When The Kaiser Quits.

(By Charley L. Grant.)

Me name is Mikey Finning, Oi have me fighting band and we're out to lick the Kaiser and ye bet we got the sand, There's meself and Michael Murphey, Ted and Timmy Flynn, Pat Gallegher and O'Grady, and we're goin' in to win. There's some of us from County Cork and some from Donnegal, but there's not a single slacker to be found amongst us all, for we ripresent auld Ireland, the land the niver dies, and we'll sing the River Shannon while the kaiser's bullet flies on the red hot field of battle where the mighty cannon roar, we will stand and foight as fearlessly as Brennon and the Moor. We have the auld shilalley and we're in the battle line, and we'll foight our way through Berlin 'till we reach the river Rhine; we will stay in the battle and we'll niver quit begob, 'till the submarines are vanquished and the kaiser quits his job.

Now, here is Tim O'Brien and there is Burke and Shea who are always rough and ready for most any kind of fray when a foreign foe is shootin' at the little isle so green, and killin' babes and women with the cursed submarine. Sure, I says to Dan McCaulley and to Kelley and O'Rourke: "We will show this Bill Hohenzollern some moity fancy work in the way of puttin' powder uider-neath his submarine—and we'll drink all the lager in the kaiser's auld shebeen." Says in the kaiser's Grogan: "Shure its just like shooting shupes, and we'll march forth to the music played by Scotty on his pipes, for the bonnie lads of Scotland they are wid us in the fray, it's a long way to Berlin, but begob we're on the way and we'll teach the saur krauters that it's whitin' for them to rob and we'll never end the lesson 'till the kaiser quits the job."

Come brawny lads of Uncle Sam, we're wid ye through and through. Though green our color, still we love the Red and White and Blue—the flag for all humanity on every land and sea, the flag which Captain Ho-ran says will set auld Ireland free. That shalpeen of a kaiser, shure he don't care where he shoots, he's a bad hog in the perattie Grogan; and don't care where he roots, for he wants our land and money and he'll murder slay and steal, but we're going to entertain him with a good old Irish reel when we'll dance around his body while the Scottish pipers play: "It's a long way to Berlin, but begob we're on the way." With MacDonald as the piper and MacGregor keeping time and everybody steppin' in the ranks long the line, and we'll never quit the battle until every German slob begs the Irish for bologna and the kaiser quits his job.

We'll stand by Woodrow Wilson, shure he is a fightin' man, he's the grandad of Mike McAdoo, the uncle of McCann, he's a cronney of Maloney and McCormick and McPhie, and a friend of Timmy Regan and of Mike O'Rafferty. Woodrow's not a tyrant, but he has the fightin' jaws, and they say he's some relation to the Dooleys and McGraws. He was never known to weaken, but is always standin' pat and the kaiser's sure to find that he is "Casey at the bat." Come all ye foightin' Sammy boys and join the big parade and we'll march upon the kaiser with the Irishmen's brigade we will jine wid Dan McCarthy, wid Mac Dougall and wid Weir, who will hold the fightin' kaiser while we whisper in his ear, and if he doesn't listen we will smash him on the gob for the war will not be over 'till the kaiser quits the job.

STOMACH TORN UP

Indiana Lady Describes Condition, Which She Says Was Due To Constipation and Tells of Relief Obtained From Black-Draught.

Scottsburg, Ind.—Mrs. Annie Johnson, of this place, writes: "I well remember I suffered for a long time with constipation, which would get me down. I took doctors' medicines and any number of purgatives. They would leave me in a worse condition than I was before taking, and my stomach so upset . . . I know once I suffered . . . from constipation, I was so ill we had to have the doctor, just so nervous and feverish. The doctor said I would have to quit medicines, my stomach was so bad . . ."

My husband was reading and found something about Theford's Black-Draught and brought me a package to try. I used it regularly at first until I began to feel better, then I used just a dose occasionally. I was cured of this constipation and am sure the Black-Draught did it."

If your stomach is out of order, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Theford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, helping to regulate the liver and to cleanse the bowels of impurities.

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With

The Oregon Farmer

Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
