

BRUTE FORCE HAS TO BE DETHRONED

Lloyd George Sees no Other Means for Obtaining Enduring Peace

London, Oct. 22.—"I have scanned the horizon intently," said Premier Lloyd George today, "and can see no terms which will lead to enduring peace. The only terms now possible would mean an armed truce ending in an even more frightful struggle."

The Premier and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Andrew Bonar Law, were the principal speakers at an imposing demonstration in Albert Hall this afternoon to inaugurate the Autumn campaign for national economy. The hall was crowded, while on the platform were many distinguished men, including the archbishop of Canterbury, General Smuts, the members of the cabinet and the allied diplomats.

Cost of War Gigantic.

The Premier, who was given a tremendous reception, declared that the magnitude of the enthusiasm gathering in the fourth year of the war was the best proof of the determination of this country to prosecute the war until victory was achieved. The cost of the war was gigantic; it was heavy today and would be heavy tomorrow.

One hundred and twenty thousand workers on war savings committees—a fine army—were doing splendid work and he thanked them for their labors in connection with the last war loan, which had been most successful, and also in connection with the food economy campaign, which had resulted in a saving of food supplies of from 5 to 7 per cent. That in itself, meant a saving of hundreds of thousands of tons.

Peace Must be Lasting.

After drawing a comparison between the extravagances of war time and peace time and making a plea for economy, the Premier said:

"The way to shorten the war is to prepare as if the struggle were going to be a long one. I am not going to predict when the end of the war will come—no man in his senses would prolong it one hour if there were an opportunity for a real and lasting peace. But it must be a lasting peace. It must not be a peace which would be the prelude to a new and more devastating war."

Mr. Lloyd George said Germany would make peace now only on terms which would enable her to benefit by the war. He asserted that that would be encouragement to every buccannering empire in the future to repeat the experiment.

More than twice as many German submarines were lost in the first 10 months of this year as in all of last year, the Premier asserted. The British tonnage lost monthly now is not much more than one third of the total destroyed last April.

Time on Allies Side.

The Premier said he had hoped the enemy's terrible power might be broken this year, but that the temporary collapse of the Russian military power had postponed this hope. But time was on the side of the allies he said. Time once was neutral, but two things together had changed this, namely the advent of America and the increasing failure of the German submarine war.

The allies were working in the greatest harmony, the Premier continued. He said they were on the eve of the more important inter-allied conference ever held, at which for the first time representatives of America and of the Russian democracy would be present. He stated that the conference meant to determine the ultimate issue of the war.

The war, said the Premier, was terrible in itself, but more terrible in the possibilities it revealed of new horrors on land and sea and in the air. It must be settled now, once for all, he declared. If the war should be renewed after 30 years more of scientific application, it would mean the death of civilization. Brute force must be dethroned forever.

To realize what the advent of America meant, the Premier went on, it was necessary only to look back on the rapid growth of the little British army. America was now starting, and its resources in men power were twice those of Great Britain.

British shipbuilding, said the Premier, had increased four-fold and America had done likewise. Germany laughed at the war declarations of China and other nations, but these declarations meant that most of the world's food and raw materials were under the flags of Germany's enemies which would reduce Germany to impotence and desolation.

Danger in "Boloism."

Mr. Lloyd George said that "boloism" in all its shapes and forms should be looked out for. "Beware of people who try to sow dissension, distrust and suspicion," he said. "The enemy is trying to rattle our nerves. Keep steady and we will win."

"I ask those who are pressing—should there be any—for a premature peace, to reflect for a moment what might happen if we made an unsatisfactory installment—all the best scientific brains in the lands, stimulated by national rivalry, national hatred, national hopes, devoting their energies for 10, 20, 30 years to magnify the destructive powers of these horrible agents, whose power is only just disclosed. We must settle this once for all."

The Premier said eyes must be kept steadfastly on the great purpose of the war, which was destruction of the false ideal which would have intimidated and enslaved Europe if it had triumphed.

