Sam Weil vs. Sadie Weil is a divorce suit filed in the circuit court. The parties were married in San Francisco the 12th of August 1904. The complaint alleges that defendant had a violent temper, who left plaintiff and refused to return for considerable periods of time, and that defendant falsly and cruelly charged the plaintiff with having improper relations with other women. It was during the fore part of June 1917, when residing in Hillsboro, that the defendant finally left plaintiff and went to Spokane, Wash., stating in a letter that she would not return there. One child was born to the union, now in the care of the defendant, and the plaintiff is willing that defendant have charge of the child, provided he could visit it.

CHEESE TO BE A WAR FOOD
Oregon Administrator Suggests Meat Substitute.

Oregon cheese is coming to the front as a substitute for meat and is to become a much better known feature in the homes of the state, according to plans made public Monday by W. B. Ayer, Federal food administrator. Likewise it is to be cheaper.

Mr. Ayer declares there is no better article of food anywhere than Oregon cheese and says that it should be used much more than it is throughout the state. He has accordingly arranged to give it a place in the homes of the commonwealth, if a plan worked out at headquarters will put it there.

Miss Edna Groves, in charge of the domestic science department of the Portland schools, and all of these departments throughout the state will give practical demonstrations of the many ways to use this product and to make it palatable.

"It is in many ways an excellent thing to do," said Mr. Ayer. "Not only will the use of Oregon cheese assist materially in conserving of meat, but it will provide a means of encouraging the dairy industry—a very vital necessity just now. There is no better product than the cheese made in this state and it should be sold at retail cheaply, as it is delivered to the jobber at 23 cents per pound and by the jobber turned in to the retailer at 24 1/2."

Red Cross Christmas Cheer.

The people of the United States are approaching the Christmas holidays under conditions this country never has seen before; and, moreover, it is probable that this year we shall not experience our most sorrowful Christmas while the world war rages.

With the thought of the nation dwelling largely on the infinite suffering abroad, on the certainty that our own flesh and blood will soon be enduring its full share of that suffering, and on the absence from home of hundreds of thousands of dear ones, Christmas, 1917, will be a war Christmas.

Into this somber outlook the Red Cross is seeking to bring something of cheer. In a campaign lasting from December 16 till Christmas Eve it will ask for 10,000,000 to become "Red Cross Christmas" recruits, that they may enable the Red Cross to lighten the burden our Army and Navy and those of our allies are called upon to bear.

This cooperation with the Red Cross is real service which we may all be proud. And that this service, when rendered by one, may be known to his neighbor, the Red Cross will use each old and each new member to display at his home a Red Cross service flag on which each Red Cross stands for a member.

The hundreds of thousands of these flags already being shown by old members will swell into millions before Christmas, each flag and each little cross bearing testimony that someone's Christmas has been made happier for himself or herself, happier for our own boys and happier for the soldiers of our allies.

Let us all help to make this a Red Cross Christmas—which is another way of saying: Let us make it the happiest Christmas possible with the war clouds hanging low.

Budget Meeting Uninteresting

From all appearance less interest is taken in budget meetings than in former years, for the meeting on Saturday was unusually tame and uninteresting. There were very few in attendance at the court house at one o'clock, the time the meeting was advertised, but by 1:30 there was a fairly good sized gathering, but the attendance was far below that of last year.

County Judge Hare called the meeting to order and read the notice which called the meeting and the different items in the budget.

C. W. Miller asked that about half a mile of new road be built on the Bewley road, so as to reach the logging camp.

Attorney Botts offered the following resolution, which was carried: "Be it resolved, by the taxpayers of Tillamook County, Oregon, in budget meeting assembled this December 8, 1917, as follows: "That the County Court is authorized and requested to use that part of the road funds of Tillamook County, Oregon, to be raised by taxation in the year 1918, and specified in the budget as for road bed for hard surface and to match State and Federal appropriations, for other road work, if a bond issue is arranged for which will provide sufficient funds for said purposes to meet the requirements for obtaining State and Federal aid on roads south of Tillamook City."

Then R. W. Watson moved that the budget be approved as read, which was carried.

With this concluded the budget meeting.

THE CHEESE SITUATION
Haberlach Sells a Large Quantity and Dairymen will be Paid Before Christmas.

Carl Haberlach returned from a trip to Portland Wednesday, where he had gone on cheese business. He reported having sold quite a little cheese, enough so that farmers could probably be paid before Christmas for the October milk. While there is still considerable cheese on the Portland market and considerable "outside" Oregon cheese to be had, dealers are showing a decided preference for the Tillamook article. It is time like the present, when cheese markets are dull, that quality counts.

When in Portland he met Mr. Giles, of the Coos-Curry Association. They report but little cheese on hand, but have not yet paid for September milk, having a little cheese in storage. From reports received, they have had considerable trouble because the government had sent them a man that got most of the cheese makers to make cheese without using circles. This has certainly caused a lot of trouble. This may be all right back East, but conditions are different out West. Too many people are prone to take advice from strangers.

