TILLAMOOK, OREGON. APRIL U, 1918.

SI.50 PER YEAR.

2.2

120

Tillamook Jottings.

W. A. Wise, dentist. Every dairy cow should be fed some Linsed Oil Meal.-Ray & Co. Hoofror Remedy at C. I. Clough

Dr. Shearer, physician and surgeon, Coverdale, Orc.

Mrs. Shrode is in from Salem.

Kuppenbender sells feed for less. all at the warehouse.

Pigs for sale, H. A. Springer, halfgile south of town.

Jewelry, clocks, watches, silverare .- R. W. Bennett,

Let W. A. Church write your insur-

R. W. Bennett, expert watch reairing, S. P. Watch inspector.

The soil doctor is sold by Kuppen-

For Sale or trade-Merry-Go-round, ax 144 Tillamook Oregon.

We handle Trojan Powder. Best for mping .- Tillamook Feed Co.

meage close to city .- See Shrode. *

Announcing the new Grant Six, the ist ever. See Kuppenbender. Let Kuppenbender tell you how to memoney on your cement work.

lement. For sale by Lamb Schrader

Will pay you to see Everson tor a ste investment in city property or m lands.

or Sale-8 head milk cows, all givmilk, except one due to freshen the tenth.

eliable girl wants housework or king. Box 487 Tillamook. Ore.

hy not be insured in the best fire nce company, it costs no more. verson.

Sale-New modern residence, in best residence district. For a bargain. See Frank Heyd. *

in the West-Oregon Portland Schrader Co.

"Guaranteed" silo is complete ld for less. Send for our big ok it is free. W. Kuppenbenshould be without it. It is Kuppenbender.

-horses or cattle to pas-C. Hanenkrat or Phone 4F2 le-15 head of milk cows. Al- The County Court rejected the bids Will Know." k. Oregon.

Ruben Glad, who was reported last efforts met with such flattering suc- Big Dramatic Moments at Gem. week as arriving in France was de- cess, J. E. Wheeler and family can tained at Camp Merrit New Jersey likewise feel proud of the result also. having contracted scarlet fever. For Sale-Eight young Jersey cows, been sold to parties in Seattle for milking. Price $55 per head. Address $20,000, and she will be used in the R. H. Scott, Box 109, R. I. Salem, halibut fishing industry.

Tillamook

For sale to the highest bidder, the proceeds to go to the Red Cross, a Poland China Boer. Bids to be sent to the Headlight office not later than Saturday; April 26.

road between Preston Maroli's and South Prairie Creamery, Owner can lamook Lodge, No. 94, I. O. O. F. kill the red skin. Quick, Tillamook, Ore.

Sanitarium, Seattle, Washington.

Dr. J. E. Reedy, who is in California, received a telegram from Washington to report at Fort Ogethrope, cance. Refreshments were served at stood him, the mid-night hour, all having enjoy-Wanted to trade city property for Camp Greenleaf, Georgia, on April 20th ed the evening to the fullest. For Sale-1 horse, 1 surrey, hay $8 Jos Kohuth, a native of Austria, was a ton, I pen birds of thorough bred Silver Stangler Hamburgs, 1 incubaocked up in the county jail this week. He was employed at the Wheeler saw tor 63 eggs, some wooden beds and mill and the men working there were other furniture, 1 cheap range .- H. L. somewhat suspicious of him. He was Best by Test-Oregon Portland Fowler, the Weston Place.

Dr. Turner eye specialist, of Portland will be in Tillamook possession, and some of the mill men again Friday and Saturday, April 12- used persuasive measures to force 20, at Jenkins' Jewelry Store. In Clov- him to buy a bond. He was taken erdale, Thursday, April 18th. Consult down to the dock and a rope tied him don't forget the date. *3 around his neck, when he relented

For rent-desirable home with all and consented to buy $200 worth of bonds. For fear something might hapmodern conveniences, barn, garage, pen him he was brought to the city chicken park and garden spet Also locked up. He will be given permishousehold furniture for sale. Apply to sion to leave the county. Mrs. J. C. Holden.

