THE TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT.

Editorial Snap Shots.

Now, which will it be? Shall we have to doff our hats next Tuesday to Hughes or Wilson?

We've got the horse laugh on Bro. Trombley. The young woman in his office is going to kill his vote.

The Cloverdale Courier says "Let us get goats." Don't be too anxious Bro., we are going to get Wilson's goat next week.

When the election is over, let's all help boost Tillamook, and Oregon as well. That will be more to our liking, for elections always leave more or less sore spots.

The speech of Congressman W. C. Hawley at the court house Monday evening was pronounced a convincing argument against the Wilson administration and Mexican blunders. Our citizens who heard the speech say they never heard anything better.

The teachers' institute in this city last week was similar to other teachers' institutes in other places. The teachers as a rule discuss matters or pass resolutions to benefit themselves financially, but we have never heard of a teachers' institute that discussed how to decrease taxation in school districts.

My, if the high cost of living keeps going skyward, it is going to make it hard for most people to obtain the common necessities of life. President Wilson promised the people four years ago that he was going to reduce the cost of living. Our democratic friends are stocking up, for they believe the price of living is going still higher.

Colonel Roosevelt in an address in Brooklyn recently declared that "if today is what our Democratic friends call Wilson Day it should be appointed a day of fasting and humiliation. During the past three years the people of the United States have eaten the bitter bread of shame and have trod the paths of dishonor under the leadership of Wilson."

Bro. Trombley has failed to mention that the gentleman who is running for congressman on the Democratic ticket, was on the "Wet" side of the house when several cases were tried in Linn county. We are informed that the prohibitionists feel sore because he was the nomination of that party as well. Our esteemed Bro. may feel shocked, but it's a fact nevertheless.

Our attention was called to the fact that the Democratic administration is working the postoffice to distribute campaign literature. President Wilson's speech of acceptance is being franked out free and sent all over the United States, some of them having reached this city. A speech of acceptance not being a congressional record, what right has the Democratic party to send it through the mail?

At the primary election the vote for president was: Hughes 56,746; Cummings, 27,558; Burton, 10,593. Making a total of Republican votes of 94,915. The vote for Wilson was 27,898. We do not think that since the primary election any considerable number of voters have turned to Wilson other than the trainmen who have an idea that they are benefited by the Adamson bill.

A vote for W. L. Campbell means a capable and efficient man in the sheriff's office. If you are in favor of the enforcement of law and want a man with the clerical ability to look after that important part of the office you will have to vote for Mr. Campbell. He made a clean open fight in the Republican primary election, and being the choice of the party, is entitled to every Republican vote in the county.

We are going to make one more appeal to the Republicans in Tillamook, and we do so in all sincerity, believing it to be the best for the county and the nation. Vote for every Republican candidate on the Republican ticket. Don't "scritch" any candidate for every candidate was nominated in a fair open primary election by the Republicans of the county. This is a duty you owe to the Republican party.

"Let's see!" said the blind man. How can a Republican or other voter, who are in favor of Hughes, vote for N. J. Myers, the Democratic nominee, for sheriff, who is a Wilson man and advocating Wilson's election? W. L. Campbell the Republican candidate for sheriff, is a Hughes man and will vote for Hughes. Here's the logic in this: Are you going to vote for Myers and allow his vote to kill yours for Hughes?

We are glad that the election to submit the enlargement of the Port of Tillamook is not going to create any bad feeling. It should be carefully considered from all view points without prejudice. The members of the Port are giving out some valuable information for the voters to consider, and they are doing so with no other purpose in view than the growth and development of this part of the county, for a deep channel from the bay to this city will benefit everybody.

There are several Democrats who aspire to be postmaster should Wilson be elected. If any one is entitled to the job it is our esteemed friend Bro. Trombley, who is the bellwether of the Democratic party and the manner he has been filing up his paper with Democratic boiler plate, he is entitled to the job. Certainly he has filled his readers with Democratic boiler plate stuff, so much so that it has become sickening.

