

City Recorder's "Dignified" Nose.

Beaver, Oregon, Sept. 27. To the Editor of the Headlight: In printing the little rhyme I sent you last week you substituted the word "delightful" for "dignified" as I had it written. If I were the "legal light" or the City Recorder, either, I'd rather have a dignified nose than a delightful one.

U. B. Church.

Don't forget the revival meetings at the U. B. Church. Rev. Neff is a wonderful preacher of the word. Come and hear him every night at 7:30 p. m. God's Spirit is moving the people. Sunday school 10 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. Y. P. C. E. 6:30. Evening sermon 7:30 p. m. Come and bring your friends.

R. G. Sumerlin.

Tillamook Preacher Honored.

Rev. Edw. Gittins, for the past two years pastor of the Methodist church of this city, finished his work here last Sunday. He is not only through with his work here, but this year ends his active work in the ministry.

He entered the ministry in the state of Iowa nearly thirty five years ago, and for more than thirty years has preached in Oregon.

Last Sunday evening being Rev. Gittins' last service, the pastors and members of other churches attended the Methodist church in a body.

The visiting preachers were invited to the rostrum, after which the services of the evening were held. After some remarks by Rev. Gittins, Rev. F. S. Ford, presented that worthy gentleman with a set of resolutions, expressing thanks for the official board for faithful service rendered.

The resolutions were read before presentation. Rev. Yonel, of the Presbyterian church, made a few appropriate remarks, after which Rev. Neff an old friend of Rev. Gittins, who is now conducting revival meetings at the U. B. church, gave a short talk. Rev. Sumerlin, of the U. B. Church made a few appropriate remarks, after which the meeting was brought to a close.

A beautiful floral display was furnished by Prof. Sanders and a beautiful cross made of dahlias was presented by Ira Lance.

Rev. Gittins and daughter Margaret left on Tuesday for the seat of conference at Lebanon.

Only 9 Days Left for Registration.

Nine days more in which to register! Ten days before the close of the registration books on October 7, but one of these is Sunday.

The time is fast coming to a close in which those who neglected to register in time to cast their ballot in the primary election may go through the necessary preliminaries that they may have a voice in the final election.

Every one who has not registered in 1916 must do so to vote.

The registration at the court house opens every morning at 8 o'clock and closes at 5 o'clock.

It should be remembered that this is a permanent registration and you will not have it all to do over again unless you should move, change your party affiliations, or neglect to exercise your right of franchise for two consecutive years.

Further, remember that in this registration you are not required to give your age. Just say you are over 21 and that's enough.

The registration in Tillamook county is 368 below that of two years ago. Below is the registration for 1914 and 1916.

	1914	1916
Republican	2933	2095
Democrat	536	471
Prohibition	236	63
Socialist	117	95
Progressive	41	8
Independent	185	87
Total	3187	2819

These figures show that the Republicans gained 62 in numbers, while all the other parties have fallen below the registration two years ago. Democrats lose 65, Prohibitionists 173, Socialist 22, and Progressive 33, while the independent voters have fallen off 98.

The prohibition party is not making any headway in Tillamook. The registration of prohibitionists fell from 236 in 1914 to 63 this year.

Of the two leading political parties in Tillamook County, there are 2095 Republicans and 471 Democrats. And the Democrats claim they are going to carry the county. There will be a whole lot of traitors in the Republican party if they do.

"The Flag of Truce."

The Artisan Lodge will offer to their many friends this 4 act Comedy Drama at the Gem Theatre two nights, Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 9th and 10th.

This is the story of the unpreparedness of this country during the days of the civil war. Just enough war flavor is woven through the play to show the horrors of those times. Coming as it does at a time when the question is foremost in the minds of the American people, it will be well for everyone to see it, who have the impression that this country is prepared enough. A careful cast has been selected, and you can look forward to a night of pleasure, and enjoyment. The story is instructive, as well as educational, and the comedy is interwoven in such a manner as to offset the pathos. Do not fail to see this play or you will have missed the treat of your life.

Hampton W. Cottrell, of Portland, Secretary of the North Pacific Religious Liberty Association, will address a mass meeting at the City Hall, MONDAY, Oct. 2nd, at 8 o'clock p.m., on the live topic of compulsory Sunday rest as the result of the revival of the 1854 territorial Sunday Blue Law.

A large barn which contains 100 tons of hay goes with the place also house and all necessary out buildings, (right being reserved to reject any and all bids)

A free lunch will be served at noon. All sums of $20.00 and under will be cash, over that sum time will be given on approved security with interest at 8 per cent.

The Big Round Up at McMinnville Next Week.

McMinnville Ore., Sept. 28.—In a letter from McClelland the man behind our big show, he says that his greatest trouble is in deciding between some of the bucking outlaws he is receiving for the big contest to be staged here October 4-5-6, 1916.

Knowing him as I do it appears funny to me for he acts at times as if he wanted to get hold of an outlaw that would win the prize saddle instead of the poor broncho buster who sits him through the furious "tango."

It is hard to figure how he expects to break even, knowing something of his expenses in connection with this rodeo, however, Mac loves the game for the game's sake and this accounts for his reckless tactics in supplying the class of stock he always delivers to his corrals.

Ten more names are in today including some from far off Mexico.

I do not blame these rawhide fellows for leaving a section so full of strife, wrel in their shoes (or rather boots) but I believe I would find it hard to choose between a greaser fusillade and the tossing horns of a Mexican ten year old steer, neither would I think my location much improved having left the troublesome republic so far south and take up my temporary abode on the volcanic top of a howling, bucking, broncho.

McMinnville and all of Yamhill should appreciate the efforts of Mac and the live wires of this town who are putting over one of the exhibitions of the range lands strenuous display of skill, nerve and daring, ever attempted in this or any other section of the U. S. A.

L. P. Hays, Pendleton, Ore., Sept. 25, 1916. (6:30 a.m.) Norman Hays, Adv Mgr. Round-Up, McMinnville, Oregon.—Closed contract with Katie Wilkes and Peggy Warren, winners first and second cowgirls bucking contest championship of the world, will both ride in McMinnville, contract Benny Corbett world renowned Roman and Bucking horse rider. To enter five others, Buffalo Jones, Sid, Henry Warner, John Spain, winner championship in bucking contest Pendleton. Will leave here special baggage and passenger next Sunday.

McClelland. Copy of letter from R. P. McClelland, the man furnishing the Round-Up Show, to his representative N. L. Hays:

Pendleton, Sept. 21, 1916. Friend Hays—Evidently the reputation of our show at Philomath last June has spread pretty well over the whole country.

I am receiving applications all the time from the sure enough best riders of the whole western country. It is hard for me to say no to them all and as it is I am sure bringing some bunch to the McMinnville show.

You can assure the McMinnville people that they will see the best bunch of riders, ropers, bull-doggers, etc., ever gathered together in Western Oregon, in fact, I think the performers that will be with me at McMinnville will be better than at Philomath and we all know that the action and events pulled off there satisfied the most exacting critics.
