"Phez Loganberry, Salem, Oregon" is the way the Hotel Tillamook registers the reads and this is one of the unique publicity methods of O. L. Ferris, Salesmanager of the Phez Co. who has put Oregon on the map by his strong advertising of this new Oregon product.
Mrs. John Little, who is now in Midland, Mich., writes: "Mrs. W. B. Sutton mailed me one of your papers last week and any papers from Tillamook are always welcome at our home. As we used to live there for five years, and wish we were there now."
It may interest a large number of persons to know a large amount of evergreen black berries are being shipped out of the county, which amounts to about 70 tons. Tillamook City shipped 59 tons, Bay City 7 tons, and Garibaldi and Miami over 3 tons.
Relative to the proposition of the Phez Juice Co. it is interesting to observe that at the State Fair their Loganberry Juice captured the Blue Ribbon and this means something when it is considered that Oregon is the seat of the industry and all the various brands were exhibited.
Marriage licenses were issued as follows:
Mathias Springer and Anna Helgeson.

George Wilt made an attempt to end his life early on Friday morning. He used a 22 calibre Remington rifle, placing the barrel of the gun in his mouth while he sat on the bed. The bullet passed back of the eye and out through the temple on the left side, the concussion shattering the left eye so badly the eyeball had to be removed. It was surprising that the unfortunate man survived the shock, but under the care of Dr. Boals he is unable to pull through.

J. G. Harris, of Custer Co., Mont., received orders to muster in, and instead of going back there sent him to Sheriff Campbell, who he reported to American Lake on Monday. Several other young men from other states have reported to the local board that they have to be examined and instead of returning to the state where they registered will be examined here.
The Tillamook Water Commission has invested $5,000 of its surplus funds in the purchase of Liberty Bonds. Before the purchase was made however, the council was asked to endorse the loan. The council replied to the request by passing a resolution unanimously endorsing the loan. The Water Commission has over $40,000 invested in securities and $3,000 in cash besides the $5,000 invested in the Liberty Bonds.
260 acres Coos County, Oregon, land three miles from North Bend on navigable channel of Coos Bay, with water service, 130 acres bottom land which is dyked and ready for cultivation, 130 acres bench and hill land. Price $22,000.00. Terms $12,000 cash, balance to suit purchaser at 6 per cent. Price at bed rock as owner must sell. Address W. G. Robertson, Cooston, Oregon.
Miss Alice Perry became a war bride on Monday when she was married to John Fitzpatrick by Rev. Father Basil at the Sacred Heart church in Tillamook city. The groom is a member of the third company, U. S. Naval training station at Seattle, and was in on a short visit. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Perry. The happy couple have many friends here, who wish them a long life of happiness.
At a meeting of the city council on Monday evening, presided over by Mayor Boals, the matter of the assessment for the pavement and sewerage system came up. There was a large number of persons present. A petition was presented signed by five litigants and 71 non-litigants asking that the city council not make the assessment. Councilmen Harris, Burge, Christensen and Page all voting in favor of doing so, councilman Edmunds being absent, the supreme court having issued a mandamus compelling the city council to make the assessment on the stipulation of the litigants.
W. C. Rogers was taken sick while cleaning up the office of the Coats Lumber Co. on Tuesday morning, and when Mr. Miller went into the office he found him sitting in a chair. Mr. Miller wanted to send for a doctor, but Rogers said he would soon be alright. He was driven to his home and laid on the bed. Later in the morning Mr. Miller made some inquiries about him and he was found dead, having expired soon after he was taken to his home. The deceased was born in Henry county, Missouri, in 1858. He has a son and daughter residing at Blaine, Wash.
W. E. Noyes had a streak of bad luck last week. One of his teams while working on the Bayocan road was in a runaway mixup and fell with a scraper hitched to it. Failing to unhitch the animal, the horse commenced to kick and in doing so injured its leg and had to be shot. On Saturday Mr. Noyes' team was working on the road near Dick's Point, when suddenly a large rock high up on the bluff broke loose. The men working there had a narrow escape in being caught in the avalanche, but fortunately, managed to get away in time. The big slide of rock caught the team and broke nearly every bone in their bodies. Mr. Noyes had intended to have the team insured, after the first accident, but had neglected doing so.