The 99th annaversary of Odd Fel-For sale, brush land at Hood River. Three crops of alfalfa when cleared. Will sell on time and loan money for improvements to right man for dairying .- F. P. Friday, Hood River, Or. * Married on the 2nd of April, at Always uniform and fresh. Sacret Heart Church, in this city. Anthony Jenck and Anna Wyss. Rev brothers of Tillamook lodge who are old Chinese chemical that causes Jim Basil Schreber performing the cere- now serving the colors in far distant to loes his initiative. Jim is then put R. T. Boals and busines mony.

Married, on Monday, at the court house, County Judge A. M. Hare, peryour big book on uses cf ce- forming the ceremony. Till Jenkins modern sanitary farming. No and Ethel Rainwater. The groom is in of our country. The refreshment com- he loves another. Vera however is the marine corps, stationed at Brem-Program will begin at 8:15 p.m.' erton, Wash, and the bride is a resident of Tillamook County. First Christian Church.

The bid of Ward L. Mayer for retimbering the Lommen bridge and to Beginning at 10 o'clock we want build the trestle was accepted by the you in the Bible school, we are work-sale-Pigs, just weaned. Se county court. The bid was $3325.18, a ing for 300 by "Mother's Day" in Hanenkrat, Bell Phone 4F2, lump sum for retimbering and $56.63 May. Do your bit. Sermon-11 o'clock. "Do and You per thousand feet in place for trestle.

at my place of 40 acres. See for the Morgan bridge and Beaver Christian Endeaver at 7 o'clock. We have a su day evening. Hear the announcement. Mid-week Prayer Meeting, Wednesday 7:30. This service is growing. We will be glad to see you in the

There are many picturesque and moving scenes in the Vitigraph's vis ualization of Hamlin Garland's novel 'The Captain of the Grey Horse Troop", which comes to the Gem Married on Saturday, at the parson-Theatre next Monday, April 14. One Get your farm implements, gas en- age of the Christian Church, Rev. glimpse of the Indian wife, Lithe Wilgines, silos and cutters from Kuppen- Harrry Tucker officiating, Carl Jen-low, bowed in grief over the body of bender. We guarantee all of our ney and Miss Hilda Makinster. The her husband, Cut Finger. groom is from Illinois, and is a member of the 447th Aero Construction tempted to insult Lithe Willow. The Cut Finger killed a settler who at-Squadron, now stationed on the unscrupulous settler, cowmen and Miami, getting out spruce for the herders unite to wipe out the socalled government, the bride is a young "outrage." When the young Indian is woman highly respected by all who know her, and her friends wish the Grey Horse Troop, Geo. Curtis, to Found-purse containing money, on happy couple a long life of happiness. await fair trial the ruthless pioneers The First Degree Team of the Til- force their way into the prison and put on the work Tuesday night for a

This is one of the dramatic moclass of fifteen candidates; eight of ments of the photodrama, which re-Dr. and Mrs. George F. Petersen, the tyros being from Wheeler Lodge, veals the development of the Ameriformerly of Tillamook, are receiving No. 240, one from Mt. Hebo lodge, can Indian from early days to the congratulations on the birth of a 6 lb. No. 115, and six members of Tilla- present. "The Captain of the Grey boy, born March, 25, at Columbus mook lodge. There were about 100 Horse Troop", although a romantic brothers present, among whom were love story of the frontier, is at heart number of visitors. For the "good an epic of the redskin. Hamlin Garof the order" many fine patriotic re- land knows the Indian much as Fredmarks were made with deep signifi- erick Remington the artist, under-

Sail the bounding main with Madame Sonia Markova. Sit in a speedy motor boat, a rubber coat pulled tight about you, and get the thrill of asked to buy a Liberty Bond and "re- features of the new William Fox a chase at sea. This is one of the big photoplay "A Heart's Revenge" in which Mme. Markova is starred and which will be shown next Thursday, April 18 at the Gem Theatre.

It is only one stirring incident, howmany thrills leading up to this big climax. It is full of action-full of the spirit that makes troublesome days orighter.

