Firemen's Service Flag.

At the Tillamook Firemen's Annual dance, Friday, February 22nd, a beautiful service flag was presented to the firemen by Mrs. Elmer Plog. The flag contained nine stars representing the boys who are now in service who were members of the department.

Mrs. Plog was represented in the presentation address by Rollie W. Watson who made an eloquent and patriotic address. The firemen were represented in the response by C. C. Curtis, their President. Those who are on the roll of honor are: Tebby Stewart, Lowell Moulton, Jim Smith, Pete Smith, Thos Keys, Thos. Coates Jr., Floyd Wolf, Bob Myers and Norman Myers.

Service Flag Unveiled Sunday at the Methodist Church.

On Sunday morning a special service was held at the Methodist Church to dedicate a service flag in honor of the young men who had been previously identified with that church, and who had offered their services to the government in this national crisis. The church was well filled with an attentive congregation, and the services were ably conducted by the pastor, Rev. Chas. Gibson, who preached a patriotic sermon.

Mr. Gibson in his opening remarks, said he had not chosen a text nor had he prepared a set speech. They were there to honor the young men who had enlisted who had been identified with the church. He did not like the idea of honoring the young men of their church, but would have preferred that young men from other churches as well as young men who were not identified with any church, could all be included in one honor roll. But the churches were called upon to do what they were doing that day. It had become a National affair. Mr. Gibson paid a glowing tribute to the boys who were defending the stars and stripes and who stood between us and the enemy. He then went back to the war of the Revolution and referred to what France had done to assist Washington, stating that this was the first opportunity that the United States had of showing its appreciation to that country. He felt glad that the United States was helping France. We owed that country a debt of gratitude. Mr. Gibson discussed the question of the war and gave his reason why the United States was involved in it, stating that Germany had broken international law in its submarine policy, murdering women and non-combatants, and accused Germany of using barbarous methods in the prosecution of the war. To those who opposed the United States entering the war, Mr. Gibson gave many good reasons why the United States had done the right thing, going to the assistance of France and the allies, contending that the United States was not safe as long as the Kaiser was in power, and as an illustration of this he referred to Germany making the offer to give Japan this northwest country. In closing Mr. Gibson praised the boys who had enlisted, and those who were to be called to the colors, who, he said, were just as brave and true as those who had already enlisted.

At the conclusion of the rev. gentleman's remarks, he called upon Marion Hopkins to unveil the service flag which contained 21 names. Two other names were handed in that morning. At the right of the flag was a golden star, which was in honor of those who had given up their lives in the present war, and on this star Mr. Gibson placed a wreath. The honor roll contained these names in the order given:

The Bonding Question Will Be Re-Submitted to People.

Another effort is to be made to bond the county for $425,000 for the purpose of building a hard surfaced road through the county. When the bond measure was submitted to the people last June it was carried by a large majority, 1499 voting for it and 678 against. When the case was taken to the Supreme Court it was knocked out on a trivial technicality. Then the question was raised whether another election could be held within twelve months, for the law provides that only one special election can be held each year. It is upon that point where there is some difference of opinion, but to bring this to an issue this will be tried out after the petitions are filed. The Tillamook Commercial Club will circulate the petitions, accompanying which will be a letter to the County Court as to where the money is to be expended. It will be noticed that in the north part of the county one important change is made, the Necarney mountain road being abandoned. This met with some opposition in the north end of the county at the special election, which will be overcome now that a change was made.

The most important reason for voting on the bonding question at an early date as possible is to be prepared with money when the State Highway Commission is ready to build the additional 15 miles of hard surfaced road in the south part of the county. Should the county not be in a position to pay its share, the state money would probably be used in some other county and it would be a direct loss to Tillamook County to lose 15 miles of hard surfaced road.

Owing to the money market and labor conditions it was thought wise not to force the sale of the bonds or commence work until such time as the money can be used economically, and the Tillamook Commercial Club went on record to that effect and advised the County Court of its action.

For the information of a large number of citizens who keep inquiring when another election is to be held, we give below a copy of the petition that will be circulated and the letter that will accompany it:

The letter that is to accompany the petition has been prepared and submitted to the County Court. The court will take the matter up next Tuesday, after which the petitions will be circulated. County Judge Hare is in hearty accord with the recommendation of the Tillamook Commercial Club in not expending the bond money until such time as the money market and labor conditions will warrant the money being expended economically. To save the expense of holding a special election, the President of the Commercial Club suggested to the court that the election be held at the primary election, but this is a matter that will no doubt be decided next week.

The Home Boys Who Joined the Army and Navy Doing their Bit.

For the purpose of obtaining a correct list of Tillamook boys who have enlisted in the army or navy, we publish the list prepared by Thos. Coates. What we want is the name of every Tillamook boy and the regiment or ship to which he belongs, and we will consider it a favor if the relatives or friends of the boys will furnish Mr. Coates or the editor of the Headlight with this information. Printed blanks can be obtained for the purpose, for we want to publish a correct and complete record, for numerous inquiries have been made as to how many Tillamook boys have enlisted. Please favor us with this information as soon as possible, especially names that are not included in Tillamook County's honor roll, or any correction in the names we have published.

There are 167 names in the list published, and as we are inclined to believe that many more names should be added, we are anxious to obtain them as soon as possible.

June Caprice in "Sunshine Maid"

Smiling June Caprice, the "Sunshine Maid", will be with us again soon in a new thrilling William Fox photoplay, "Unknown 274". This star's latest picture will be shown at the Gem Theatre next Thursday, March 7th.

In this play Miss Caprice is the child of a man whose father disowns him for marrying, as he believes, beneath his station, the father being an official of a foreign government. The young man and his wife flee to America but soon after Dola (June's name in the play), is born, the father is enticed onto a warship of his own country and taken back and put in prison for fleeing from army service.

The mother gets word that her husband has died in prison. She puts the child in an orphanage in Maine and ends her life.

Sixteen years later a scheming woman and a man from New York believe they can dress the child, and sell her to the highest bidder among New York's young spendthrift millionaires.

How they fare and how the father's old viola brings his daughter back to him is shown in some pretty situations. And June gets a millionaire, but not because of the scheming man and woman but despite them.

Notice to Boys Carrying Sling Shots.

Boys who are carrying sling shots are warned that this is a violation of the law and various complaints have been made both concerning sling shots and bows and arrows. Citizens who keep chickens have been considerably annoyed by the use of these weapons in the hands of small boys. It is hoped that this notice will be sufficient and that nothing further need be done in the matter. Parents will please call attention of their children to this matter.

C. C. Curtis, City Marshal.