County Road Bond Law IS LEGAL.
County Court is Restrained from Selling Bonds with Commissions Added.
The suit filed last week to test the legality of the county road bond measure which was voted upon and passed by a large number of votes at the special election, came up in the circuit court last week before Judge G. R. Bagley, with Attorney H. T. Botts and District Attorney T. H. Goynne attorneys in the case.
It is a friendly suit and the complaint was sworn to by Smith W. Elliott. Tillamook county and the county officials were made parties to the suit. It is an injunction suit to restrain the defendants from disposing of bonds, it being claimed that the election was irregular and that the county court had no right to sell bonds with commission fees attached.
The county court called for bids for bonds at 5 per cent, but when the bonds were opened the bond buyers added a commission ranging from $3,937.50 to $10,440.00 the bids being as follows:
Cummins Prudden & Co. $9,780.00
Carstens & Earles and John E. Price & Co. 7,990.00
Lumbermens Trust Co. 3,937.50
Halsey Stuart & Co. 10,440.00
Morris Bros. 4,730.00
G. E. Miller & Co. 6,900.00
Keeler Bros. offered to take the bonds with a commission of about $7,000.00 added but some of the attorneys for the bond buyers gave their opinion that the law was defective and would not give a favorable report, so it was decided to start a test case and take it to the supreme court, and this would remove all doubts as to the legality of the law as well as decide the question whether the county court would be justified in selling $200,000 of road bonds at 5 per cent interest with nearly $7,000 added to them as commission.
Attorneys Botts and Goynne presented the case to Judge Bagley last Thursday evening, and after looking over the papers he told the attorneys that he did not wish to hear arguments as to the legality of the law at the election, but they could argue the matter of selling the bonds in the manner set out in the complaint. This the attorneys did.
The judge took the matter under advisement for a few days, as he wished to consult some authorities before rendering a decision, which he did Tuesday morning. He decided that the county road bond law was legal and restrained the county court from selling bonds with commission fees added to them.
The decree of the court is as follows:
It is further by the court ordered and decreed that the defendants and each of them and the officers of Tillamook County, Oregon, be and they are hereby perpetually enjoined and restrained from selling or issuing the bonds authorized by the petition and election mentioned in the complaint to Keeler Brothers, or any other person, upon the bid and offer set out in the complaint or upon any other bid or offer for any less sum or amount than the par value of said bonds as required by law. But it is by the court further decreed that the petition described in the complaint was and is a sufficient petition to authorize the holding of the election held as alleged in the complaint on June 4th, 1917 and that the proceedings had in pursuance of said petition, including the election held thereon, as aforesaid, were and are sufficient in every respect to authorize the issuance and sale of the bonds of defendant Tillamook County to the amount of $412,000 at the rate of interest specified in the order calling said election, or in lieu thereof the issuance of County Warrants as provided for by section 17 of Chapter 103 of the General Laws of Oregon for the year 1913, and this decree shall not interfere with the issuance or sale of said bonds or warrants except that the same shall not be issued or sold for any less price than the par value thereof, and it is decreed by the court that the bid and offer alleged in the complaint if accepted and completed according to the terms thereof, would amount to a sale of said bonds for less than the par value thereof, and a discount, contrary to law.
And thereupon in open court, the plaintiff gave notice by his attorney that the plaintiff appealed from said decree and all thereof, except that portion restraining defendants from selling upon the bid and offer alleged in the complaint, to the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon, and thereupon also the defendants by their attorney aforesaid, in open court, gave notice that the defendants and each of them appealed to the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon, from that portion of said decree which restrains the defendants from selling the bonds in issue upon the bid and offer set forth in the complaint.
As both sides have appealed the case to the Supreme Court, an effort will be made to have the case advanced, and in all probability it will be argued next week.

