 The Red Cross is wanting a large amount of moss, which is to be used for bandages, as it is found a better absorbent than cotton. There is a large amount of moss to be obtained in this county and it is hoped that the different auxiliaries will get busy at once and gather as much as possible, for it is urgently needed.
 Dr. Henry H. Riggs, president of Euphrates College at Hartport, Turkey, will speak at the City Hall on Friday evening, May 3rd, when he will explain the Armenian situation. He is a good speaker, and what he has to say about the Armenians will be highly interesting, for too little is Neal Brown 207 Panama Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

 Tillamook County's quota in the next Red Cross drive will be somewhere about $5,000.00. That's easy. There are more than one thousand patriotic men in Tillamook county who are just anxious to put up $5 each to help Red Cross work. Yes, and come up smiling with their five dollar bills. That's the way to raise the $5,000.00, and let's do it boys, that way.
 Victor E. Olson, of Rockaway, and Miss Cora B. Larsen, of Tillamook, were married Wednesday, May 1st, at the Christian parsonage, Rev. Harry E. Tucker officiating, using the ring ceremony. The groom is employed at the spruce camp and the bride has just closed a successful term of school at Rockaway. They will make their home for the present at Rockaway.
 The Executive Board of the Tillamook branch of the Red Cross held a meeting on Monday in the Liberty Temple to take up the matter of the next drive, which is scheduled to commence the 22nd of this month. Tillamook's quota will be somewhere near $5,000. Mrs. C. J. Edwards, president of the local Red Cross, left Tuesday to attend a meeting in Portland of the Red Cross workers of the different parts of the state, where plans were to be made to push the drive through to a success.
 The Blaine Creamery Company, a corporation, vs. Earl R. Ayer and wife is a suit filed in the circuit court. The complaint alleges that on the 26th of February, 1918, the plaintiff was the owner and entitled to the immediate possession of a certain building, a dwelling house, of the value of $250,000, which plaintiff had theretofore erected and constructed for his own use, and that the defendants unlawfully took and carried away the same and converted it to their own use, for which the plaintiff claims $250,000 damages.
Notice to Hoarders Wheat Flour.
 An opportunity is now given to all hoarders of wheat flour to turn the same over to the Food Administration, thereby releasing an equal quantity at some seaboard point for immediate shipment to our allies in Europe where it is badly needed.
 Under the regulations of the Food Administration no person should have in his possession more than one sack of Wheat Flour and no patriotic person will desire to have more.
 Any person who has more than the amount permitted may bring the same to me and will be paid cash for the same, upon delivering it at a warehouse designated by me.
 All patriotic persons are requested to send me the names of any persons whom they know or have reasons to believe have in their possession wheat flour in excess of the quantity permitted.
 After a reasonable time has elapsed for all hoarders to bring in their flour I will report the names of those who fail to take advantage of this offer to the Department of Justice for prosecution under the Hoarding Act. There upon the flour may be condemned for the use of the United States and the hoarder may be imprisoned for two years, or fined five thousand dollars, or both.
 No one but pro-Germans will hoard flour at this time when it is so badly needed by our allies.
 Robert H. McGrath, County Food Administrator for Tillamook County.

Moss for Red Cross Dressing.
 Prof. Albert R. Sweetser, of the Department of Botany of U. of O. and supervisor of Spagnum dressing in this state for the National Red Cross, was in the Tillamook region Sunday and Monday looking out for a supply of the moss. A considerable quantity and of the finest quality was found at Rockaway, Sandlake, Hemlock and on the edge of Tillamook.
 Through the kindness of Agriculturist R. C. Jones, Prof. Sweetser was enabled to visit these places and make arrangements for gathering of the moss by the school children and members of the Red Cross of the various communities.
 The details will be under the direction of Mrs. C. J. Edwards and other officers of the County Red Cross, and it will be shipped to some of the larger auxiliaries where it will be made into absorbent pads of which the Red Cross is asking a half a million from Washington and Oregon.
 Prof. Hotson, of the U. of W., director of Spagnum dressings in the Northwest, came to Oregon a short time since to confer with Prof. Sweetser as to the supply obtainable from this state. While it has been found to occur plentifully in the bogs along all the coast, yet it can be most readily collected and shipped out from Florence, Newport, Tillamook and Astoria, so that these regions have an especial opportunity for most important patriotic service.
 This moss will replace cotton and oakum, both of which were needed for other purposes. The moss, moreover, is superior to either of these in that it has twenty times the absorbent power of cotton and can be obtained for the gathering and shipping.
 It undoubtedly is to be found in other localities in the county and Mrs. Edwards would be glad to learn of its occurrence in any place which are readily accessible. Any who are interested may see specimens of the moss at the office of the Coast Power Co. Samples should be submitted to Mrs. Edwards who will forward them to Prof. Sweetser for verification. When all the plans are completed, full directions will be sent for gathering and cleaning and shipping the moss. No moss should be gathered until such directions are received for it may not be feasible or economical to collect it in all the locations where it occurs.
 Prof. Sweetser was much pleased with the excellent character of the moss and also with the ready and hearty response of all the people.