My! my! my! Bro. Trombley has started a fight between the "dry" candidates, and all being good church members, we poor sinners are looking on and watching this unchristian fight. But then, Christianity seems to fade into the background in a political scrap. Shame Bros., shame for its not good Christianity to be thus employed. It is not doing Christianity any good nor is it helping the "dry" cause when professing Christians get into a scrap and attempt to belittle one another.

The three Tillamook cheese makers who won high honors at the National Dairy show at Springfield, Mass., are deserving of a word of commendation for they have added another laurel to the fame of Tillamook cheese for its excellent quality. It was a great honor to them and to this county when the cheese made in Tillamook was awarded the highest prizes in competition with the best cheese producing states of the East. We doff our hat to H. M. Biberstein, Hugh Barber and A. J. Schmelzer, and commend them for the honors they have won for themselves and Tillamook County.

There is more or less friction in the fight for the office of district attorney, and it is growing personal, on account of the recent exposure made by the Headlight. We have no patience with the silly sentimental people who criticize Attorney Callahan for obtaining and giving out the information, but he should not be criticized because we published it, for that was our business and not his. But it is not our purpose to resurrect this unpleasant occurrence, other than to say that Mr. Callahan is deserving of credit, not criticism. The snap shot man is not, however, supporting Mr. Callahan for the office he aspires to, for the reason we have stated before that Mr. Goyne won the nomination at the primary election and we do not like to see "independent" candidates butt in after the nominations have been made, for that is not the way to play fair in politics. The primary law was passed to give those who aspired to public office an opportunity to place their names on the primary ballot. Mr. Goyne did so, but Mr. Callahan did not.

Former Tillamooker Discusses the Diggs and Caminetti Cases.

Attorney B. L. Eddy, now of Roseburg, but formerly of this city, while out on the stump for Hughes, referred to a matter that caused more or less comment at the time. We want our readers to ponder over what Mr. Eddy said, for most of our citizens know that he was a splendid citizen. We take this from the Umpqua Valley News:

"The audience was reminded of the course taken by President Wilson and his administration in connection with the celebrated California cases against Diggs and Caminetti, who inveigled two young school girls into the state of Nevada for immoral purposes, and who were indicted by the federal grand jury and were about to come to trial when United States District Attorney McNab, who was prosecuting the case, received a telegram from Mr. McReynolds, attorney general in the cabinet of President Wilson directing Mr. McNab to withhold prosecution. The court was about to convene, the witnesses were ready, the defendants were infamously guilty, public sentiment in California was strong. Mr. McNab protested against the instructions from Washington, even appealed to the President; the United States grand jury which indicted the defendants, took up the matter, citizens of California sought the ear of the president, protesting against the interference with the courts of justice. All was without avail until Mr. McNab, crushed and disgusted with the conduct of his superior officers, resigned his position and thus called the attention of the country to the conduct of Mr. McReynolds. What was the reason for this interference at Washington? Simply that the father of Caminetti, one of the defendants, was an influential California politician whom President Wilson had recently appointed United States Commissioner of immigration and because of his political influence the effort was made to stifle the prosecution of these men, and President Wilson showed no more interest in the cause of justice and humanity in this case than he showed afterwards in behalf of suffering American citizens in Mexico, and along the border. Contrary to every dictate of humanity and justice he sustained the attorney general and when a vacancy occurred upon the supreme bench he appointed that attorney general to fill that vacancy. Because of the storm raised by the resignation of District Attorney McNab the press and pulpit throughout the country took up the matter and the resignation of Mr. McReynolds was demanded, but the Wilson administration stood pat. This is the time for the American people to remember that occurrence and to retire to private life Woodrow Wilson, who was responsible for that blot upon the pages of American history."

Where or where is W. J. Bryan, the peerless orator who has held "top of column next to pure reading matter" in all the big dailies in every campaign for the past twenty years? Is it a fact that there is one Democrat who is still adhering to the one term plank of the Baltimore convention?—Newberg Graphic.

THE AMENDMENTS.

To be Voted Upon at the November Election.