LOGANBERRY INDUSTRY FOR TILLAMOOK COUNTY
Three Hundred Acres will Insure Juice Factory—Will Pay 3 3/4 cts. Per Pound for Berries.
At the invitation of R. C. Jones, County Agriculturist, the county has been visited this week by O. L. Ferris of Salem, representing the Pheasant Fruit Juice Company of that city. Meetings have been held at Bay City, Tillamook, and Beaver. The object of the meetings was to afford the respective communities an opportunity of becoming thoroughly acquainted with the magnitude of this new industry and with the possibilities of Tillamook County becoming an integral part thereof.
At the meeting held in the Court House Tuesday afternoon Mr. Ferris outlined the plan of his company to encourage new plantings of loganberries in the state and particularly in units of several hundred acres. At certain points where such plantings are assured the company proposes to locate pressing plants. Besides the main plant at Salem, the company has plants at Woodlawn and Forest Grove, and recently the community of Orenco qualified and will have a plant when their acreage comes into bearing.
The offer in this county is to locate a plant providing at least 300 acres can be contracted. The contracts are for five years and call for a price of 3 3/4 cents per pound delivered at the plant.
This meeting was addressed by Mr. Jones who reported regarding the immense activity which he and Frank Trout and H. F. Goodspeed found recently when they visited the plant of the Pheasant Fruit Juice Co. in Salem. Mr. Jones spoke particularly of the seeming prosperity of the loganberry growers of Marion county. He also pointed out the adaptability of the uplands of this county to the culture of loganberries and he urged the importance of seizing this opportunity which means the making of this land as profitable to the owners as are the bottom lands.
The meeting was also addressed by M. W. Harrison, F. C. Baker, A. C. Everson, R. W. Watson and H. H. Rosenberg all of whom heartily approved the movement. A resolution of endorsement was adopted by the meeting and a motion prevailed calling for the appointment of a committee of the Commercial Club, which committee will at once proceed to sign up the required acreage and see to closing the proposals of the Juice Co.
Those present at the meeting were treated generously with this new "water wagon beverage" and considerable interest was manifested in the comprehensive advertising and marketing methods of the company. Most attractively and handsomely illustrated advertising material was exhibited. Phez Pure Juice, the loganberry is the way the product is presented and that the expensive advertising pays is indicated by the volume of business already developed. Full page advertisements in the Saturday Evening Post, which is probably the strongest advertising medium in the world, has already brought to this company a national distribution, and now shipments are being made almost daily in carload lots to the many distributing centers of the country.
The company has pioneered all the large eastern markets and the brand named Phez is rapidly becoming a synonym for Loganberry Juice, it is a standard article just as Welsh is in the grape juice line.
The company is heavily capitalized and is composed of well known Salem and Portland business men. The responsibility of the company is unquestioned.
It was explained that small tracts of five or ten acres is better and more profitable than large plantings and they can easily be cared for and picked by the family rather than having to depend on outside help. The "tips" from which the planting is made are set in rows eight feet apart and every eight feet in the row. Posts are set every 32 feet in the rows and two strands of No. 12 galvanized wire are used on which the vines are trained. It is predicted that because of the special favorable climatic and soil conditions here that a much larger yield can be expected than in the Willamette Valley where it is not uncommon to find growers who secure as much as five and six tons to the acre. The general price for picking is 1 cent per pound.
The juice plant will be able to take care of the wild evergreen blackberries so that it means more than loganberries alone for Tillamook.
The whole proposition sounds good to Tillamook. It is an opportunity that rarely comes and should not be passed up. Those who will plant and want contracts should report to either Mr. Baker, Mr. Jones or the committee.