The action begins in Washington where Vera Sabouroff'(Madame Mor- and people flocked here to take part lowship in America will be fittingly kova) daughter of Count Alexis Sa- in the parade. The Liberty Temple observed on Tuesday evening, the bouroff, attache of the Russian gov- was the scene of activity 30th of April, at the I. O. O. F hall. ernment, is in love with Jim Harding ty Bonds were being dis All Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, their (David Herblin) U. S. aviator. To fast as they could be wr families and friends are invited. There win her away from Jim, Baron Euwill be an excellent program and the gene Drako (Eric Mayne) conspires dedication of a service flag to the with a Chinese doctor, who uses an lands. Rev. Chas. E. Gibson, pastor of on a schooner bound for China. The the fife and drum band the M. E. Church, will deliver the Baron has a "Jim-the-Penman" write ship yard of Feeney-Bre dedication address. Bro. Gibson has a letter signed with Jim's name telling chicken lunch was served two noble, loyal sons in the service Vera Jim cannot marry her because of the vessel, when over 1 the mystery necessitates some startling and daring work. It is a splendid picture and is sure to please.

> JAIL TERM FOR BOOTLEGGERS "Tillamook Kid," who Squealed,

Gets Deferred Sentence. Something of a jolt to the alleged few minutes.

MADE SPLENDID RECORD BY TILLAMOOK COUNTY.

Headlight.

Went Over the Top Before Liberty Bond Drive Commenced.

	24			Quota.	Subscribed.
Nehalem Valley Bank			-	$9,000	$85,650
Tillamook County Ban First National Bank -	k	:		} $85,000	$64,000 59,200
Nestucca Valley Bank	-		•	$5,250	$38,400
First Bank of Bay City	•		•	$5,750	$25,000
Total Amounts		-		$105,000	$272,250

"Over the top the first day" was scribed its apportionment. The four Tillamook County's slogan in the banking districts are: Wheeler, quota Liberty Loan Drive, which started $9000, subscribed $90,000; Cloverdale, last Saturday, but that proved alto- quota $5250, subscribed, $23,800; Bay gether too slow for the Tillamock City, quota $5750, subscribed $19,750 county bond boosters, for Tillamook Tillamook, quota $85,000, subscribed county was over the top before the $118,000. "Frank A. Rowe, county chairman drive started and was well on the way over the second top when the drive for Tillamook county, came to Portcommenced.

land Monday personally to see that Tillamook county set a fast pace, his district was receiving the attenfar in advance of other counties, and tion it should for such valiant service. when the first day's work in the drive Mr. Rowe declared they had received was completed, the county had more subscriptions from practically all the than double its quota and aiming to patriotic people in Tillamook county go over the third top. Saturday even- and now their attention will be given ing it was estimated that about $225,- to rounding up the "slackers". The 000 had been subscribed, and when subscriptions for Tillamook at presever. For "A Heart's Revenge" has the drive is over it is confidently ex- ent total $250.000, and this will be pected that it will have trebled its raised to $315,000 before the campaign closes, it is expected thus bringing

Saturday was proceically a closed day as far as business was concerned, the per cent up to 300."