While in Portland Mr. Haberlach also saw the Government food administration.

For the present, milk will be skimmed and cream sent to Portland. If the present slides at Mohler are not removed at once, the factories will make cheese until such time as train service is resumed, when milk will be skimmed again. Nothing definite has been done yet about shipping milk to condensers, but it is believed that the cheese market will be in good condition within a few months.

Get the Habit.

The time has come for Oregon citizens to show more practical appreciation of a famous Oregon product.

The Oregon household knows Tillamook cheese, only too often by reputation alone. It knows Oregon cheese is a high-grade product because it has heard encomiums sung from the distance, or it has gained a casual personal acquaintance from the small piece that sometimes decorates a cut of apple pie.

There are countless ways in which to prepare cheese with or without other foods in combination and make a palatable and principal dish. Every family ought to learn them.

Cheese is an acceptable substitute for meat; there is a present abundant supply in Oregon, and its transportation to other markets is hampered by shortage of facilities; it is more economical than meat, of which there is a shortage; it is a staple home product and its ready sale supports a great and growing industry; its use is encouraged by the Food Administration for all these reasons.

To eat cheese promotes economy in three directions; it saves the purse, it conserves meat products that are needed for maintenance of the armies and it encourages dairying. It is a good habit. Get it.—Oregonian.

(From The Journal)

Carl Haberlach, known far and wide as the representative of the best cheese center in the country—Tillamook—was in the city during the day and made some liberal sales.

"The market for cheese is considerably stronger," says Mr. Haberlach, "and quite a liberal supply has been sold recently. In fact we have made such good trades lately that we are now out of all danger of a weakening market. The market is firmer all around, and there is no fear for the future."

At this time Tillamook is separating fully 80 per cent of its milk and shipping the cream to Portland. This city is therefore getting the best cream quality it has known for years. Shipments are being made from Tillamook to relieve the oversupply of cheese, which for a time threatened the price and industry, as well as to give the Portland creameries a chance to really make good butter. The skim milk is being fed to hogs at Tillamook, and thus aiding that industry.

Gen. Haig is Unconventional.

In matter of dress etiquette Sir Douglas Haig, commander of the British forces in France, is the most unconventional of field marshals and the despair of strict disciplinarians. Besides discarding the shoulder strap of his Sam Browne belt Sir Douglas refuses to wear the ivory-hilted curved sword prescribed for officers of his rank, and prefers the cavalry saber. He also defies custom by using hunting bit for his horse instead of the heavy service pattern.

VOTING CONTEST FOR $50.00 LIBERTY BOND DRAWING TO A CLOSE.
Local Red Cross To Get Double Votes Saturday, December 22.

The voting contest for the free $50.00 Liberty Bond is drawing to a close. The Bond is to be given away by Halmot's Monday, Dec. 24th at 10 P. M.

The standing of three leading contestants at the close of business Saturday, Dec. 8th, was as follows: Girls' Honor Guard 211,183 Rebekah Lodge 106,629 Red Cross 104,384

Next Saturday the Red Cross will have a booth in the store and will be represented by a number of members, all votes cast at their special booth on that day will count double for them. All indications point to the fact that all supporters of the Red Cross will be out in full force Saturday.

Notice to Persons Registered

On Saturday Sheriff Campbell will commence sending out the Questionnaires to men who have registered, and about five per cent will be sent out daily hereafter.

The men are given only seven days from the time the Questionnaires are mailed to answer the same and return them to the local board.

As there are a large number of questions, and these have to be answered correctly, drafted men can obtain the assistance of any attorney, as all the attorneys kindly consented to do so free of charge.

A Pretty Wedding.

At the home of C. A. Smith last Sunday afternoon Mr. Frank Nelson and Miss Hattie Smith were united in marriage by Elder R. Y. Blalock. Both parties reside at Cloverdale and are popular and well known in Tillamook County, having been born and raised in this county. There were a few near relatives and friends at the wedding. The home was nicely decorated with evergreens and flowers. The happy couple have many friends who wish them a long and happy voyage together.

Senior Class to Give Vaudeville

A high class vaudeville show will be given by the Senior class of the Tillamook High School Friday night. It is billed as the "Senior Vodevil," and will consist of eight acts, all of talent.

The committee consisting of Lowell Edwards, Max Beals and Charles Lamb, chairman, have been at work for some time on this affair and promise the people an unusual entertainment.

Among the eight acts on the bill are two farce comedies "Its Great to be Crazy," and "His Lordship the Burglar," and the Yannigan Quartet in serious and comic song, vocal selections by a high school girl of unusual talent, "Hawaiian Melodies," and the "Hot Dawg Minstrels" in original comedy.

The high school orchestra will furnish music for the occasion.

The price of admission will be twenty-five cents for any seat in the house.

MAE MARSH STAR IN "POLLY OF THE CIRCUS"
At Gem Theatre Tuesday, December Eighteen.

