TWO OREGON LADS ARE GIVEN SIGNAL HONORS

V. J. Langman and L. C. Smith Chosen from 600 to Attend University.

Victor J. Langman, stepson of city Auditor George J. Funk, who enlisted in the aviation corps April 10 of last year, is in Portland on a furlough. He is one of the two men selected from the four airplane squadrons at Fort Sill to attend the university of Illinois for special instruction in aeronautics. The other man is Lyle C. Smith, of Tillamook, Or. These young men consider it a great honor to themselves and to the state to be the only two to be chosen from about 600 others to attend the university. They are both privates, but when they complete their course at the university and take up actual instruction in flying, they will be in line for commissions as first lieutenants. They will be at the university for about two weeks. Private Langman witnessed the escape of the big observation balloon from Fort Sill several weeks ago, when the cable was snapped by an airplane running into it.

Attorney Winslow's Mother is Dead

Salem, Ore., Jan. 1.—Mrs. Adelaide V. Winslow, 60 years of age, died last night at her home on a farm in Polk County. She has been a resident all her life on what is known as the old Winslow place.

She is survived by three sons, Walter C., attorney of Salem; George, attorney of Tillamook, and Frank, who resides in Polk County, and by two daughters, Mrs. C. V. Nelson, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Olive Whitney, of Polk County.

Mrs. Winslow had been ill about a year. It is believed that her death was partly caused by grief over the loss of her son who was drowned here in the Willamette river about a year ago in an effort to save a ferry load of people crossing the river.

Attorney G. P. Winslow left for Salem on Tuesday owing to the death of his mother.
