One night last week someone entered the residence of Jonas Olson and stole a hundred pound sack of sugar. Mr. Olson says that if the party who stole the sugar will make himself known, and prove that he is in need, he will give him a sack of flour to go with the sugar.

Henry Crenshaw, ex-sheriff of Tillamook County, took his annual bath while fishing in the Kilchis river on Wednesday. He used too much force in whipping the river with his fly, and overbalancing, found the water exceedingly cold and wet.

To cater to the likes and pleasures of the lovers of photoplays, the management of the Gem Theatre has added two feature programs per week, these new features will be shown Friday and Monday nights. All of the new programs will consist of a feature play, and a comedy. See them every week. Adults 15c. Children 5c.

Guy Stockman, who has been employed by the Home Bakery for 10 years, left yesterday for Tillamook where he will have charge of the S. Viereck shop. Guy is a splendid baker and is not only able to turn out bread like mother used to make, but pies and cakes of capital quality. Tillamook will like his culinary efforts.—News-Times.

Citizens of Grants Pass Tuesday night cleaned up the free auto camp grounds maintained by the Chamber of Commerce on a ten-acre tract adjoining the city park. The site borders the Pacific Highway on one side and Rogue River on the other, five stone fireplaces were built, 15 lots, each 50 by 100 were staked off and two cords of firewood were provided for the use of campers.

Tillamook County Guernsey Breeders' Association shipped in a car load of blood Guernsey cattle, bought in Wisconsin and Minnesota by Jos Durrier and County Agriculturist Jones. It is a splendid lot of animals of the Guernsey breed, with the best of pedigrees. To give some idea of the value of the car load, it represents nearly $10,000. The stock is at the Fair Grounds. It was proposed to auction them off next Saturday, but as Mr. Jones had not returned, who had the pedigree of the stock this was postponed until Saturday, June 9th.

First Sergeant Leslie Harrison and Sergeant Irvie S. Keldson of the local company of Coast Artillery, left Tuesday morning to report at the officers' training camp at the Presidio, San Francisco. They were appointed under the recent ruling which provided for the designation of two men from each company of National Guard. Sergeant Harrison is a son of M. W. Harrison, president of the Tillamook County Bank. He has had several years of military training, acquired at Oregon Agricultural College. Sergeant Keldson has for several years been assistant cashier of the First National Bank of this city.

Tillamooker Turns Rockefeller's Car into a "Smoker."

W. B. Powell left this city about two weeks ago on his way East, with his daughter Mrs. W. A. Williams. When going through the train in the East the passenger from the jumping off place of the northwest, discovered that another car was added to the train, and being monopolized by about five gentlemen, the Tillamooker thought that it was a smoker so occupied one of the comfortable arm chairs and pulled out his weed and joined in the conversation for several hours. He was treated courteously by the gentlemen, and it was several hours after when he learned that he had invaded Rockefeller, Jr.'s, car and turned it into a smoker.