PATRIOTIC WEEK.
Governor Withycombe Issues Proclamation Designating October 14th to 20th for Liberty Loan Drive.
Whereas, the American people have set themselves the task of raising a second Liberty Loan of from three to five billion dollars. Twentieth century war requires vast sums of money. The requirements are far beyond what the wealthiest country can raise by taxation. The great nations of Europe have been at war for three years. They have floated loan after loan successfully. It is unthinkable that this country should fail with its second loan, six months after the declaration of war; and
Whereas, failure to provide the necessary money would mean failure properly to provision and equip our troops. An army insufficiently equipped and supplied is led to unavailing slaughter. We owe to those who are to do the fighting to stand behind them loyally, to give them everything which will add to their efficiency and bring nearer the day of victory. Let us not fight this war half-heartedly, with one hand behind our backs. Let us fight it manfully, in a manner worthy the best traditions of the Republic; and
Whereas, Oregon's share of the fund required is sixteen and a half to twenty-four million dollars. This is a sum too large to be raised without the co-operation of the whole people. Every Oregonian with an income should consider it a duty and a privilege to purchase one or more bonds, in proportion to his means. The government asks us not to contribute, but to invest. There is no safer investment in the world than a loan to the United States;
Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority in me vested, as Governor of the State of Oregon, I, James Withycombe, Governor, do hereby proclaim the week of October 14th to 20th, 1917 as Patriotic Week. Oregon has thus far responded to every appeal. We have given the flower of our young manhood. Let us not be a sordid people. Let us not place greater store by our money than by our men. If our people can only be aroused to the necessities of the situation we cannot fail to have the cooperation which will spell success.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of Oregon to be hereunto affixed, this 10th day of October, A. D. 1917.
James Withycombe, Governor
Walter Dimick and C. C. McCullough have been designated for the Washington-Tillamook districts and they will hold meeting in this city next Wednesday evening at 7:30 and at Nehalem on Thursday evening at 7:30.
Erik Bergstrom Dead.
Erik Bergstrom was born in Bergsjö, Sweden, on February 5, 1844. He came to Illinois, in -870, where he resided for two years, he then moved to Iowa where he lived for some years. From there he moved to Brown county, Nebraska. In 1891 he moved to Tillamook where he has lived ever since and where he died on Oct. 6, 1917, at the home of his daughter Mrs. J. L. Simmons, where he has made his home for the past seven years. His age was 73 years, 8 months and 1 day. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Simmons and Mrs. J. Berns, both of Tillamook, and a brother Andrew Bergstrom, of Iowa.
The funeral services were held at the home of J. L. Simmons on Monday, Oct. 7, Rev. C. E. Pearson preaching the sermon. Interment took place at the Bay View Cemetery near Bay City. The Pleasant Valley Grange had charge of the services at the grave, the deceased being a member of that order.
Water Permits in Tillamook
State Engineer John H. Lewis issued 110 permits to appropriate water and 10 permits to construct reservoir, during the quarter ending Sept. 30, 1917. These permits cover the irrigation of land aggregating 5,259 acres, the development of 5,116 horsepower, the construction of 102 miles of ditches, and an estimated cost of construction totaling $155,475.00.
During the period 4 permits were obtained in Tillamook County, as follows:
To Three Rivers Creamery Association, of Hebo, for creamery purposes, the estimated cost of works being $1,000.
Ike F. Quick, of Tillamook, for the irrigation of 68 acres from Kilam Creek, estimated cost of construction of $1,000.
Walter W. Cason, of Blaine, for the irrigation of 31 acres and for domestic use.
Wm. Powell, of Tillamook, for the irrigation of 10 acres from Mills Creek.
Notice to Dog Owners.
All owners of dogs must get their dog license at once. If your dog is missing look for him at the City Recorder's office. If your dog is held more than four days he will be disposed of.

Honor Guard Girls Meet.

At a meeting of the Honor Guard Girls last Tuesday evening the following officers were elected; Leader, Ethel Gaylord; Assistant leader, Mrs. Arthur Case; Secretary, Fay Hill; Treasurer, Lizzie Coates. A standing publicity committee composed of Bulah Sumner, Pauline Beal and Areta Everson was also appointed.
The girls are planning to accomplish some very worth while things now that school has begun and the meetings can be regular.
It was determined to do something that would be of permanent value for our boys at Fort Columbia, and the purchase of an Edison war phonograph was decided upon as being something that would be enjoyed by all and would be part of the camp equipment wherever the company might be sent.
Plans for raising the necessary funds were discussed and through the courtesy of the managers of the Gem Theatre the proceeds of one night's entertainment will be donated for this purpose. Special attractions will be presented in addition to all pictures and it is hoped that all will avail themselves of the privilege of a fine entertainment and at the same time help a most worthy enterprise of the Honor Guards.
A special Edison war machine, type of which the girls expect to purchase, is now on exhibition at Lapp's Drug Store. Go in and see it.
Don't forget the date of the entertainment Monday, October 15, 1917.
