

"Open Your Purse —Help Kill the Curse"

—HAZEL MCCOY DUFUR

THEY say, who have come back from Over There, that at night the troubled earth between the lines is carpeted with Pain. They say that Death rides whistling in every wind, and that the very mists are charged with awful torment. They say that of all things spent and squandered there young human life is held least dear.

It is not the pleasantest prospect for those of us who yet can feel upon our lips the pressure of our mother's good-by kiss.

But, please God, our love of life is not so prized as love of right. In this renaissance of our country's valor, we who will edge the wedge of her assault make calm acceptance of its hazards.

For us the steel swept trench, the stiffening cold-weariness, hardship, worse. For you for whom we go, you millions safe at home—what for you?

We shall need food. We shall need care. We shall need clothes for our bodies and weapons for our hands. We shall need—TERRIBLY and without failure—supplies and equipment in a stream that is constant and never-ending. From you who are our resource and reliance, who are the heart and hope of that humanity for which we smite and strive, must come these things.

Germany is Tired of the War.

Chicago, March 26.—Miss Blanche Sium who was held a virtual prisoner in Germany after the outbreak of the war, arrived home in Chicago today and told of the suffering of the German people, of their rising hatred of the war and of the German government.

"The people are literally starving and are very mutinous," she said. "Small riots and seditious talks have reached such proportions that the government has posted placards about the city of Berlin offering a reward of 3000 marks for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person participating in the riotous and uttering seditious remarks."

"The populace of Berlin would be delighted to see the Kaiser hanged to the highest tree in the city."

Uncle Joe Solved the Riddle.

Washington, March 26.—Uncle Joe Cannon is 82, but mentally spry. The subject of the 'slacker' came up today and Uncle Joe was asked why so many of the army reserve officers in Washington wore spurs.

"The reason is simple," he said; "it is to keep their feet from sliding off the desks."

Arrangements are being made to keep a complete record of all Indians who serve in the army or navy during the war.

Nature Cures The Doctor Takes The Fee.

There is an old saying that "nature cures, the doctor takes the fee," but as everyone knows you can help Nature very much and thereby enable it to effect a cure in much less time than is usually required. This is particularly true of colds. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy relieves the lungs, liquefies the tough mucus and aids in its expectoration, allays the cough and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Although bakers who use less than 3 barrels of flour and meal a month are not required to secure food administration licenses, a recent rule gives them the right to come under license.

"Cupid's Round Up" at the Gem.

The extremely interesting announcement is made that on Thursday, April 11 the new William Fox production at the Gem Theatre, The Hero of this play Tom Mix, is the new William Fox star, who is one of the great favorites of the screen. At the head of a fine company and with a brilliant red blooded drama, one cannot imagine anything so likely to give good entertainment.

The play itself is by George Scarborough, the man who met the Kaiser, and the author of so many Broadway successes. It is a vivid story of Western life with a thrilling love theme and stirred with stirring incidents. It is likely to be one of the features of the season at this house.

Everyone who likes a clean cut, clever Western play is sure to see "Cupid's Roundup". Don't forget the date, Thursday, April 11 at the Gem Theatre.

Oregon's Quota in Liberty Loan Drive is $18,495,000.

Quotas for each county of the state in the forth coming third liberty loan drive were made known Monday. Portland and state quota is $18,495,000, of which Portland's quota is $10,050,000.

This is, of course, much below the original quota for Oregon of $50,000,000, but it is pointed out by those in charge of the drive that efforts must by no means be relaxed on that account, as the quotas just fixed are minimum in each case and these amounts, according to the Secretary of Treasury, are expected to be oversubscribed.

The county quotas are based upon the resources of each county and the town quotas will be announced later. County resources and quotas are listed as follows:

See "Blue Jeans" at the Gem.

A genuine old fashioned county fair and political rally is shown in "Blue Jeans", the Metro special production de lux, starring winsome Viola Dana, which will be seen at the Gem Theatre, Tuesday, April 9.

The members of the "village band" with their antiquated instruments, are led by Miss Dana as June, dressed to represent a drum major, banton in hand. When Clifford Bruce as Ben Boon, the political rival of Perry Bascom, (Robert Walker) begins his speech, the little drum major gives the signal for a "blare of music," to drown his words and give her favorite a better chance.

The exhibit hall of an old fashioned county fair is shown, fitted with booths, platforms for the rival candidates, bandstand, and cider booth, and decorated with American flags, ears of corn and other farm products. With farmers, village belles, and awkward country bumpkins, the scene is a most picturesque one, and contributes largely to the quaint effect of the screen version of Joseph Arthur's famous "thriller".

Constipation and Indigestion

These are twin evils. Persons suffering from indigestion are often troubled with constipation. Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill., writes that when she first moved to Mattoon she was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation. Food distressed her and there was a feeling like a heavy weight pressing on her stomach and chest. She did not rest well at night, and felt worn out a good part of the time. One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets corrected this trouble so that she has since felt like a different person. For sale by Lamar's Drug Store.

Some Good Advice.

"Don't think too much of your own methods. Watch other people's ways and learn from them." This is good advice, especially when bilious or constipated. You will find many people who use Chamberlain's Tablets for these ailments with the best results, and will do well to follow their example. For sale by Lamar's Drug Store.
