Edith McClure vs. J. C. McClure is a divorce case filed in the circuit court. These parties were married at Vancouver, Wash., on August 10, 1913 and have been residing at Bay City. No children were born to the union. Plaintiff claims cruel and inhuman treatment that made her life burdensome as the reason for the dissolution of the marriage contract. The defendant without cause had a very jealous disposition toward the plaintiff and objected to her associating with other women. He has been irritable, peevish and nagging to the plaintiff.
Mrs. S. W. Kipsichka vs. Tillamook Hotel Company, appellant from Tillamook; suit to recover for services rendered; opinion by Justice Bean; Circuit Judge Belt affirmed. This is a case growing out of the receivership of the Tillamook Hotel, the company refusing to pay a number of bills for labor, supplies etc., while the hotel was in the hands of the receiver. The decision of the supreme court sustains Judge Belt, and the hotel company will have to pay Mrs. Kipsichka the sum of $28.50 for services rendered during the receivership.
Erwin Harrison, County Clerk, has been authorized by the Bureau of Mines to issue licenses in connection with the law regarding explosives. Any one buying or selling or having in their possession any explosives must report same and get license to use and keep such explosives. They must also keep accurate account of how the explosive is disposed of. Applicants are required by the law to appear in person before the licensing officer. A fee of 25 cents is required for each license issued. Clerk Harrison reports that he has received but 25 blank licenses but that he has telegraphed for more.
What is life insurance worth? Stop and consider the difference in safety of attending a theatre where all care has been given for fire protection, where warmth and comfort have been well taken into consideration and where the ventilation is good. After thinking this over, go to the Gem theatre where you are assured of all these attentions. We invite your inspection of our comfortable and popular photoplay house, also the inspection of our projection department, in fact, come and make your self at home. Since writing the above we have been visited by the Fire Warden and a complete inspection of the premises were made. His comment on it was "It is fine."
W. G. Wagay, of the Crystal Laundry Company, has just returned from an extensive trip to Northern California looking over land held by the California Colonization Company and reports very favorable of the many opportunities before the farmer in that vicinity. He has purchased forty-eight acres and will seed and start farming this fall expecting to move down in the spring. P. E. Walker, of the Ramsey Hotel, accompanied Mr. Wagay and has opened up an agency for the company, and will be in a position to give any information in regard to the land in general. He has photos and literature of the different projects. Any one desiring to make a change can make necessary arrangements for trips by calling on Mr. Walker at the Ramsey Hotel.
Erwin Harrison says: "The item in last week's Headlight stating that notice had been served on C. C. Curtis, pastor of the Christian Church, by the congregation that his services would not be required after three months, was incorrectly reported. No such action was taken by the church or its officers. Mr. Curtis resigned after learning that some of the members of the congregation were not satisfied with his work, he feeling that neither he nor the church could do their best under such circumstances."
A surprise party was given Friday evening to J. S. Lamar, it being his birthday, when a most pleasant evening was spent. The party consisted mostly of the Lamar families with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Brodhead and Mr. and Mrs. Thad Robison.

THE HONOR GUARD GIRLS TO HAVE A VOTING BOOTH.
All Votes Deposited In Their Special Box, Saturday, Dec. 8th To Count Double.
The Honor Guard Girls, one of the organizations in the voting contest for the $5000 Liberty Bond to be given away by the Haltom store, Dec. 24th, will have a special voting booth in the store next Saturday. All votes cast for them and deposited in the box in their booth on this day will count double. For instance if a dollar purchase is made instead of being good for 100 votes it will represent 200 votes.
Double votes Saturday are for the Honor Guard Girls only—none of the other contestants will be allowed double votes at this time.
The Honor Guard Girls deserve a lot of credit for the good work they have done and should be fortunate enough to secure the Liberty Bond, their intention is to use it for the benefit of the Coast Artillery. Naturally all supporters of the Honor Guard will be out in full force on Saturday when their votes will count double.
The Cheese Situation.
Carl Haberlach and Fred Christensen returned last week from a trip to Seattle and Portland, where they had gone to look into the cheese situation. Considerable cheese was found in Seattle, mostly Washington and Coos Bay stock. They reported that practically all the cheese factories in Washington had had to close down because the condensers were paying $2.90 for milk, while the cheese was being sold from 20 1/2c to 21 1/2c. Seattle. Just as soon as the small surplus would be worked off, cheese should move more freely again. Considerable activity was noticed in Seattle, especially in ship building. Seattle reported having contracts to build two hundred million dollars worth of ships and have seventeen thousand men employed in the ship building industry. They went through one of the ship yards.
