 Albert Byers, of this city. Mr. Jump saw active service on the Lens and after a severe attack of trench fever was invalided home to his regiment's base at Vancouver, B. C. He relates many exciting and humorous incidents that occurred while he was in the trenches and he has nothing but the highest of praise for the work the Red Cross is doing "over there." Mr.

 Jump returns to the hospital in Vancouver, B. C., tomorrow, but expressed the desire to return to this part the lease was signed, Merrill Smith will have the management of the outside business in obtaining fruit and is meeting with good success, for practically all the loganberries in the Beaver district have been contracted for.

 It is more than probable that the evergreen blackberries will be earlier this year, and this will give a longer time in which to pick them. There is good money in picking the evergreen blackberries, and no doubt, a larger number of persons will be engaged in it this year, especially school children for it will mean considerable money to them by getting out and picking the berries.

Evangelist is a Live Wire.
 Surely everyone will agree that no mistake was made when Bruce Evans the evangelist was advertised as a "preacher with a punch." He is often called "The apostle of Pop." Bruce Evans never knocks. He is a booster. He says a knocker never wins and a winner never knocks. He believes a church man ought to smile and be the happiest man in town.
 God doesn't expect a christian to look like the tail end of a hearse according to Bruce. Evans allows no personal work in the audience. He does not boost for any one church. He is a union evangelist and gives every man the privilege of joining the church of his choice. This is the 141st revival Bruce has conducted. He has held revival meetings in every large city in Oregon from the White Temple in Portland to the large Tabernacle in Ashland. Evans says the only way to live a Christian life is to do as the women do at a bargain sale—hold your ground and push hard. He speaks every night.

Food Violators in Bad Fix.
Rudolph Zweifel, Fred Kebbe, Sr., and Fred Kebbe, Jr., Bound Over to Federal Grand Jury.
 Fred Kebbe, Sr. and Fred Kebbe, Jr. who were arrested at Mohler last Saturday finding the quantity of hoarded flour in their houses last Wednesday by a secret service officer from Portland were held under $5000 bail each for the United States Grand Jury which is now in session in Portland.
 United States Attorney Rankin states that he intends to break up the practice of hoarding in Oregon. After hearing the circumstances of the purchase of the flour by Kebbes he said that in his opinion the dealers who made such sales were as guilty as the purchasers and ordered the arrest of Rudolph Zweifel, of Mohler, who made the sale of the flour in question.
 Zweifel is also held in $5000 bail for the United States Grand Jury.
 Other cases of alleged hoarding have come to the notice of the Food Administration and have been reported to the secret service officers and it is expected that other arrests will follow shortly. No arrests will be made, the Food Administration Officials say, if flour is brought in voluntarily, but when an arrest is made the matter passes out of their hands into the United States District Attorney of Portland.
 On Wednesday of last week, Local Food Administrator McGrath in company with a secret service man from the treasury department, made some investigations at Mohler and vicinity.
 Armed with search warrants they searched the houses of Fred Kebbe Sr., and Fred Kebbe, Jr., (both registered alien enemies) for hoarded wheat flour which they had good reasons to suspect as being at their places.
 When Mr. McGrath and the secret service man went to the Kebbe homes the owners declared that they had no surplus supply of wheat flour and had hoarded none whatever, and a search of the premises revealed nothing.
 However, after going back to Mohler and in investigating the books of Rudolph Zweifel, a local dealer, it was discovered that Mr. Zweifel, contrary to law had sold both the Kebbes several barrels of wheat flour the past six months. With this information the investigators went back to the Kebbe homes and made a more thorough search, with the result that seven sacks of flour were found on the second floor of the home of Fred Kebbe, Jr., six secreted under the floor and one in the corner of the room. Two guns were also found here and taken.
 After the find at the Kebbe Jr., home the officials went to the father's home and there found twelve sacks of flour secreted in a very cunning way beneath the floor of the second story.
 Four guns were found at this place.
 No significance can be attached to the finding of the guns, as they were not of much importance, except that the Kebbes are alien enemies and should have turned their guns over to the sheriff long ago.
 The officials seized the flour and took it to Mohler for shipment.
 The officials heard that Rudolph Zweifel had been selling wheat for chicken feed which is contrary to law.
 This Mr. Zweifel denied, so the official claim. However, upon investigation 26 sacks of whole wheat were found in the Zweifel store room.
 It is reported that the Kebbes will be interned.

Call for Food that is Hoarded.
 There is a great need of wheat flour to send to France. The situation has become so critical that it has become necessary to discontinue the sale of flour until the next harvest and to ask all persons who have any flour to return it to their nearest dealer who will pay for it, resack it and hold it for the Government for shipment to France. It is expected that about three shiploads will be gathered from all the counties of Oregon and shipped from Portland in Oregon built ships direct to France by way of the Panama Canal.
 The return of the flour in less than sack lots is entirely optional, but all patriotic persons are urged to bring their flour in. Small lots will be accepted and paid for. Our boys in France need it. They have given and are giving a very great deal for the country. You are asked to go without wheat for a very little while in order that they may have it. Will you not give them your share for that little while?
 The flour so returned must be in the hands of the dealer by June 20th, ready for shipment to Portland.
 Bring it in.
 No person is permitted to have more than one sack of flour in his possession. All flour brought in in sack lots will be paid for if it is brought in voluntarily and at once.
 Any person found in the possession of more than one sack of flour will be prosecuted under the Hoarding Act and the flour will be condemned for the use of the United States.
 Robert H. McGrath,
 County Food Administrator.

 "This department is too patriotic to use these pencils," wrote inspector C.
 O. Myers to W. D. Fulton, Ohio's Secretary of State, on receiving a consignment of pencils marked "Made in Germany." It was a fine joke on the Democratic officials of Ohio, whose party stands for Free trade. They are "too patriotic to use pencils "made in Germany," but in 1913 their party was so unpatriotic as to make a bid for German competition in lead pencils, against those "made in America," by reducing the tariff duty to a ridiculous rate, thereby enabling Germany to stock our market so full that our importers are carrying those stocks four years later.
