BOB STANFIELD for U.S. Senator.

Bob Stanfield, who is an aspirant for United States Senator, has an advantage over his opponents. He is a business man and not an attorney. It is generally conceded that there are too many attorneys, and not enough business men elected to legislative bodies. Here is an opportunity for Oregon to send a successful business man to the United States Senate, and it should do so, for Bob Stanfield is a big, broad gauged business man who did big things in Eastern Oregon, and just the kind of man the people should vote for. We have no word of disrespect for attorneys, but when state legislatures and the national legislature becomes top heavy with them, it is just as well to elect successful business men. In fact, business is not represented as much as it should be when it comes to making laws.

THE LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE.

Nehalem Valley Bank	$100,400
First National Bank	74,000
Tillamook County Bank	71,500
Nestucca Valley Bank	39,550
First Bank of Bay City	27,750

Owing to about one third of the money subscribed in the Cloverdale district being deposited in the Tillamook banks, that will reduce the total about $14,000, and makes the amount about that much short in Tillamook county going over the top three times. Before the drive closes the committees should do a little extra work so as to be sure of going over the top three times.

The Headlight, Tillamook, Ore.
Gentlemen—I feel I cannot too strongly commend your enterprise for the manner in which you handled the publicity regarding the splendid record made by Tillamook County. The printing of the names of the subscribers and the general support which you gave the drive, to say nothing of the fine patriotic spirit of the people of Tillamook in putting up the first Liberty Temple, outside of Portland in the State, is highly gratifying to all. Tillamook was the first to report to us the erection of a Liberty Temple.
But this and other records made by the people of your section State Headquarters always will be moved to look first for prompt and encouraging support in all patriotic measures at all times.

Yours truly,
R. E. Smith, State Mgr.

June Caprice in New Photoplay.

Admirers of June Caprice will soon see that smiling William Fox star in a new, pretty and stirring photoplay. It is called "The Heart of Romance," and will be shown at the Gem Theatre next Thursday, May 2.
Miss Caprice begins this photoplay in an unusual way—that is, unusual for Miss Caprice. She wears real stylish clothes. In all the previous pictures she has appeared in Miss Caprice began in rags and ends in riches, but in "The Heart of Romance" she is rich from beginning to end.

The story is that of a young writer who is in love with Eloise Jackson (June Caprice). He is poor and Eloise's guardian fears that he is fonder of her money than of her. To test the young man, the guardian devises several tests.

These are exciting in the extreme. Eloise is really in love with the writer but she obeys the commands of her guardian to prove the youth really cares for her. At one point she joins the chorus of a Broadway show to make her sweetheart believe she has lost her fortune.

The youth is strong of heart and never stops battling his way into Eloise's good grace.

Earl Williams in "Arsene Lupin"

The title role of "Arsene Lupin," the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature which was directed by Paul Scardon and which is the headliner at the Gem theatre, Monday, April 20, offers Earl Williams a role much to his liking.
Perhaps never before in his successful stage and screen career has Mr. Williams created a part that was more natural—more living and true to life. He has made the notorious gentleman crook a characterization that will live always in the minds of his audience.

Just enough daring has been sprinkled into the polish and veneer of his society manner to suggest his true character. Then too, the ego with which all masters are credited is most cleverly portrayed. His intense desire to expose himself just so that he may again escape capture through some daring scheme is always evident but never tiring.

Prominent Progressives of Oregon Endorse Candidacy of RALPH E. WILLIAMS for Republican National Committeeman.

Portland, Oregon, April 23, 1918

To the Republican Voters of Oregon:

We, the undersigned, all formerly Progressive and now registered Republicans, wish to add our endorsement to the candidacy of Ralph E. Williams, of Portland, for re-election on May 17 to the position of Republican National Committeeman. We endorse his candidacy for the following definite reasons:

In the first place, if Mr. Williams had not invited and encouraged the Progressives to join with the Republicans of this State in 1916, there would have been no active cooperation between the two forces and Oregon would undoubtedly have been lost to the Republican cause. Mr. Williams advocated the adoption by the Republican National Committee of a similar program of amalgamation and co-operative action in the other States. If his suggestions concerning California and Washington had been followed, those two states would have been found in the Republican column after the national election.

Mr. Williams' attitude of friendliness toward Colonel Roosevelt is generally known to Republican leaders throughout this Country and State. The same spirit of unity which Mr. Williams was so largely instrumental in effecting in Oregon in 1916, he also strove successfully to bring about at the recent meeting of the Republican National Committee at St. Louis.

The new Chairman of the Republican National Committee, Will H. Hays, who was elected at the St. Louis meeting, has joined with George W. Perkins, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the former Progressive party, in commending Mr. Williams' efforts to achieve harmony at St. Louis. On the occasion of his recent visit to Portland, Mr. Hays called attention to the splendid spirit of harmony which now prevails among all elements of the Republican party in Oregon and earnestly urged that it be maintained.

Mr. Williams' record as an earnest supporter of the Government in the energetic conduct of the war, is widely known, owing to the aid he has given all war activities.

We believe in all fairness that Mr. Williams' services as outlined above, entitle him to re-election. We also believe that you are entitled to know where we stand with regard to his candidacy and for that reason, we have addressed this statement to you.

HENRY WALDO COE, Progressive National Committeeman for Oregon,

THOMAS B. NEUHAUSEN, Ex-chairman of State Progressive Party,

GEO. ARTHUR BROWN, Ex-chairman of Executive Committee Progressive Party.

STANFIELD MACDONALD, Pres. of Assn. of Fathers of Oregon Soldiers and Sailors.

D. L. POVEY, A. I. MOULTON, F. H. LEWIS, Progressive members of Hughes Campaign Committee.

CHARLES W. ACKERMAN, LON L. PARKER, MISS MARY E. HILL, OLIVER M. HICKEY, GEO. B. ANDREES, MRS. MAUDE M. POVY, C. P. BODLEY, MISS VIVIAN FLENNER, MRS. ANNA E. GREVILLI, MRS. MAUDE L. NEUHAUSEN, MRS. GEO. I. THOMPSON.

RECORD OF THE PAST.

No Stronger Evidence Can Be Had.

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee of future results. Anyone with a bad back; any reader suffering from urinary troubles, from kidney ills, should find comforting words in the following statement.

S. T. Bowser, veterinary surgeon, Sixty & Railroad Sts., Hillsboro, Ore. says: "I suffered for a long time with weak kidneys, due, I think, to consistent riding and changing of drinking water. I tried many different kidney medicines but received most relief from Doan's Kidney Pills. I have recommended them personally to others who have also used them with good results." Statement given March 25, 1913.

On April 25, 1916, Mr. Bowser added: "I can always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I know they have no equal for lumbago and other kidney disorders. Doan's are surely reliable."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bowser had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs. Buffalo, N. Y.

"The Desires of the Moth."

Rupert Julian, producer and actor of one of the principal roles; Ruth Clifford, the star, and Monroe Salisbury, leading man, will constitute a trinity of cleverness that is sure to bring delight to devotees of the screen at the Gem Theatre, Friday, April 26 when "The Desire of the Moth" will be presented in Bluebird photoplays. This is the first of a series of productions that will be frequently made by Bluebird forces to be announced as "Rupert Julian Bluebirds" for the purpose of giving them a special mark of distinction among a group of screen dramas that represent, collectively, the best elements in the art of photoplaying.