Star Program for the Week.
 Friday, May 3—"The Lamb", five reel production featuring Douglas Fairbanks.
 Saturday, May 4—"Daybreak"—five reel Metro Production, featuring Emily Stevens.
 "Fatty in Coney Island"—2 reel comedy featuring Fatty Arbuckle. Adults 20c. ... Children 10c.
 Sunday, May 5—"The Antics of Ann"—5 reel Paramount Comedy-drama featuring Ann Pennington.
 Monday, May 6—"Aladdin from Broadway"—5 reel Vitagraph production featuring Edith Storey, Antonio Moreno, and William Duncan.
 "Cops and Cussedness"—one reel comedy featuring Hughie Mack, James Aubrey and Patsy De Forest.
 Tuesday, May 7—"Draft 258"—Metro Super De Lux production, featuring Mabel Taliaferro. This is not a war picture, there are no battle scenes, but it does deal with the question as to whether the world shall be ruled by "Autocracy" or "Democracy." A more appealing picture than "The Slacker."
 Wednesday, May 8—"Reputation"—5 reel Mutual Production featuring Edna Goodrich. From the story by John B. Clymer. "His Cannibal Wife"—1 reel comedy.
 Thursday, May 9—"Jack Spurlock Prodigal"—William Fox production featuring George Walsh. "Social Pirates"—2 reel Fox comedy. Don't miss it.
Dr. Kerr to Speak in Tillamook.
 "Suppose France should collapse as a result of lack of food, due to the unwillingness or neglect of America to make the necessary sacrifice to supply her soldiers and citizens, what would become of the rapidly growing American Army at the French front?"
 This is one of the disquieting possibilities of the food shortage mentioned by Dr. W. J. Kerr, President of the Oregon Agricultural College, in his series of talks on food and the war, which he is giving in Oregon as a representative of the United States Government.
 Dr. Kerr will speak in Tillamook County under the auspices of the County Council of Defense and the County Agricultural Council. Program have been arranged at the following points.
 Claverdale Theatre, Saturday, 7:45 p.m. May 6, 1918.
 Bay City M. E. Church, Sunday, 8 p.m., May 7, 1918.
 Tillamook, Christian Church Sunday, 1:30 p.m., May 8, 1918.
 Wheeler Theatre, Sunday, 11:00 a.m. May 7, 1918.
 How America, and especially Oregon, can best respond to the demands for increased food production, insuring the food supplies essential to the successful prosecution of the war, will be dealt with in the most practical way by Dr. Kerr who has just returned from Washington, where he went over the entire question of increased food production and conservation with the officials of the department of Agriculture and the Federal Food Administration.
 The wheat shortage in the Allied countries is 624 million bushels. Their only source of supply is the United States, which has a normal consumption of approximately the amount produced. French rations have been cut down one half. The effect of the shortage is disclosed in a statement from the French commissioner, Andrew Tardieu:

 "France has reached the limit of sacrifice and suffering behind the lines. Unless America, by similar sacrifices comes to her immediate aid, when she does arrive with her full military strength she may find the conditions upon which victory depends entirely changed. Unless every farmer, shop-keeper, hotel manager, every citizen, cooperate with the food administration in sacrificing profits, England, Italy, as well as France, will face a state of depletion that will undermine the morals of the people."
 Dr. Kerr is directly representing the government and is delivering the message of the nation to its loyal citizens. All who have the welfare of their country at heart are asked to come to the meetings and help create a sentiment of saving for victory in this war wherein the liberty of mankind is at stake.

The K. of P. Have Big Time.
 Last Saturday evening was a big night in the history of the Knights of Pythias lodge of this city, the occasion being an official visit by Leslie E. Crouch, of Portland, Grand Chancellor of the Domain of Oregon. Other prominent Knights to visit Tillamook on this occasion were: W. J. H. Clark, G. C. Moser, Harry Hunter and W. S. Barnes, all of Portland and Rev. R. C. Lee, of Sumpter, Or.
 There was work in the Third Rank, after which the Grand Chancellor addressed the lodge in his official capacity. His address was indeed a splendid effort. It was a powerful appeal for the very highest ideals in our every day life. It was also an appeal for true patriotism and self sacrifice for our country's sake during this terrible war. All those who heard the Grand Chancellor, felt that they had been greatly inspired and benefitted by his address.
 The other speakers of the evening were Gus Moser, who gave a splendid patriotic address; W. J. H. Clark, who gave a nice talk and also some good recitations from Kipling's work, and W. S. Barnes, who touched on the coming Knights of Korasan initiation ceremonies which will be held here in June. Rev. R. C. Lee of Sumpter gave an interesting talk and seemed to be the funny man of the bunch. He ended his talk by making a plea for funds to help rebuild the K. P. Lodge Hall which was totally destroyed when Sumpter was totally destroyed by fire some time ago. He received $63.50 in less than five minutes.
 The last speaker on the program was Tom Handley who gave a fine talk on behalf of the Tillamook lodge, reviewing the history of the lodge and giving other interesting information.
 One of the pleasant events of the evening was the conferring of veteran jewels upon A. H. Gaylord and Cap. Richardson, these Knights having been members of the order for the past 25 years and more. The Jewels were conferred by the Grand Chancellor, with appropriate remarks.
 At the close of the program a light luncheon was served.
 About the first of June a large class of Tillamook County Knights will be initiated into the mysteries of the Knights of Korasan, at this place. The degree team will come from Portland in a special car accompanied by possibly 150 more Portland Knights.
 Others from outside of town who attended the meeting here on Saturday evening were: Jas. Christensen, Fred Robitsch, Ben Turner, Emil and Chas. Woolley, of Hemlock and H. F. Effenberger, of Nehalem. The insurance department of the Knights of Pythias took a half million dollars worth of Liberty Bonds during the present drive.
 Nearly 200 Sir Knights were in attendance at the meeting Saturday evening.