"Our real enemy," he continued, "is the war spirit fostered in Prussia. There will be no peace in the world until the shrine of the war spirit in Potsdam is shattered and its priesthood is dispersed and discredited forever."

DRAFT PROVISIONS ARE MADE PUBLIC

New Army Regulations Prematurely Disclosed at New York.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The five classifications into which men awaiting draft will be divided, under the new regulations approved by President Wilson, have become public much before the time planned by the provost Marshal-General's office.

It was discovered today that what was to have remained an official secret for a week or more was divulged Saturday night at a dinner in New York, which Secretary Baker and Provost Marshal-General Crowder attended. The Provost Marshal-General discussed the new regulations without intending to make public the classifications, but some members of the New York local exemption board, thinking to elucidate the General's speech, printed the classifications on the back of the menu card.

The classifications are as follows, and show every man registered to which class he belongs and in what order the different classifications will be called to service:

- Class 1.
 1—Single men without dependent relatives.
 2—Married men (or widower with children) who habitually fails to support his family.
 3—Married men dependent on wife for support.
 4—Married men (or widower with children) not usefully engaged, family supported by income independent of his labor.
 5—Man not included in any other description in this or other classes.
 6—Unskilled laborer.

- Class 2.
 1—Married man or father of motherless children, usefully engaged, but family has sufficient income apart from his daily labor to afford reasonably adequate support during his absence.
 2—Married man, no children, wife can support herself decently without hardship.
 3—Skilled industrial laborer engaged in necessary industrial enterprise.
 4—Skilled farm labor engaged in necessary agricultural enterprise.

- Class 3.
 1—Man with foster children dependent on daily labor for support.
 2—Man with aged, infirm or invalid parents or grandparents dependent on daily labor for support.
 3—Man with brothers or sisters incompetent to support themselves, dependent on daily labor for support.
 4—County or municipal officers.
 5—Firemen or policemen.
 6—Necessary artificers or workmen in arsenals, armories or navy yards.
 7—Necessary Custom-house clerks.
 8—Persons necessary in transmission of mails.
 9—Necessary employes in service of the United States.

- Class 4.
 10—Highly specialized administrative experts.
 11—Technical or mechanical experts in industrial enterprise.
 12—Highly specialized agricultural expert in agricultural bureau of state or nation.
 13—Assistant or associate manager of necessary industrial enterprise.
 14—Assistant or associate manager of necessary agricultural enterprise.

- Class 5.
 1—Married man with wife (and) or children (or widow with children) dependent on daily labor for support and no other reasonable adequate support available.
 2—Mariners in sea service of merchants or citizens in United States.
 3—Heads of necessary industrial enterprises.
 4—Heads of necessary agricultural enterprises.
Class 6.
 1—Officers of state or the United States.
 2—Regularly or duly ordained ministers.
 3—Students of divinity.
 4—Persons in military or naval service.
 5—Aliens.
 6—Alien enemies.
 7—Persons morally unfit.
 8—Persons physically, permanently or mentally unfit.
 9—Licensed pilots.

THIS IS EDISON WEEK

OCTOBER 21st-27th

[Special Concerts All Week Patriotic Concerts Daily at 3 p.m.]

Hear Anna Case, "the miracle girl of the Metropolitan," sing "The Star-Spangled Banner." Hear Arthur Middleton, world-famed bass-baritone, sing "America." Hear the recent songs, too.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

literally re-creates music. You will hear the silvery voice of Anna Case and the thunderous tones of Middleton just as you would hear them from the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City. Direct comparison has proved that there is positively no difference between their living voices and the New Edison's Re-Creation of their voices.

$2000 IN CASH PRIZES

for the best patchwork advertisements composed of quotations from what the music critics have said about the New Edison. It costs you nothing to complete. You have a good chance to win a prize. Ask us for particulars. We furnish a booklet containing a reprint of what the music critics have said about the New Edison. We also provide a sample advertisement, pasted up in proper form. The competition closes October 27th. Don't delay.

THE TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With The Oregon Farmer

Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
