"YOU MUST WORK
8 HOURS EVERY DAY FOR BONDS"

Prominent Woman Worker
Says American Women
Must Quit Being
Parasites

Mrs. Frank A. Vanderlip of New York City, treasurer of the National Woman's Liberty Loan Committee, is urging upon the women of America definite and consistent war service. In a recent interview she said: "American women must quit being parasites and learn to give instead of always taking. An hour or two a few days a week is not enough for any woman to give her country. We must give a full business day, an 8-hour day every day of the week if we are to count for anything while the war lasts."

Mrs. Vanderlip outlined the splendid work which has been done by the women of Great Britain and France and congratulated American women on having as their allies in their new work such women.

"If we ever have another war," said Mrs. Vanderlip, "women will be in the trenches. What do the pacifists mean when they want us to stop before our present job is done?"

"There is but one standard for measuring a woman in this new day of war. That is dependability. The woman who can be depended upon is the one we want. The one who cannot be counted upon is the one who will be dropped forever. A professional spirit is the need of American women, who have been parasitic for too long. We must stop taking and give. Eight hours a day is a short day for this great work we have before us. Two or three hours a day to the Red Cross is not enough for any woman to give as her war work."

"We must get as our personal point of view the realization that we cannot have our cake and eat it too. We must ask ourselves, in this war of equipment rather than men, who must go without if we have the things we have been accustomed to. Business and pleasure cannot go on as usual if we are successfully to conduct this tremendous new business of war."

"We have forgotten, when we are buying new clothes and eating the wheat and sweets that we want and riding in our motor cars, that we are hampering the Government. We are standing in the way of the Government's business which is war."

"When you want to spend a dollar for candy or unnecessary clothes (and we buy more clothes than we need because of pride) count that dollar as a traitor dollar. If you save that dollar and invest it with the Government you are serving the Government doubly, for you are aiding in financing the war and you are releasing the labor and materials needed for the necessities which you have demanded formerly."

"We are fighting an enemy that is far from beaten. It has won everything it started out after. Its dream of Mittel Europa is realized now. Only a military victory can save democracy. We must sacrifice ourselves as we have sacrificed our men folk. We must learn to hate that we may effectively kill the evil thing that is ruining not only the bodies but the souls of its people and threatens the rest of the world."

LIBERTY BONDS

1. Are United States Government Bonds.
2. Are supported by every dollar of the enormous resources of the United States.
3. They bear interest at a rate higher than earned by any other class of Government bonds.
4. They do not represent a war gift or donation but the highest type of profit-producing investment.
5. They are in denominations ranging upward from $50 to suit the convenience and the finances of every American who wants to help his country.
6. They are transferable and constitute an ideal security.
7. If you are willing to help your country any bank or trust company will help you by accepting your order and arranging terms of payment without the imposition of any commission or charge for its services.

Sing a song of pennies,
For pennies now rank high;
Five and twenty pennies
A thrift stamp will buy.
Sixteen stamps of thrift
Will buy a little bond
And bonds will give short shift
To Hans and Fritz beyond.

Buy Baby Bunting
A baby bond for hunting
Submarine and Zeppelin
Before they hunt the Babykin.

See saw, Marjorie Law,
Prussia shall have a new master,
His name will be Democracy
Which spells a Junker disaster.

Sing, sing, what shall we sing?
Let every one open his own purse
string.

THE WAR, THE FARM
AND THE FARMER

By Herbert Quick
Member Federal Farm Loan Board

What the Imperial German government offered the farmers of America in its ruthless submarine warfare was not the loss of profits, but slavery to the sabre-rattler of Potsdam. He purposed to make us slaves by murdering the people who took our products to market. By all the laws of civilized warfare, commerce under a neutral flag was free from any hindrance except the legal interference justified by war. But the Germans not only stopped merchant vessels, they sank them. Sank them without warning, without trace—the most devilish thing war has seen since the savages scalped our ancestors and threw screaming babies into the flames of burning cabins.

The German plan of sinking merchant vessels without trace is based on the murderer's maxim that "dead men tell no tales." It was executed by the massacre of men, women and children, who, having committed themselves to small boats in the open sea after their ships were torpedoed, were mercilessly raked with gunfire, and exterminated to the last unprotected, unpitied soul! These are the murders that stain the hands of the Kaiser, his advisers and minions. These outrages were perpetrated on neutral vessels when all that civilized warfare gave the Germans a right to do even with the merchant vessel under a hostile flag, was to stop it at sea and make it a prize of war.

To kill the civilians on board, even under a hostile flag, was nothing but unmitigated murder. And these murders were committed in order that we might be enslaved! Having the right to take the sea with his fleet, but being afraid to do so for fear he might lose it, and being unable by fair means to stop the selling of our products to his enemies, the Kaiser declared that he would do it by the foulest methods ever resorted to in war. He declared the sea closed, and that he would keep it closed, not by war, but by murder.

To have submitted would have cost us dear in prosperity but that would have been the least of our loss.

We should have had to grovel before the German government.

We should have had to accept murder.

In the Wake of the Huns
An Historical Document With Punch

"IN THE WAKE OF THE HUNS," an absolutely authentic and official War picture, is considered the most impressive historical document of the War that has been released to date. "IN THE WAKE OF THE HUNS," which was taken by the Cinematographic Division of the French Army, shows the French fast on the heels of the fleeing Huns, also the actual German trenches at Beauverne; part of the Von Hindenberg line; the famous castle of Coucy and the observatory post from which Prince Eitel Frederick was able to contemplate this havoc and desolation under the dictum of German Kultur. These and many other scenes of a similar character depicted in these three reels awaken one to the grim realization that German Militarism must be stamped out and that America is carrying the fight to a finish to make the world safe for democracy.

Imagine the orchards from New York to Oregon, maliciously cut down for no purpose, save that of satisfying an ignoble spite. Such scenes are shown in "IN THE WAKE OF THE HUNS." There is no cheap sensationalism in this picture. It is a big, dignified, carefully edited picture which should be seen by every American, in order to realize what we are up against when fighting the Hun. There will also be a two Reel Lonesome Lake Comedy. "Popular Price."

These films will be shown at the

Princess Theatre
On April 30th and May 1st

Allied Children.

By Abbie Farwell Brown in Vigilants.
English children over sea,
Boys and girls who talk like me,
Who gave up butter, candy, meat,
And barely take enough to eat,
So that Belgian babies may
Not go hungry every day;
We will save and offer,
And show what Yankee kids can do!
Little boys and girls of France!
Once you liked to sing and dance
Laugh and chatter all the day,
Just as we do at our play.
There are tears now in your eyes!
We will be your true allies,
Even as your fathers are,
Love shall reach you from afar!

Polish boys with flaxen curls;
Darkeyed small Italian girls,
Starved Armenian, Serbian, Greek—
Everywhere in allid lands
Children stretch their little hands,
Hungry, homeless, cold and sad,
Oh, how it will make us glad
To remember we have done
Something kind for everyone

And when Right has conquered Wrong,
We children shall have helped to make
A friendlier world, for kindness' sake!

For Sale and Rent.
