REPUBLICAN MEETING. Mr. Duniway Shows Up How Wilson Kept us out of War.

There was a Republican meeting at the court house on Thursday, which was well filled to hear Attorney R. R. Duniway on behalf of Hughes and the Republican ticket.

State Committeeman T. B. Handley presided, and before introducing the speaker of the evening, asked for sig-Hughes Alliance. Sufficient names were obtained and in the near future a branch will be formed here.

Mr. Duniway made a forciful speech and attacked the Democratic platform. He stated that the Demo-cratic platform of four years ago, contained a plank for one term for a president, and this was one of the planks that Wilson subscribed to, but he was no sooner elected when started a political machine to obtain another nomination.

Mr. Duniway devoted a good deal of his time to the Democratic slogan: "Wilson kept us out of war." He "Wilson kept us out of war." He ridiculed the slogan as false, for Wilson's vascilating and wobbling policy in regard to Mexico had practically plunged the country into war. He spoke of the large number of American citizens who had been killed by Mexicans, and the need of protection to American citizens, whether at home or abroad. Mr. Duniway asked Mrs. Clara Burge. did not know of any party or any sentiment in the country that wanted to plunge the country into war, and he did not know of any country that wanted to go to war with the United States. It was not the president, but Congress, which had the power to declare war, and no one had ever heard that Congress wanted to declare war.

1 High revolving desk chair and for that reason the speaker said it looked silly to him to say that the president had kept us out of war. And when Mr. Wilson made the remark that if the Republican party was placed in power it would plunge the country into war, Mr. Duniway characterized as idiotic, for there was no country that wanted to engage in war 1 lot electric wire, colored globes
