

GREAT OUTBURST OF PATRIOTISM.

Tillamookers Caught the War Spirit at a Rousing Meeting Sunday Night.

DR. BOALS' SPLENDID ADDRESS.

Other Speakers Discuss Different Phases of the War and Loyalty of the American People.

The greatest assemblage ever held in Tillamook met at the Christian Church on last Sunday evening.

When the G. A. R., the Spanish American War Veterans, Women's Relief Corps and the Coast Artillery Co. entered the great crowd arose as one man, and cheered.

Rev. Sumerlin had charge of the program and made some very appropriate remarks.

Rev. Lacy was the next speaker, and in a very earnest manner told the people what our flag stands for.

Mr. H. T. Botts made a telling appeal to the people as to loyalty and duty to country.

Henry Crenshaw's speech was earnest and from the heart.

All the speakers were continuously interrupted by continuous applause.

The patriotic temperature of the meeting was 212 degrees in the shade and guaranteed 100 per cent pure American.

The President's message was fully quoted and the idea made clear that our fight is not against the German people, but their Government.

The meeting was typically American in which the American spirit was dominant.

If Wilhelm II. could but realize what it means to him to have for an enemy one hundred million such people he would see his hopes of world dominion sinking.

MAYOR BOALS' SPEECH. I have been requested to make a few remarks appropriate to this occasion.

Russia, harkening to the call of the people of her own race and political affiliations and tendencies, began to mobilize her army at once.

Why this mighty preparation of armament, what meant this martial array? Was it not meant for the purpose of forcing the whole of Europe into submission and slavery?

But I hear some one say, "Why did not the United States prohibit exports to Great Britain?"

The North starved the South by blockade in the Civil War and no one objected either on the grounds of international law or the common human instincts of the world.

We are told that Great Britain has been a tyrant, has monopolized the sea and has searched our ships and opened our mails, and so she has, and has taken ships of ours into her ports.

But I have not torpedoes or submarines, nor do I have the loss of a single life. In this case the injured party has redress, in the other case the injured party has no redress.

Germany issued a general warning that she would allow no interference with Austria and issued a demand that the alleged mobilization of Russia should cease.

Causes which have involved the United States, first and foremost of these is the ruthless submarine warfare which Germany has seen fit to put into execution in order to intimidate the United States.

potential possibilities of the question were of vital interest to Germany and to Russia, between them lay the main issue.

instill into the minds of our youth the necessity for an adequate military service, and, in order that every boy and young man should be equal before his country, the high and low, rich and poor, all should be required to dedicate a year or two of his life to the service of his country, and thus we would always be assured of an adequate army of eight or ten million of trained men and we would not find ourselves in an unhappy plight that we are now confronted with.
