Read Every Word on these Two Pages.

Everyone knows that prices are advancing by leaps and bounds. Many lines of merchandise are very difficult to secure and some lines the retailer cannot get at all. Every day letters are being received from manufacturers and wholesalers withdrawing prices of a few days ago, quoting higher prices. During this sale great quantities of merchandise will be sold for less than it can be replaced for. The necessity of this sale comes at a very opportune time for the people and on account of the remarkable reductions great crowds will be here to take advantage.

Now is the Time to Buy Shoes.

All shoes have advanced to a higher price than at any time since the civil war. There seems to be no limit, except the sky, as to how high prices will soar. We are going to protect our customers as long as we can, but the chances are our limit will be reached by the time this sale is over. It will pay every man, woman and child to buy, not only one pair, but at least two pairs of shoes during this sale.