in the parade. The Liberty Temple	Wither Allertree le was the scene of activity where Liber-	Mike Abplanalp 500.00
ty Bonds were being disposed of as	Claude Ackley 200.00
ty Bonds were, being disposed of as	Lewis Albert 100.00
fast as they could be written, and at	St. Alphonsus Academy 50.00
six o'clock many persons had not	Anna Anderson 100.00
been able to get in to buy them.	Floyd Anderson 50.00
A delegation, composed of the	S. V. Anderson 50.00
members of the County Court, Mayor	F. S. Armentrout 50.00
R. T. Boals and business men with	George Armentrout 50.00
R. I. Doals and business men when	T. W. Armstrong 50.00
the fife and drum band went to the	A. Arstill 50.00-ship yard of Feeney-Bremer Co. A.	Earl H. Atkinson 50.00
chicken lunch was served in the hull	Joel Atkinson 50.00
of the vessel, when over 150 sat down,	Lesetr Atterbery 50.00 and also took part in the patriotic	Forest J. Ayer 50.00 exercises that had been suggested by	Fred C. Baker 150.00
	Hugh Barber 50.00
the shipping board.	Mrs. Hugh Barber 50.00
D. L. Shrode, who is chairman of	James E. Barger 50.00
the committee of this bank district in	Chas Bammie 50.00
the Liberty Loan drive, was the	W. M. Bays 50.00 toastmaster, and when he announced , that Tillamook county had doubled its quota up to that time, this brought	Frank Barnes 150.00 its quota up to that time, tims brought	Vera P. Barnes 50.00 forth a round of applause. Dr. Boals	L. A. Barrick 50.00 was then introduced, and he made a	A. G. Beals 1,000.00 good speech, being applauded every	Grace L. Beals 100.00 few minutes.	B. L. Beals 50.00
Headed by the fife and drum band	Mrs. B. L. Beals 50.00
the party marched from the hull of	F. R. Beals 2,000.00
the party indicated from the null of	Bird L. Beals 100.00
the ship to the ship yard. Here Cap-	Rudolph Bennett 50.00
tain S. S. Johnson made another of his	Mr. and Mrs. E. Benscheidt. 100.00
patriotic addresses, which was fellow-	John Berns 50.00
ed by the raising of the Shipping	F. L. Berkey 50.00
Board's ensign under that of the	Leon Berry 100.00
Stars and Stripes. This brought forth	F. D. Bester 200.00
	Albert C. Bisbee 50.00
another great cheer.	Daise Blackburn 450.00
St Clair I. Thomas read a commu-	Roy Blanchard 50,00
nication from the Shipping Board ad-	H. R. Blauvelt 500.00 dressed to the shipbuilders, after	R. T. Boals 1,000.00 which the crowd repeated the oath of	H. T. and Maud Botts 200.00 alliegance. The gathering came to a	J. C. Bowman 100.00 close when one of the men called for	F. L. Braden 100.00
three cheers for President Wilson,	J. Brades 50.00
Infee cheers for the Shine	Jacob Breeden 50.00 followed by three cheers for the Ship- ping Board, the Superintendent and	Harry H. Brions, Bertha Brions and Elizabeth Brions 150.00
Feenev-Bremer Co.	Amby Brown 50.00
Feency-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in	Amby Brown
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large sumper of people. It was a lit-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 L. A. Burroughs 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- hers of the Red Cross, school children	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 C. S. Brooks 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 L. A. Burroughs 50.00 S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F.	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Bordhead 50.00 Mrs. Fred Balmer 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Preter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 Fr. Balmer 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 Mrs. Fred Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Bordhead 50.00 F. Balmer 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 F. Balmer 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 Retha Clancy 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burdnedd 50.00 F. Balmer 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 Retha Clancy 50.00 Mr. T. Chance 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 F. Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 Retha Clancy 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 A. Christensen 200.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Bordhead 50.00 F. Balmer 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 Retha Clancy 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs.	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 Kr. Fred Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 G. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 A. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 Mrs. Fred Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burdneghs 50.00 K. A. Burtoughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 K. A. Burtoughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 K. A. Burtoughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 K. J. Chaffee 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burtoughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 E. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 <t< td=""></t<>
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music.	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 F. Balmer 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 A. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 <t< td=""></t<>
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 Kr. Fred Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 Mrs. Fred Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 F. W. Christensen 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 H. T. Chance 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Bordhead 50.00 F. Balmer 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 J. R. Church 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Marold Craven 50.00 H
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tle late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 F. Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 A. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Frank Clark 50.00 Harold Craven 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- lev talked to the boys in the logging	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 Kr. Fred Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Harold Craven 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day.	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Preter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 L. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 Kr. Fred Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Marold Craven 50.00 Harold Craven 50.00 <
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day.	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burtoughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 K. A. Burtoughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 K. Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday:	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 Krs. Fred Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 <tr< td=""></tr<>