Monday the Tillamook County Creamery Ass'n had their monthly directors meeting, at which was present the entire board. After noon the meeting adjourned to the City Hall where Mr. Haberlach reported the results of the trip. The directors from the factories around Tillamook were also present. After thorough discussion of the matter of continuing making cheese, skimming the milk and shipping cream, shipping whole milk to Hillsboro or encourage a condenser to come to Tillamook or the farmers here building and operating a condenser, it was decided to continue separating milk for the present. It was reported that a large Eastern concern would build a condenser in Tillamook if encouraged to come here, but it was thought that with the reputation Tillamook has for its cheese that it would be best to continue making cheese after the present temporary glut of the cheese market was over.
Hillsboro reported its willingness to accept the shipments from the association and Mr. Kinzer, general superintendent of the Carnation Milk Products Co., of Seattle, and Mr. Darling, their field superintendent for Washington County, came in on Wednesday to confer about probable milk shipments. A certain amount of milk can be handled without further alterations, but it was thought best if the association should decide to make considerable shipments, that some notice be given so more facilities could be added to the Hillsboro plant. It was felt that any action taken would be only temporary. The factories are receiving 54c for the cream now being shipped to Portland.
Grand Ronde Road to be Improved.
The Yamhill County Court will include in the budget for next year an appropriation of $10,000 for the improvement of seven miles of the Tillamook road through the Grand Ronde reservation.
The State Highway Commission has promised that if Yamhill county will appropriate this amount of money the state and federal government will give $15,000 each, making a total of $40,000 which, it is estimated, will be sufficient to put the road in good condition.
A matter of considerable importance to Tillamook county is the news item that the Yamhill County Court and the State Highway Commission intends improving the Grand Ronde road. This is the stretch of road in Yamhill county that have given Tillamook county a black eye, for with the exception of a few months in the summer, was impassable. When the Grand Ronde road is improved people can auto to Portland any time of the year.
Wheeler Vote Unanimous.
Wheeler, Or., Dec. 4—Frank A. Rowe was re-elected Mayor today by a unanimous vote, with Fred Seeley, Recorder; Ellis C. Madden, treasurer, and Alexander Anderson, Jr., Ward L. Mayer, D. B. Groves, L. L. Lupro, J. A. Jensen and T. R. Blackerby, councilmen.

"THE SLACKER" STARS A NATIVE AMERICAN
Coming to the Gem Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday Dec. 11 and 12.
Emely Stevens, star of Metro's special production de lux, "The Slacker", written and directed by William Christy Cabanne, is mounting steadily higher in the artistic firmament. There is not on the American stage a young woman of more brilliant achievements, or greater promise for the future. And "The Slacker" places her at the zenith of her powers.
It is fitting that Miss Stevens should be chosen to play the leading role in this superb photodrama of patriotism, for she comes of fine old American stock. Emily Stevens is a niece of Mrs. Fiske, the celebrated actress, and daughter of Robert E. Stevens and Emma Madden, also prominent players. She made her debut on the speaking stage with Mrs. Fisk, playing the part of a maid in "Becky Sharp," and she remained in her aunt's company several years, playing and studying stage technique.
After winning praise in "Leah Kleschima," she was given the leading feminine role in "The Devil," with George Arliss. Later she appeared in William's Locke's "Septimus." She starred in the "Unchristian Women" in 1915 and 1916, and the early part of 1917, then appearing on Broadway in John Galsworthy's magnificent drama, "The Fugitive."
This star, however has come to the full realization of her powers in her motion picture work. She has never appeared for any other company than Metro Pictures Corporation, and for that progressive firm has starred in "The Wager," "Destiny," or "The Soul of a Woman," "Cora," and "The House of Tears."
Tenth Wedding Anniversary.
On Friday evening, November 30, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hanson celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary at their home with the following invited guests, Mr. and Mrs. Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Overman, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoskins, Mr. and Mrs. Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Boquist, Mr. and Mrs. Goeres, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Fendall, Mrs. Burge, Miss Pruhs and Miss Rowena Hanson.
After a pleasant evening of games and dainty refreshments the guests united in wishing the host and hostess many more happy anniversaries.
Business Men Hold Meeting.
One of the most enthusiastic and profitable meetings ever recorded in the annuals of the Tillamook Commercial Club was held on Monday evening at the club rooms, when about 30 of Tillamook's representative citizens came together to discuss matters of vital importance to the city and county.
Attention was called to the Bay-ocean road, special emphasis being laid on the necessity and urgent need for the proper construction of the highway to the shipyard. It was brought out in the discussion that it is the duty of every patriotic citizen to give his moral support to further this project, and one of the crying needs of the national government is for the speedy construction of boats and the elimination of anything that would hinder this work. A committee consisting of H. H. Rosenberg, D. L. Shrode and C. J. Edwards was appointed to interview the County Court in regard to the road, and it is hoped that there will be no delay in the completion of plans which the committee intends to lay before that body.
The recent bond issue and its failure to be reconsidered as legal was a subject of some discussion. The sentiment expressed was to the effect that the matter should be taken up as quickly as possible to prevent losing out entirely.
