Everyone is invited to the Military Ball to be given by the 10th Coast Artillery on Dec. 30. A good clean dance and a good time assured.

Everybody invited to the Military ball that is to be given Saturday night in the new drill hall of the Coast company. There appears to be an impression that this was to be a "dress" affair, but that is not the case, as it will be an informal affair and all are invited to have a good time at this dance.

On Saturday afternoon several friends and neighbors at the Henry J. Ellison home and helped him celebrate his 73rd birthday. The rooms were tastefully decorated with holiday decorations, and a splendid dinner was provided. During the afternoon Mr. Ellison enlivened the occasion by playing several old time tunes on his violin. Those present report a splendid time.

Wesley Raney vs. State Industrial Accident Commission is a writ of review, the Commission having refused plaintiff's application for compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act. The plaintiff alleges that while working for D. R. Tinnerstedt July 21st he was struck by a machine cutting ensilage, the plaintiff's hand being torn and cut to the wrist joint.

Pastor B. J. Cady, who has spent twenty years in the South Sea Islands and Australia, will lecture in the Seventh-day Adventist church, Wednesday, January 3, at 7:30 p.m., giving an account of the people of those countries and their habits. Some of our older Tillamook residents may remember of hearing Mr. Cady speak in the opera house about fifteen years ago, when he was in this country on furlough, and such may wish to hear him again. All are cordially invited to attend. An offering will be taken for missions.

Daisy Smith vs. Clark Smith is a divorce case filed in the circuit court. These parties were married in February 25, 1909, one son being born to the union. The plaintiff alleges cruel and inhuman treatment in her complaint. She states that defendant accused her of being unchaste and criminally intimated with other men, all to her great humiliation and shame about the 5th of December, 1916, the defendant threatened to go up stairs and shoot himself, and when the plaintiff started to follow him and remonstrate with him, and sought for him to desist in his design, as she thought at the time to destroy him self, turned on her and told her to go back or he would blow her brains out, and if she called anyone he would kill her and them too. The plaintiff fled, and shortly after left the defendant. Plaintiff wants the custody of the child and a monthly allowance.

Christmas passed off quietly in this city, but owing to inclement weather on Saturday the Christmas exercises did not take place under the large tree, that had been erected in the business part of the city. This was held in the Star Garage, and a large number of persons were present to hear the Christmas carols and the local pastors speak.

Presbyterian Church.

"Launch Out into the Deep" will be the subject of the sermon at 11 next Sunday which will be the beginning of the New Year Revival; and in the evening at 7:30 the subject will be "The Ministry of Song," the last in the series of addresses on "Life's Ministries," Bible school at 10 a.m., offers opportunity for all to study the Scriptures under pleasant circumstances and competent direction. All are welcome to attend and are urgently invited.

Swastika Club.

The club met at the home of Mrs. Hayes for the Xmas meeting. The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens, mistle-toe and holly. A great deal of merriment was caused by looking up the significance of the different birthday dates. The chief feature on this occasion was the grab-bag, which the hostess had artistically arranged on the dining room table.

After delicious refreshments the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Holden for the January meeting.

The guests were Mesdames Lamb, Willett and Holmes.

Christensen-George.

Married on Christmas day at 10 o'clock at Nehalem, Oregon, Fred W. Christensen, of Tillamook, and Miss Lucile George. The bride is the eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. George, formerly of Cloverdale, and is well and favorably known. The groom is one of the best known young men of this county, where for several years he has efficiently served as cheese inspector for the county, and has made many friends. Their home will be in Tillamook, and after a brief wedding journey, they will find their place among many friends who wish for their unbounded happiness and large prosperity in their lives for many years.

Special Revival Service.

Next Sunday will mark the beginning of a series of special evangelistic meetings at the Presbyterian Church, in which the pastor will be the evangelist. It is expected that the meetings will continue for two, possible three weeks. The use of gospel songs will be an interesting feature of the services. The preaching will be plain, practical, spiritual, direct and personal, with love for men, but with no compromise with sin in any form or person. No service will be held New Year's night, nor any Saturday nights, but all other nights beginning promptly at 7:30. The Church congregation joins me in an earnest invitation to the public to attend these meetings and have a part in them.

Norberg-Anderson.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson on Thursday evening, Dec. 21, when their daughter, Miss Hilma Marie was given in marriage by her father to Carl Edgar Norberg. The parlor was beautifully decorated with draperies and evergreens. The bridal couple stood under a large white bell suspended from the ceiling. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine and veil with wreath of orange. Mrs. Lewis Anderson was bridesmaid and carried bridesmaid roses. The groom wore a suit of conventional black and was attended by Lewis Anderson as best man. Rev. C. C. Curtis, pastor of the Christian Church, tied the nuptial knot. After the ceremony dinner was served in the dining room. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wm. Edwall, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Norberg, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Wicklund, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Anderson, Harry Norberg, Stanley Norberg, Ellen Norberg, Astrid Larson, Alvin Wicklund, Mrs. J. P. Larson, Henry Anderson, Edna Anderson, Ethel Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Lars Anderson.

Christmas Party at Rockaway.

Through the efforts of Miss Eleanore Spall and her pupils the people of Rockaway and nearby towns were treated to a surprise when they attended the Xmas tree party at the school house Friday night.

Music and Christmas carols were furnished by Miss Spall and pupils, with old time songs for the grown ups.

Miss Spall was highly praised for the way her pupils took their parts of the program, as this was their first entertainment.

In the play room stood an enormous Xmas tree that C. W. Ross and Frank P. Miller decorated loaded with presents by Mrs. Captain Schrader and Miss Spall, and gifts were distributed by G. A. Jones, acting as Santa Claus.

Games were played by the big and small, after which all went home with a true Xmas spirit.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to take this means of extending to our friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during our bereavement, by kindly words and deeds of sympathy, our sincere thanks. It has made the grief caused by our father's death more easily borne.

Suit to Oust the Mayor of Bay City

State of Oregon, upon the information of T. H. Goynes, district attorney vs. H. E. Hartline, is a suit filed in the circuit court to oust the defendant from the office of Mayor of Bay City. The complaint alleges that on the first Monday in November a general municipal election was called for the purpose of electing city officials, and that H. E. Hartline, the candidate for the office of mayor, received the greatest number of legal votes cast, and the canvassing board issued a certificate of election to the defendant. The latter thereupon qualified by taking and subscribing the oath of office. The complaint also alleges that the defendant is not and never has been, eligible to the office of Mayor of Bay City, and was not eligible to the office at the time of his election, in that he had not at the time of his election as mayor or at the time of his attempting to qualify as such, resided within the corporate limits of Bay City for at least one year prior thereto. That notwithstanding his ineligibility, on the 1st December he usurped and intruded into the office of Mayor, and has ever since wrongfully and unlawfully held and exercised the same, and threatens to do so unless restrained, ousted and excluded by the court, continued to usurp and unlawfully hold and exercise the same. The plaintiff wants the defendant adjudged guilty of usurpation.