"Polly of the Circus," a tremendous Goldwyn picture made from Margaret Mayo's great play, with famous little Mae Marsh as its star, will be shown next Tuesday, December 18 at the Gem Theatre.

The picture is the first release of Goldwyn Pictures Corporation formed by Samuel Goldfish in association with Edgar-Selwyn, Margaret Mayo, Archibald Selwyn and a brilliant group of authors and play-wrights.

The story of "Polly," which has given a tremendous production in its picturized form, is that of a motherless girl of the circus, and of the part she plays in the drama of life in a small American village. It is a romance of the sawdust ring and has been termed "the classic of the Big Tops."

Polly is hurt while doing her "act" and is taken to the home of the local minister to be cared for. Here a pretty romance buds, but before it blooms it is interrupted by the gossip of the villagers, and Polly goes back to the circus. But the circus comes back another year and Polly and the minister pick up the threads of their romance in a dramatic climax.

The picture is filled with realistic scenes of circus life, the most thrilling of which is a fire in the big tent and the stampede of the audience. It required a fully equipped circus to produce this realism, and you are permitted to see a complete circus performance on the screen; the arrival of a circus in the town at daybreak, the great street parade, the departure in the black of night. The greatest horse race scene ever but on the screen is another of the thrilling incidents of this remarkable picture.

POMONA GRANGE WANTS BIGGER AND BETTER FAIR.
Recommends R. Y. Blalock for Manager of Fair—Wants $15,000 Expended on Little Nestucca Road.

Tillamook County Pomona Grange met at Oretown on Thursday of last week when there was a good attendance and the usual amount of interest taken in the discussion.

After the usual form of opening the meeting, the grangers went to work in earnest.

Reports from subordinate granges were taken up and proved very satisfactory, especially the report from Nestucca, which showed a gain of 23 members the last quarter.

The first matter to cause a lively discussion and some amount of enthusiasm was a communication from the Nehalem Grange, which recommended the postponement of the county fair for 1918. After considerable discussion, which was decidedly one-sided, as those who attend the Pomona Grange were unanimously opposed to postponing the fair, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, standing still brings stagnation, decay and death, and retreating is going back and means defeat and failure; and as we believe in going forward, and being no slackers in building up our county; "Resolved, that we as a Pomona Grange go on record as favoring a bigger and better Tillamook County Fair for 1918."

The matter of a county fair manager was then discussed, and on this point the Pomona Grange was of one mind, and unanimously recommended R. Y. Blalock to the Fair Board to manage the 1918 fair.

Erwin Harrison had signified his intention to resign from the Fair Board, and to fill that vacancy Mrs. Frank Worthington was recommended to fill a position on the board. As Mr. Thompson would not serve on the board again, Mrs. C. Daniel of Mohler was recommended to represent the North part of the county on the board.

A motion was made that Tillamook County Pomona Grange buy $50.00 worth of U. S. War Saving Certificates. This was unanimously carried and the secretary was ordered to purchase the same, which he has done.

To show their interest in a bigger and better county fair the Pomona Grange voted to give $25.00 for premiums to those who made exhibits.

After an interesting discussion on co-operation, it was decided to hold a night session. At eight o'clock the Oretown Grange lecturer had charge of the open meeting. She rendered a good program which was enjoyed by all. At the close of the program an interesting discussion was participated in by many on the transmission of tuberculosis from the cow to the human race.

The county budget was then taken up and a few items discussed. A motion was made that the Pomona Grange go on record recommending that the county court expend $15,000 on the Little Nestucca road, which was carried.

A motion was made and carried that the county court appoint a competent veterinarian as soon as possible.

Another motion was made and carried that the county court allow a bounty on the gopher as well as the mole if it could legally do so.

The next meeting of the Pomona Grange will be at Nehalem next March.

Vote of Condolence.

At a meeting of the Pomona Grange last week the following vote of condolence was agreed to: "Whereas, it has pleased our heavenly Father to call from the Tillamook Pomona Grange to the great grange above, our beloved brother, Fred Zaddach; Resolved, that we extend our heart felt sympathy to the bereaved family and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and a copy to the local newspapers and Grange Bulletin for publication." Mrs. Clay Daniel and Ole B. Redburg, committee.

Rifle Club Shoots.

The Tillamook Rifle Club had a shoot at their range last Sunday. Two strings of ten shots each were made, and the following scores: 10 shots, possible 50 points—Eberhardt, 37; Henkle, 36; C. Stanley, 36; Shreve, 32; Alva Williams, 32; Elliott Henderson, 29; E. Stanley, 27; E. Epplert, 26.

10 shots, possible 50 points—Eberhardt, 40; Shreve, 37; Alva Williams, 36; E. Stanley, 35; Clarence Stanley, 33; Epplert, 30; Henkle, 26; Elliott Henderson, 20.

These scores were made at 200 yards off-hand, 8-inch bulls-eye.