A matter to touch the heart of the "timbermen" a re-cruise of Tillamook County's timber was earnestly discussed by a number of the members. Why so much timber is under cruised and other timber fully cruised is a mathematical problem which would doubtless have puzzled Archimedes. A committee consisting of Ben Kuppenbender, Claud Dawson, and A. C. Everson was appointed to discuss a re-cruise with the Tillamook County Court.
Just before the meeting closed Ben Kuppenbender called the attention of the club to the fact that if Tillamook cheese is to remain on the pedestal upon which it has been placed through years of struggle and labor, an advertising campaign must be started and a "cheese day" must be inaugurated. The club heartily endorsed his suggestion.
The secretary was instructed to send a copy of a resolution to the County Court endorsing the plans for a 1918 County Fair.
The Commercial Club feels like it has had a long sleep and rest—now it has awakened and is getting ready for real business. No time in the history of Tillamook has there been greater need and opportunities for the influence which a live commercial club can exert. A campaign for members is soon to be started and it is expected that every business man will feel it his loyal duty to "boost." Give your dollar which covers initiation fees and one month's dues—and give it with a smile.

Celebrates Silver Wedding.
On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ira G. Lance celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding at the Christian Church in this city, to which 200 persons had been invited. The wedding ceremony was repeated, the Rev. C. C. Curtis officiating. The bride was attired in white, and carried a bouquet of flowers, looking only a few years older than when the first nuptial knot was tied. Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Porter, of Oretown, acted as best man and bridesmaid.
After the ceremony the wedding party followed the happy couple to the church parlors, where covers were laid for 200 persons, the wedding feast being prepared by the Ladies' Aid of the Christian Church. At the close, Erwin Harrison acted as toastmaster, and addresses were made by Attorney H. T. Botts, Smith Elliott, Chester McGhee, Wm. Foster and M. J. Smith, all of whom congratulated the happy couple upon reaching the 25th mile stone of their married life. The groom made a few remarks.
The "newly-weds" were the recipients of a large number of pretty and useful presents.
Mr. Lance is a clerk in the Tillamook Postoffice.
We extend our congratulations to the young couple with the hope that they may continue to enjoy their matrimonial bliss and reach their golden anniversary.
Tillamook Red Cross Committees.
Following are the names of those who have been placed on committees of the Tillamook Red Cross.
Sewing committee—Chairman, Mrs. Fred Beals, Captains, Mrs. David Robinson, Mrs. R. W. Kirk and Mrs. I. M. Smith.
Finance committee—Chairman, Mrs. John Groat, Mrs. Alex McNair, and Mrs. S. S. Johnson.
Purchasing committee—Chairman, Mrs. H. T. Botts, Mrs. R. T. Boals, and Mrs. Nelson.
Membership committee—Chairman, Mrs. J. McGhee, Mrs. Doty, Mrs. Langelle and Mrs. Thad Robison.
Civilian Relief committee—Chairman, Thos. Coats, C. J. Edwards and Chester McGhee.
Publicity committee—Chairman, Mrs. Harford.
At a meeting of the executive committee of the Tillamook Red Cross on Tuesday, it was asked to name a person to take charge of the drive for new members, which is scheduled for next week. The committee thought that it would be best to handle the drive itself, and this was decided upon, with Fred C. Baker to have charge of some parts of the work.
The Red Cross is now under working orders from the national society through the Portland chapter. Last Wednesday, although it was the day before Thanksgiving a large number of ladies were in attendance. Samples for all garments for hospital service have been received and were exhibited. These garments cannot be taken to the homes but must be made in the rooms. Knitting can be done in the homes if desired. The pieced blocks that the ladies have been making will go through the British War Relief to the French women who will put them together for the poor Belgian children. Those having pieces that cannot make the blocks can send to the Red Cross to be cut and made. Any one having old muslin can help by sending it to the rooms or leaving it at Mr. Pennington's store. Committees will soon be at work in particular lines. Auxiliaries have been formed at Beaver, Cloverdale with a nucleus towards one in other settlements over the county. These points will receive work and return it finished to the society. We noticed that the work sent in by Tillamook made a part of the car load of supplies to Washington, D. C. a few days since. Each woman is asked to sign a card stating the day and time she will give to this work.
Obituary of Louis Fleck.
Louis Fleck was born in Alsace Loraine, in the year 1841. His young manhood was spent in the land of his nativity where he served in the French army. Shortly after he came to America, and in 1870 settled in Tillamook county, being one of the pioneers.
While here he was married to Miss Elsie Simmons in the year 1876, to the union eight children were born, seven of whom still live, John, Jeff, Charles and Louis still reside in Tillamook county; Elizabeth Bodyfelt, deceased, Mrs. Nora Mattoum, of Oregon City; Mrs. Kate Norton, of Portland; and Mrs. Eta Sears, of Dallas. Mr. Fleck passed his life Saturday evening Nov. 24th in his Dallas home. He leaves behind a host of friends who mourn his loss and sympathize with the bereaved family in this affliction.