We give below a list of the constitutional amendments to be voted upon next week, and we give also some recommendations as follows:

Single Item Veto Amendment; 300 yes; 301 No. This amendment permits the Governor to veto single items in an appropriation bill without vetoing the whole measure. Its virtue lies in the fact that it gives the Governor power to cancel riders or unmeritorious appropriations which has been incorporated with meritorious items. This should pass. Vote Yes.

Ship Tax Exemption Amendment; 302, yes; 303, No. A measure designed to encourage home ownership and Oregon registration of ships. Such ships would pay state taxes but not local taxes. An important reason for its adoption is that both California and Washington make such an exemption and Oregon Ports are that much handicapped in building up ocean commerce. This also should pass. Vote Yes.

Negro and Mulatto Suffrage Amendment; 304 yes; 305, No. This amendment merely removes dead wood from the constitution. The section repealed is inoperative. Vote Yes.

Full Value Land Tax and Home-makers' Loan Fund Amendment; 306, Yes; 307, No. This is single tax again with a new wrinkle. It declares the state to be landlord over all Oregon and requires land owners to pay the full rental value of their land to the state. It is socialist and confiscatory, and proposes after confiscating a virtual division of one third of the proceeds among persons not already possessing $2250 in money or property. The amendment is freakish, dangerous, and of the kind submission of which has brought disrepute upon Oregon. Swat the amendment. It is no good and confiscates land. Vote No.

For Pendleton Normal School, 308 Yes; 309, No. This bill appropriates $125,000 for buildings and levies one-twenty-fifth mill for maintenance, site to be donated, for a normal school to serve Eastern Oregon. The bill has the endorsement of educators generally; need for a second normal is conceded and the circumstances which caused the closing of two normals heretofore established have been eliminated. If you think the state should support another normal school. Vote yes.

Anti-compulsory vaccination law 310 Yes; 311 No. This bill voices an ignorant superstition against a disease preventative which is not only harmless but is recognized as effective by science and governments the world over. Vote No.

Bill repealing and abolishing the Sunday closing law. 312 Yes; 313 No. This bill seeks to wipe out an antiquated measure which has never been enforced, but which has been revived by intolerant religionists. Its adoption would leave Sunday observance as it is now practiced. Vote yes and rid the state of an antiquated law.

Bill permitting manufacture and regulated sale of 4 per cent malt liquors. 314, Yes; 315 No. A bill designed to amend on purported economic grounds a prohibition law which has admittedly not worked an economic hardship. It obviously looks forward to a removal of all restriction on home consumption of beer.

If you think that Oregon, which allows beer to be shipped in, should be allowed to manufacture it, vote yes. If not, vote no.

Prohibition amendment. 316 Yes, 317, No. This is a bone-dry amendment. It is presented on moral grounds which has been lauded as a moral success. Its real inspiration is a class fight between the brewery interests and the radical prohibitionists.

If you want straight prohibition vote yes. If not, vote No.

Rural Credits amendment. 318 Yes; 319, No. An amendment made unnecessary by passage of the Federal rural credits law. It authorizes a state bond issue of $18,000,000 to provide a farm loan fund. The measure is also objectionable because it puts statutory legislation into the constitution. Try Federal rural credits first, and don't bond if it can be avoided.

State-wide tax and indebtedness limitation amendment. 320 Yes; 321 No. Adoption of this amendment would make it unlawful for any taxing authority to levy tax revenues exceeding by more than 6 per cent the tax revenues raised in the preceding year. It is a measure to force economy and retrenchment upon the state, county, city and other tax districts.

This is a measure advocated by certain interests to lower the taxes. Some good and some bad features in the measure. In view of the fact that taxes are now too high it may be wise to vote yes.

For Sale or Trade for an Auto.

A Philadelphia millionaire has left part of his fortune for the erection and support of mission churches in Mexico. In view of what has happened to the churches down there one hardly knows whether this is sad or funny.—Oregon Register. Senator Chamberlain talked of "invisible government." It is well that he did, because one of the first men in the United States to go out and do battle with invisible government was Chas. E. Hughes. As Governor of New York he was out fighting invisible government and putting it to rout long before some of those who now prattle of it knew there was such a thing.—News-Reporter.
