STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(California)

The "T"-Head type engine, illustrated here, like all external combustion engines requires a light oil that holds its lubricating qualities at cylinder heat, burns clean in the cylinders and goes out with exhaust. Zerolene fills these requirements perfectly, because it is correctly refined from selected California asphalt-base crude.

Just a Little Smile

UNIQUE OLD TIMES ARE ALMOST HUMAN

Town Meetings Not Just as They Used to Be.

Possibly It Is an Improvement, but Reminiscent Citizen Seemed to Speak With a Certain Tingue of Regret.

"How did town meeting go this year?" inquired Capt. Dudley Patterhall, just home from a voyage and coming to headquarters for information of what had happened of interest while he had been away.

"W-a-a-a-l, Cap'n," began Grindle the storekeeper, "th' annual meeting of the legal voters of this town, to meet an' act upon certain articles to-wit, namely, ain't nothin' what it used to be. Times is changed wonderfully, specially since the war broke out."

"Town meetin' nowadays is gettin' to be as decorous as th' Bible class which meets in th' small vestry directly after preachin' services, to which all adults are invited."

"They ain't no windsors broke, nor no stove tipped over, nor the mod'rator don't have to suspend consideration of article 21 while he goes down on th' floor an' impresses some citizen as to proper parl'mentary procedure by hangin' him over th' head with a caulin' mallet, used in many peaceful moments as a gavel."

"Yes, I see it done," put in Captain Patterhall with a chuckle. "It used to take an able man to do the mod'ratin'."

"They was times," continued Grindle, "when a woman couldn't go by on 'tother side of the street from the town hall without stickin' both fingers in her ears, but this year there was a row of 'em huin' th' gallery an' all lissenin', an' lookin' on an' knittin'. We've got a woman on the school board—think o' that!"

"Th' battle of Umptiddiddly wan't nothin' to some of th' v'lent collisions between the Boshkelovis from the upper end o' th' valley an' the clambers from down on th' cape—but they ain't nothin' like that now. Th' hatchet is buried in a carefully marked spot."

"An' what do you think, cap'n, they opened up th' meetin' with prayer, an' a slick prayer it was, at that. Elder Bates o' the Baptists' church, he prayed fer 'Pirut' Pollard, th' mod'rator—that he might preside over th' deliberations with wisdom an' judgment. It ain't on record that ol' Pollard was ever prayed for before—not that way. Th' elder prayed for 'most everybody an' everything an' then for who or what he might have left out."

"Well, wasn't it a better town meeting than the old-fashioned kind?" inquired Cap'n Patterhall.

"W-a-a-a-l, I s'pose it was, in speakin' o' results an' good bizness proceedin's; but there seemed t' be somethin' lackin'—this war has upset many old an' time-honored institutions, somehow."—Boston Globe.

MORE COMING.

"The fools are not all dead."
"That isn't the worst of it; they aren't all born yet."

Christening the Baby.
Brown has a lovely baby girl.
The stork left her with a flutter;
Brown named her "Oleomargarine."
For he hadn't any but her.

He Knew.
The Foreigner—You-aw-don't recognize titles of nobility in this country?

The Rich American—Oh! yes, we do.
The women folks can quote their market value offhand and call 'em by their first names.

Quite Modern.
"I got tired of his electrocuting around."

"What do you mean by that?"
"It is more up-to-date than to say that he is hanging around."

Cruel World.
Dubber—How did he lose his hearing?

Gubber—Somebody made the remark that money talks and he tried to hear it even whisper.

From Experience.
"Why do you say Harold is of an ungenerous nature?"
"Because he is the only man I was ever engaged to who insisted on getting back his ring."

No Greek for Him.
"Do you admire the classics?"
"No," answered Uncle Lowbrow.
"When it comes to dancin' givane an old-fashioned clog."

Continuous.
"They used to stop a battle for breakfast."

"Now they don't even halt for the Saturday night bath."

Greased.
"The trouble with you is that you don't seize your opportunities."

"Oh, I grab at 'em fast enough, but darn 'em, they're greased."

Cautious Galveston.

Many persons remember the destruction of Galveston by a West Indian hurricane which blew so hard it forced the sea up into the streets of the city and thousands of lives were lost.

As a protection against a similar disaster, the city built a great sea wall.

This year it has begun nearly two miles more of sea wall which will take nearly two years to complete and which will cost $2,000,000.

After the great storm of 1900, the citizens raised the site of the city 17½ feet by pumping millions of tons of sand from the gulf.

Galveston has taxed itself for all these colossal improvements.—Exchange.

The Queer Sex.

"Wife, I'm afraid I can't afford new clothes for you this spring."

"Well, then, Dick, we must move. I don't mind wearing my old clothes in a new neighborhood, but I won't stay here and wear them."—Boston Evening Transcript.
