interesting narrative of the cruise of visits to Panama Canal Zone, Brazil

Don't forget "Wild and Woolly" at the Gem Theatre tomorrow (Friday) night. This is the picture you have been looking forward to and the some tie up with the film.

The regular meeting of the Commercial Club will be held at the club rooms on Monday evening, February 11. The club is Hooverizing now so there will not be personal invitations sent out as has been the usual policy in the past. Remember the date and be present.

James Christensen, of Hemlock, is one of those who is not slow expressing his righteous indignation of the hold up of the mail for the south part of the county in this city for 19 hours. Say, Jim, the mail for the South part of the county got into a slow poke, Democratic rut, and he is revolting at his own medicine.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Lamb gave a 500 party to a number of friends on Tuesday evening at their home in this city when a most pleasant time was enjoyed by all present. Mr. and Mrs.
Thad Robison succeeded in carrying off the honors. Mrs. Lamb served dainty refreshments, which was another enjoyable event of the evening.

F. K. Blackadar, who was called to Roseville, Cal., by a death occurring in his family, returned on Friday. Mr.
Blackadar states that California is very much in need of rain as stock is perishing and as farmers who have sown barley over 4 weeks ago can see no signs of its growth and receding will probably be necessary. He also tells of an incident of a farmer selling a horse for $1.50, as the price of hay is $35.00 per ton.

After a few weeks illness, Hayne Holmes, a well known farmer living west of Whiteson, passed away Wednesday, Jan. 30, at his home. He was 48 years of age. Mr. Holmes was prominent in the councils of the Masonic order and in county Democratic circles. He was one of the best known men in Yamhill county and highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was a brother of Attorney Webster Holmes of this city.

Every farmer and producer in Oregon is interested in having at least an even break with other sections of the country in securing a fair and reasonable price for his product. R. N. Stanfield, Republican candidate for United States Senator, in his platform pledged himself "to an equitable control and regulation of food supplies, commerce and industry, and the establishment of a primary market in Portland on equal basis with the Chicago and Eastern ports."

As a result of the action of the Tillamook Commercial Club, which sent a complaint to Representative W. C. Hawley in regard to the "tie up" of the mail for the south part of the county in this city for 19 hours, the postoffice department advises Representative Hawley that the contractor on the Star route supplying Claverdelle and other postoffices in the south part of Tillamook county has been directed to leave Tillamook on receipt of mail from the afternoon train on schedule.

Porter Bros. of Portland, have a large number of men in the county looking over the spruce belt for spruce for the government. A camp is being started on the Miami and there are 50 men already employed there, and it is expected that camps will be started in other parts of the county.
All the spruce in the county is commandeered by the government, and the next few weeks will see considerable activity in getting out rived spruce for the government. Joe Hunt, who logged in this county 30 years ago, is in charge of the camp, and is a good man for the job.

Died, on the 26th of January, on the Kelchis river, Mrs. Mary Smith. She deceased was born in the County of Limerick, Ireland, and she came to the United States when only six years of age. She was married to William Corbett in 1853 and four children were born of this union. Her husband died in 1861, and in 1864 she married John C. Smith, when six children were born of this union. He died at Manston, Wis., on April 26, 1901. Three sons survive the deceased William C. Smith, Joseph C. Smith, and George E. Smith, and seven grand children and two great grand children. She resided in the county the past four years, living with her son William S. Smith, on the Kilechis river.
The funeral services were conducted at the Catholic church and the interment was at the Catholic cemetery.

On Tuesday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall, the following were duly instructed in the Initiatory Degree, the Bay City brothers putting on the work in a most impressive manner:
A. D. Morrison, P. C. Jepson, T. B.
Hyder, J. P. Jepson, Leonard McCormick, Oscar Tittle, Frank Dye and E.
Kirk. There were something over 100 Odd Fellows present, among whom were brothers from all over the state.
The sisters of the Rebekah lodge made up a surprise party and raided the hall by going "over the top" with a heavy barrage of sandwiches and coffee, which was greatly enjoyed by all. On next Tuesday evening the First Degree will be put on and on Tuesday evening next after, Feb.
12, the Second Degree, when there will be a class of fourteen members from the various lodges to take the degree work. All brothers are most cordially invited to attend these instructive and social meetings the lodge opening at 7:30 p.m.

It may be interesting to know that butter will take a drop in price. This is what the Oregonian said about butter prices and condensers: "Butter prices were lowered 1 cent yesterday, both on prints and cubes. The buying price of butter fat was reduced 2 cents, as the creameries considered the margin between fat and print prices as too small. The prospects are for a steady decline in the butter market from now on. The California market has weakened and Southern butter can now be had down here in competition with the local product. A decided factor in easing up the butter situation has been the closing down of some of the milk condenseries and the prospect that others will shut down. Production of condensed milk got ahead of the demand and a large stock has accumulated in this state"

Where the Money Goes.

Every citizen is being invited to economize and when National debt is growing at such a pace that the annual interest will soon exceed the normal expenses of the government, it is pertinent to consider where some of the money goes.—Oregonian.

In this connection and as a matter of information for the Oregonian the Capital Journal points out that $8,400 goes yearly to President Kerr of the Oregon Agricultural College, and that $1,400 of this was recently presented him without any reason or excuse by the board of regents. Evidently the invitation to economize had not reached them at the time.—Capital Journal.

CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION.

Indictments for Bootlegging— Cider Case Set for Saturday.

The February term of the Circuit Court was convened on Monday with Judge George R. Bagley on the bench.
The docket was somewhat long, but with cases of not much general interest, being mostly actions for money, and divorce cases. There are about a dozen jury cases, which will prevent the court from doing much Hooverizing on time if they all go to trial.

The grand jury was drawn as follows: Albert Krake, Dave Martiny, Alex Watt, Guy Mattoon, Frank Dye, Ernest Haag and Cyrus Randall.
The Judge appointed Dave Martiny foreman of the grand jury.

One case of public interest to be tried on Saturday, is that of the damage suit against District Attorney T.
H. Goynes for destroying cider belonging to Meinecke & Seabrook.
The district attorney claims it was hard cider and contained 15 per cent alcohol, and it is upon this point that the case will revolve. The attorney for the plaintiffs claim that the cider was only four days old, and did not contain that amount of alcohol.

LITTLE NESSUCA LOST.

Three Rivers Road Selected as the Highway by Commission.

At a meeting of the State Highway Commission on Tuesday in Portland, the matter of the Three Rivers-Little Nestucca highway came up and it was decided in favor of the Three Rivers road as the Highway into Tillamook County.

This came as a great surprise to those who have been favoring the Little Nestucca road, for it seems that Mr. Benson promised not to decide upon the location until a hearing could be had. It is thought that Mr.
Benson had overlooked the promise he had made for a hearing, and no doubt, when his attention is called to this he will remember it, and for that reason it is thought that the matter might be re-considered at some future date.
