Alpine Yodlers Present Great Program

Singers From the Tyrol in "An Evening in the Alps."

The grand closing concert of the Ellison-White-Chautauqua assemblies this summer will be "An Evening in the Alps"—vocal, stringed instrument and costumed fantasy, produced by Graus' Tyrolean Alpine Yodlers. This is the same company that for forty weeks took New York Hippodrome fans by storm. The Tyrolean are exclusively Swiss and are beyond doubt the greatest yodlers ever assembled in one company. The singing of the hunting songs, pastoral songs and echo songs of the land of Williams Tell create most convincing illusions in distances and sound location. Sunday assemblies hear the Tyrolean in two appropriate concerts. Otherwise they appear only in full evening concert.

FOR A FEW DAYS ONLY.

H. R. BLAUVELT, Executive Special, OREGON LIFE INS. CO.

Will be at RAMSEY HOTEL.

Where he will be glad to see all policy holders of this Company and any others who desire some Superior Life Insurance at Low Premium Rates. Cash payments for Disability. Women insured the same as Men. "Best for Oregonians."