See "Aladdin from Broadway."
 Antonio Moreno, Vitagraph's virile star, finds a role particularly adopted to his type in the Blue Ribbon Feature starring him with Edith Storey and William Duncan, in "Aladdin From Broadway," which will be shown at the Gem Theatre next Monday, May 6.
 Mr. Moreno is ideally cast as an American who journeys to Mecca on a bet that he will be able to get a book which is concealed in the crumbling city's walls and return to New York without the aid of a white man.
 Of course, it becomes necessary for him to disguise himself as a native and, owing to his Spanish blood, he finds no difficulty in becoming an Oriental type.
 Instinctively he betrays his nationality in a number of instances and is forced to flee to another part of the country. Soon he is without friends or funds and rather than lose his bet by wiring home for funds or securing aid from one of the tourists now in the city, he becomes a beggar and sits in the street, asking alms from the wealthy native merchants passing by.

But finally his luck changes and he is forced into a marriage with the beautiful girl—a girl whom he has loved from a distance. Dressed in fine silks and satins he appears quite differently from the beggar and, at the same time, his actions assume a different tone now that he has a few gems within his grasp.
 Although the title role in this charming story calls for many daring feats, Mr. Moreno did not once refuse to play his part exactly as it was written and in two instances he entered into a feat with the director was willing to cut from the story.

 The pupils of Rockaway school, under the direction of Miss Eleanor Spall, gave an entertainment on Friday evening, April 26, for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross of the school, the proceeds of which amounted to $25.00. Recitations, duets and addresses were given and the latest songs of the day were sung by the pupils and audience.
 Dainty refreshments in strict accordance with Hoover's rules were served, the surplus cakes being auctioned off. One cake which was purchased by members of the Loyal Legion of Loggers brought $10.
 Great enthusiasm has been aroused by the activities of the Junior Red Cross Society, which is one of the first to be organized in Tillamook County, and which is actually engaged in making hospital supplies, scrap books, gun wipes, etc. for our boys in France. A War Savings Society has also been organized in the school and every member is doing his share to win the war.
Jack Spurlock, Prodigal, at Gem.
 What would you do, if after a night at the cabarets you discovered a big bear in your bathroom and it dawned upon you that you bought the animal for a "pet". This may happen to you—this is the age of surprise—so you are advised to see "Jack Spurlock-Prodigal" at the Gem Theatre, Thursday, May 9, where George Walsh the William Fox star, as young Spurlock, solves the problem of disposing of the 400-pound Alaska bear. Mr. Bear makes it interesting for the Harvard Faculty and his young owner before he is gotten rid of.
 "Jack Spurlock-Prodigal" was written by George Horace Lorimer, editor of Saturday Post, published in the Saturday Evening Post in serial form and later in book form. The story made a hit and the book attained the distinction of being the "best seller" on the market.
 "Jack Spurlock-Prodigal" is the story of a young Harvard student's experience after he had been dropped from Harvard because of his escapade with the bear. He was a self-reliant chap and when his millionaire father placed him in charge of his business he sought to make a good stroke by buying a few hundred carloads of onions not knowing that his daddy had already bought 500 cars. It worked out all right, but before the film story is unfolded young Spurlock has many funny and thrilling experiences.
80 Acre Alfalfa and Garden Ranch.
 Has about 60 acres now in alfalfa. The soil is Willow Creek bottom, which is 15 to 30 feet deep, and a very rich and loamy volcanic ash.
 The place will produce from 6 to 8 tons of alfalfa, 150 to 200 sacks of potatoes per acre, and other vegetables or fruit. The climate is ideal, being only 460 ft. elevation. A good free water right goes with the place, which furnishes water for irrigation the year round and a fair dwelling house. Has a railroad station on the land and is near a store, high school and church.
 Price $8500, part terms.
 If this place is properly farmed it will pay for itself in 4 or 5 years.