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 K. Bukleley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 R. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Harold Craven 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 Mrs. Fred Balmer 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 K. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Margaret Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burdhead 50.00 Mrs. Fred Balmer 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Karaold Craven 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob- ably in the United States, to earn the	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burtoughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 F. Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Farak Clark 100.00 Farak Clark 100.00 Fullerd Church 50.00 G. C. Christensen 200.00 F. W. Christensen 50.00 <
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob- ably in the United States, to earn the paroud right to ten stars on its honor	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 Kr. Fred Balmer 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Frank Clark 50.00 G. C. J. Chaffee 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob- ably in the United States, to carn the proud right to ten stars on its honor flag, commented state officials Mon-	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 Kr. Fred Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Fank Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 George Crimmins 50.00 <t< td=""></t<>
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob- ably in the United States, to earn the proud right to ten stars on its honor flag, commented state officials Mon- day as they cast up the returns.	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Preter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brocks 50.00 G. S. Brocks 50.00 G. S. Brocks 50.00 Mrs. Fred Balmer 50.00 K. V. Bulkeley 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Marold Craven 50.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Harold Craven 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob- ably in the United States, to earn the proud right to ten stars on its honor flag, commented state officials Mon- day as they cast up the returns. "To the Federal Reserve Board will	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 L. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 F. Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Marold Craven 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. Christensen 200.00 F. W. Christensen 50.00 <tr< td=""></tr<>
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob- ably in the United States, to carn the proud right to ten stars on its honor flag, commented state officials Mon- day as they cast up the returns. "To the Federal Reserve Board will go forward information that Wheeler,	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Preter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brocks 50.00 G. S. Brocks 50.00 G. S. Brocks 50.00 Mrs. Fred Balmer 50.00 K. V. Bulkeley 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Marold Craven 50.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Harold Craven 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tillamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the busi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob- ably in the United States, to earn the proud right to ten stars on its honor flag, commented state officials Mon- day as they cast up the returns. "To the Federal Reserve Board will go forward information that Wheeler, a little town in Tillamook, to which	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 K. Bukeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 K. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the basi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob- ably in the United States, to carn the proud right to ten stars on its honor flag, commented state officials Mon- day as they cast up the returns. "To the Federal Reserve Board will go forward information that Wheeler, a little town in Tillamook, to which they apportioned the puny sum of	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 Kr. Fred Balmer 50.00 L. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Margaret Caates 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the basi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob- ably in the United States, to carn the proud right to ten stars on its honor flag, commented state officials Mon- day as they cast up the returns. "To the Federal Reserve Board will go forward information that Wheeler, a little town in Tillamook, to which they apportioned the puny sum of	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 K. Bukeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 K. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 F. W. Christensen 200.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the basi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob- ably in the United States, to earn the proud right to ten stars on its honor flag, commented state officials Mon- day as they cast up the returns. "To the Federal Reserve Board will go forward information that Wheeler, a little town in Tillamook, to which they apportioned the puny sum of $0000, already has sold $90,000 worth	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burroughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 K. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Frank Clark 100.00 G. A. Christensen 50.00 G. C. J. Chaffee 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00 <t< td=""></t<>
Feeney-Bremer Co. The parade in Tiilamook City in the afternoon brought together a large number of people. It was a lit- tile late in getting started, but no one appeared to be impatient. It was some what of an attractive parade. A brass band played patriotic airs as the pro- cession followed it through the basi- ness portion of the city, made up as follows: W. R. C. and G. A. R., mem- bers of the Red Cross, school children and the junior Red Cross, Tillamook Hose company, employees of the A.F. Coats Lumber Co., and a long string of business men and others. The pa- triotic exercises were at the Liberty Temple, where the service flag of the Hose Company was displayed and the names read by Thos. Coates, each of whom came in for applause. Mrs. Fred Poorman sang two vocal solos and the national anthem was lead by the choir, followed with orchestra music. Captain Johnson addressed a meet- ing at Bay City on Saturday after- noon, and State Senator T. B. Hand- ley talked to the boys in the logging camps at Nehalem the same day. The Oregonian stated on Tuesday: "Wheeler, in Tillamook County, was the first community in Oregon, prob- ably in the United States, to carn the proud right to ten stars on its honor flag, commented state officials Mon- day as they cast up the returns. "To the Federal Reserve Board will go forward information that Wheeler, a little town in Tillamook, to which they apportioned the puny sum of	Amby Brown 50.00 Mrs. Mae Brown 50.00 U. S. Brown 50.00 Clara and Gorden Burge 100.00 H. V. Berg 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Berns 50.00 Frank Blaser 50.00 Peter Betchart 50.00 D. Billings 50.00 Leo. Blaser 50.00 Ed Burke 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Burtoughs 50.00 G. S. Brooks 50.00 S. A. Brodhead 50.00 K. V. Bulkeley 50.00 C. J. Chaffee 50.00 Retha Clancy 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 M. T. Chance 50.00 J. R. Church 50.00 Frank Clark 100.00 Harold Craven 50.00 Marold Craven 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00 Mrs. W. S. Coates 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00 Margaret Coates 50.00 John Collins 50.00 Jas Christensen

