize a machine's breath for economic purposes."

Those who have made the remark that they did not know what Mr. Hughes stood for have very short memories. Mr. Hughes twice carried the State of New York for Governor, the second time against the bitter opposition of most of the disorderly elements because of his enforcement of the anti-gambling law. It may be a pretty good bluff to tell people out West that no one knows what Hughes stands for, but it won't work in the state of New York, for everybody there knows his opinion on public questions. It is safe to say that Hughes will carry New York by a big majority, because the people in that state know what he stands for. With the loss of New York and Indiana, Wilson cannot be elected.

We are going to remind our subscribers that quite a number are now delinquent and we want them to help us out, for we have bought new machinery for the purpose of enlarging the Headlight. We need several hundred dollars to pay for it, and we know that our subscribers will renew their subscriptions right away, and will do so gladly. The cost of material have greatly advanced in producing a newspaper, so much so that it is somewhat like the feed question in this county last year, when the dairymen were paying $25.00 a ton for hay, for printing materials have jumped in price at the same proportion. But oblige the snapshot man by renewing your subscription at once and help us out, for we need the money to pay for the new printing press.

The lot owners of Bayocean, especially those who are wanting to erect bungalows as soon as a road to that place is built, have formed what is called the Bayocean Lot Buyer's Association. One of the arguments put forth by these property owners is that they are taxed too high and that their taxes should be reduced, and they should be refunded for excess paid in the past, if they cannot obtain a way out. This is getting down to real business. County Judge A. M. Hare knows that these lot owners matter be taken into court the fact. The county have spent thousands of dollars on macadam roads and is now replacing some of them with concrete while a place like Bayocean is deprived of even a way out. That is not treating Bayocean right, and the lot owners are justified in asking the county to give them a way out as soon as possible or reduce their taxes.

Tillamook's turned out in large numbers on Tuesday to celebrate the Fourth, and the large crowds at each of the celebrations in the county, especially in this city, showed that the people were in a patriotic mood and favored holding these celebrations. Never before in the history of the county have so many persons attended Fourth of July celebrations, as this year. Some few persons had an idea that Tillamook City should not have celebrated, but we think it was a right thing to celebrate in all parts of the county, so as to give everybody an opportunity to attend them. Had there been no celebration in this city hundreds of persons and children, who live in the city and vicinity would not have attended celebrations elsewhere. We have a very poor opinion of anyone who undertakes to knock holding celebrations, for no one person or place have a monopoly on them. The big crowd that assembled in the city showed that they thoroughly appreciated the efforts of those who planned it and carried it through to success, for it was what they wanted. And we are glad to say that celebrations in other parts of the county were just as much appreciated and enjoyed, and those who had the management of them are deserving a word of commendation from the snap shot man.

Hand-Picked.
 (The Oregonian.)

A thousand odd delegates assembled at St. Louis ten days ago, was all parts of the United States, including Alaska, Porto Rico and the Philippines, to nominate a president and to adopt a platform. It was a useless formality, for, when they arrived, they found that the job had been done for them.

The convention needed a temporary chairman who should be an official keynoter. Woodrow Wilson hand-picked him.

The convention needed a permanent chairman who should also be an administration spellbinder, and who should listen to his master's voice and see that the delegates also listened and heeded. Woodrow Wilson hand-picked him.

The convention had to have a resolutions committee which should say the discreet things and leave unsaid the risky things, and a chairman who would take orders. Woodrow Wilson hand-picked him.

The convention was expected to adopt a platform which should be the fruit of discussion, conference, compromise and agreement of a thousand delegates. Woodrow Wilson wrote it.

The convention had to have a program of procedure, a schedule of performances. Woodrow Wilson prepared it.

The national committee, consisting of more than fifty members, was to elect a new chairman. Woodrow Wilson elected him.

The convention, besides nominating a president, was to choose a candidate for vice president. They were both hand-picked by Woodrow Wilson.

Talk about your controlled, disciplined, docile, yoke-wearing, leg-shackled, mouth-padded, neck-enchained, soul-prisoned conventions of other days and other places. They were untrampled bodies of free thought and independent action beside this sorry St. Louis affair. There never was another knee-crawling national convention like it.

Hand-picked! From first to last, from center to circumference it was hand-picked and big-sticked.

Is there a Democratic party? Or is there only a Wilson party?

Have our Democratic friends nothing to say about the outrage at St. Louis perpetrated by the biggest boss in politics?

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hare's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., TOLEDO, O. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

HIGH SCHOOL KNOCKED OUT.
 Result of High School Election at Beaver and Cloverdale.

Beaver and five adjoining districts and Cloverdale and seven neighboring districts voted on the question of establishing Union High Schools at the two named places at the Annual School Meeting elections. The District Boundary Board canvassed the returns of the elections last week, and found the vote stood as follows:

To establish a school at Beaver, for High School, Yes, 40; No, 38. It carried in two districts, and failed to carry in four districts.

To establish a school at Cloverdale: for High School, Yes, 84; No, 46. It carried in four districts, and lost in three districts. One district did not vote. The decision of the Boundary Board was that the question had lost in both instances because it failed to carry a majority of the districts. The law provides that this question must carry by majority of all votes cast, and also it must carry in a majority of the districts.