lwell, Tillamook

a war garden but see that ed is right. Hydrated lime is doctor. Get it at Kuppenbenrehouse.

Kuppenbender about the Grant bile, the snappiest car on ld next spring. Apply to Anetsch, Mutual Phone.

mook ball tossers will cross oth the 447th Areo Squadron Fair Grounds next Sunday, at ise will be at his Tillamook nd Thursdays until further no-

-80 acres irrigated alfalfa miston country. Part leveld, Oregon.

hed and unfurnished rooms apartments, 4th Shaw's mity with the rule formed rooms. all wood orders must be oats Lumber Co.

a Valley ranches can't be lave just what you want ad terms to suit purchasers. al Estate Agency, Clover-that your contractor use Higgenbotham. cement. It is always unias exceptional fast setting ch is preferred. For sale venbender Warehouse. *

will leave on Sunday for

s

ill be given on Saturday, aldi gymnasium, by the Construction Squadron, to go ta the Garibaldi the Red Cross.

2* Creek bridge No. 2.

J. C. Holden, who was assistant cashier at the First National Bank, has resigned his position and gone to Idaho, where he has bought a wheat meeting. ranch. His many friends in Tillamook county wish him success in his new adventure with a bumper crop this year. Mrs. Holden and family will leave in June.

For Sale, Artichokes for seed, E. R. Garner, Hemlock, Mutual Phone Base Ball-Sunday, April 14, at the Fair Grounds, at-2 p.m. Soldiers from the camps on the Miami will cross ondays, Tuesdays, Wednes- bats with Tillamook Athletic Club. A matter of recreation for the boys in khaki. We urge everyone to be present. Admission 25c.

The regular business meeting of the ngs, well, etc. $3600. Owner Red Cross will occur next Tuesday old, 1828 East Everett, St., evening, April 16, at the City Hall at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. C. I. Clough recently furnished the Red Cross with a load of dry stove wood, many thanks. Mr. Albert Byers gave his time dur- comments on this play, "A triumph East of Miller Ave. on 6th ing the holiday last Saturday to dec-Ila Steuninger passed away April 2, d by payment in advance. and will be buried at Cornelius, Ore, Children 10 cents. April 6. She was born Dec. 25 1899, and was married to Arthur Steuninger her husband, Arthur Steuinger, and her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Higgenbotham and sister, the Grey Horse Troop" five recl Vit-Hazel Johnston, and brother T. B.

My client has 40 acre farm just 3 miles from city limits of Portland southeast, right up to date in every detail with everything in stock and Grant Mills and B. L. equipment first class, Income for cream and pork averages about $200 a month, want Tillamook dairy farm in exchange for this fine home place.

from has gone to Spokane If you have something to offer will ness trip, and Mrs. Haltom send you full particulars. Neal Brown in to visit her mother on 207 Panama Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

J. E. Wheeler and family, who are returned from Portland large holders of timber in Tillamook with it. Faul will remain in Port-county, and are owners of The Even-the weeks where she is ing Telegram, of Portland, subscribed ment. Revenge"-William Fox production, $5,000 of Liberty Bonds in the county, featuring Mme. Sonia Markova. An which was greatly appreciated by the people of Tillamook in their endeav- settings. Don't miss it.

or to go over the top the first day, quota the first day of the drive, and of the great war pictures for a short as we in Tillamook feel glad that our time, watch for the next ones.

Friday, April 12-"Anything Once" five reel Bluebird comedy-drama featuring Franklin Farnum-full of slapdash situations. A picture with plenty of life and good clean comedy. Also on this night we will have several musical selections furnished by the Honor Guard Girls, who will receive a benefit from the evening's receipts. Come and enjoy an evening with us and at the same time give the girls a the conspiracy charge they face. This lift on their finances .--- Adults 20c. Children 10c.

Saturday, April 13-"Alias Mrs. Jessop" five reel Metro picture-feat-Picture World makes the following for Emely Stevens' acting-has ably *3 orating the windows at the Red Cross handled plot and shows sense of proportion in direction" Nuff sed.

'Oh Doctor" -two reel Fatty Arbuckle comedy .- Adults 20 cents, Sunday, April 14-"Trouble Buster" five reel Paramount picture featuring January 17, 1916, and is survived by Vivian Martin. A good wholesome picture and one that is sure to please Monday, April 15-"The Captain of agraph production featuring Antonio Moreno and Edith Story. A picture of the great West showing life as it was in the days of the persecution of the Indians, and the great debt which we owe them.

"The Fighting Trail"-Episode No. 13. (The Water Trap)

Tuesday, April 16-"The Amazons" featuring Marguerita Clark. See dis-Wednesday, April 17-"My Wife" five reel Mutual production featuring gist. Ann Murdock, A good comedy to go

"The Retreat of the Germans at the which helped this county treble its Battle of Arras" This will be the last Store.

quor rings brought to light through grand jury indictments of a few weeks, the party marched from ago was delivered Monday, when the ship to the ship yard three San Francisco men, who con- tain S. S. Johnson made a fessed to complicity in workings of patriotic addresses, which the rings, were given six months in ed by the raising of th jail by Federal Judge Wolverton. Two of the men showed they had Stars and Stripes. This b borne excellent reputations and all another great cheer. sought to escape with fines. These facts brought them no special consideration. Howard Edmunds, konwn as "Tillamook Kid," and Walter E. Hardy, alliegance. The gathering said to have been the working heads of the two rings, and Joe Cressens, three cheers for Presid fessed to packing the liquor in trunks for shipment, had sentence de- ping Board, the Superint ferred, though all pleaded guilty to is said to point to interesting developlarge number of people. ments when the trials of more influtle late in getting started, ential of the supposed operators are called. In other words it is believed appeared to be impatient. uring Emily Stevens. The Moving this trio will take the stand for the what of an attractive par government.

The three San Francisco men upon whom sentence was pronounced after they entered pleas of guilty were Gus Temps, Fred Tibbetts and John J. McKenna. Temps is owner of the City Express Company in the Bay City. His part in the ring regime was Coats Lumber Co., and a that of handling and forwarding the liquor-laden trunks upon stolen baggage checks. Astounding Report for Tillamook.

The wife of a merchant had stomach trouble so bad she could eat nothing but toast, fruit and hot water. Everything else would sour or ferment. One spoonful buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka benefited her instantly. Because Adler-ika flushes the entire elementary tract special Paramount Production it relieves any case constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appenplay ad on another page of this issue. dicitis. It has quickest action of anything we ever sold. J. S. Lamar, drug-

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

"I have used Chamberlain's Liniment for pains in the chest and lameness of the shoulders due to rheumaexciting picture, a good story and fine tism, and am pleased to say that it has never failed to give me prompt relief," writes Mrs. S. N. Finch, Batavia, N. Y., For sale by Lamar's Drug $9000, already has sold $ of patriotic pledges. "Tillamook county with four bank ing districts, has heavily oversub-

(Continued on 4th Page.)