W. S. Buel,
 Sec. Dist. Boundary Board.

BASE BALL SEASON OPENS.
 Tillamook Losing Two out of Three With Knights of Columbus.

The base ball season opened in Tillamook Sunday, July 2nd, when the local tusslers crossed bats with the Knights of Columbus, of Portland, winning one out of the series, which is not a bad showing as on account of weather conditions the local team had not appeared together this season and Sunday was the first game that most of the players had taken part in this season, with a little practice and some good team work Tillamook will have a strong aggregation.

After getting 1 hits off Parker on Monday losing by 7 to 5 the local boys ran out of ammunition on Tuesday, and retreated to the music of an 8 to 0 defeat at the hands of Gunner Blake.

And Blake, without such able assistance from the umpires as figured so conspicuously in Tillamook's defeat of the previous day, slathered the whitewash over the home team without the relieving color of a base hit. He struck out twelve men and gave no bases on balls.

Eight hits and four healthy errors by Dodson produced eight runs for the visitors. In the sixth, after Hughes walked, Hershler slammed one into deep left good for a two-bagger, Hughes scored and Hershler took third on the throw-in, and then it was discovered that he had failed to locate the keystone sack on the way around, he was declared out at second, his hit only going for a single.

The game ended a scrappy and exciting series the Knights of Columbus winning two out of three.

Batteries—Knights of Columbus, Blake and Fystringer; Tillamook, Parrish, Millis and Armbruster. Stolen bases, Tauscher, Hughes, Holmes. Two base hits, Powers, Hughes. Bases on balls, off Parrish 2. Struck out by Parrish 10, Blake 12. Left on bases Tillamook 3, K. C. 6.

City Hall Formally Opened.

The formal opening of the new city hall, which is a credit to the city as well as permanent improvement, took place on the Fourth, immediately after the patriotic exercises at the court house. There was a good attendance.

Rev. J. E. Youel was the master of ceremonies and he called upon the president of the Women's Civic Improvement League, to make a presentation of the city.

Mrs. C. J. Edwards in making the presentation of a silver cup won by Tillamook City at the National Dahlia Show in Portland, for the best display outside of Portland, stated that the County Fair Board and the Women's Civic Improvement League had arranged to make the display, but at the last moment this fell through, and she had induced several of those who had grown dahlias to make an exhibit, which they did, the result of which they had won the splendid cup she was authorized to present to the city. Those who had contributed dahlias were Mr. and Mrs. Dunstan, Fred C. Baker, Mrs. D. Billings and Mrs. C. B. Wiley. Mrs. Edwards thought that as they had been so successful, without much effort in cultivating the dahlias for show purposes, they could accomplish a great deal more if they devoted more attention to it. She strongly advocated making Tillamook the dahlia city because that flower did so well in this climate and she urged all to help to beautify the city. The Women's Civic Improvement League was working to that end. Mrs. Edwards then presented the cup to the city and in a few appropriate remarks Mayor S. A. Brodhead accepted the same.

Mr. H. T. Botts was then called upon for the principal address, who based his remarks on preparedness and local government. The new city hall was the people's meeting place and it belongs to them and was the place for them to express their sentiments on public questions pertaining to city affairs. The erection of the new city hall showed that the city was progressing and preparing for the future. He was glad that the citizens had sanctioned its erection and felt proud that the city had such a fine building which he formally dedicated that day.

Misses Mabel Goyno and Irma Sumner rendered a vocal duet at the commencement of the proceedings and Miss Packer closed it with a vocal solo, both of which were applauded.

Four Lecturers of Renown to Appear on Big Chautauqua Program

Every Lecturer on 1916 Program to Give Worth While and Interesting Lectures

CHAUTAUQUA patrons are to hear some "real" lecturers—men and women who have "snap" and present their subjects in a way that makes you sit up and take notice. Of the galaxy of lecturers to be on the week's program the four in the above group are typical of the character of men and women on the program. Elloit A. Boyd and Arthur A. Franke are inspirational lecturers, and you will not forget their message for many a day. Mrs. Harlette Gunn Robinson is a contributor to a number of young people's magazines and periodicals and in her second tour of the west will undoubtedly make a greater success than ever. Frederick Vilning Fisher, formerly head of the bureau of lecturers of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, has gained a wide reputation on the platform. These four men and women are but a part of one of the greatest Chautauqua programs ever brought to the west.

Ionian Serenaders.

Four delectable girls are going to enliven the opening day of chautauqua with a galaxy of captivating performances that will lend a winged zest to the occasion which fits merrily throughout the six snappy days of chautauqua—good time week for all. These girls are known as the Ionian Serenaders doubtless because of their inimitable mastery of the accordion, a favorite instrument with the romantic daughters of sunny Italy. Equally proficient at the piano, on the violin and cello, delightful in both solo and orchestral ensemble—their whole program sparkling with inter-ludes of readings, pantomimes and imperiponations, the Ionians and their colonel costumes seem to mingle the old lavender charm of romance with the snap of the best in refined gaiety. The battle hymn of the "Talents" following S. Platt Jones, who appears on the opening night is: "Keeping up with Jones" but those on the inside know that Mr. Jones goes himself one better in "Keeping up with the Ionians" who preced him.
