THE MOSS PICKING DRIVE

Red Cross Hustlers Gather Large Amount of Moss at Sandlake on Sunday.

The moss picking committee arranged a moss picking stunt last Sunday, and over 40 persons drove to Sandlake in autos where they picked and sacked over 400 sacks of sphagnum moss. Some of the sacks were "double deckers," having twice the capacity of other sacks. Quite a few of the party had deprived themselves of attending religious services that day and the true Christian spirit prevailed. It was, however, no picnic but a day given up to perform a duty they owed the government and the American Red Cross. Religious differences cut no figure whatever, for the Tillamookers who went to Sandlake on Sunday, worked together in Christian unison and for a common purpose. Episcopalians, Catholics, Christians and Methodists all gathered around the same table and partook of the midday meal, in the most friendly manner, free from religious bias. It was as it should be, for it was the efforts of Christian persons to become a more potent factor in relieving the sufferings of wounded soldiers. There is no doubt but what a large amount of moss gathered in Tillamook County will be used in absorbent pads sent to the Western front, and although they will be freely used on ugly wounds inflicted on suffering soldiers, it is bringing us in touch with the horrors of war.

The party consisted of Mrs. C. J. Edwards, president of the Tillamook Branch, and Mr. Edwards; Mrs. S. S. Johnson and Fred C. Baker of the moss gathering committee; and Mrs. John Groat and Mrs. M. E. Gruber, of the shipping committee; Attorney S. S. Johnson, C. I. Clough, Geo. W. Kiger, John Zumstein, A. W. Bunn, Stanley Coates and wife, Thos. Coates, Henry Crenshaw and wife and sons, John Berns, Frank Berns, Edwin Boquist, Assessor C. A. Johnson, County School Superintendent G. B. Lamb, and wife, L. V. Eberhardt, W. M. Heaston, Otis Frisby, C. M. Vidito, Albert Plank, W. J. Reichers and wife, C. M. Condit and wife, Mat Terry and wife, Glen Terry and wife, Woods Terry and wife, Arnold Greenwald, Fred Rohrbach, Kasper Zweifel, A. H. Gaylord and Misses Beatrice, Ethel and Nellie Gaylord, and A. H. Harris and wife and family.

It was past eleven o'clock before all the moss pickers reached Sandlake, Henry Crenshaw bringing up the rear with a truck load of empty sacks. Everybody went to work with a will for over one hour, and when time was called for lunch, Henry Crenshaw had his auto truck loaded with about 90 sacks of moss and another 60 were ready to be hauled out. There was nothing Hooverish about the mid day repast for there was an abundance of appetizing food which all did justice to.

Sandlake has a peculiar charm for ex-Sheriff Crenshaw, for it was in that isolated district he spent his courtship days, the happiest moments of his life wooing the belle of Sandlake near the spot where the moss pickers picniced on Sunday. He had to travel over corduroy roads, through mud, around mountains and over their top to court his best girl. That was several years ago, but the fascination for Sandlake is the same, and that no doubt, is the reason why Henry is always willing to go to Sandlake when asked to do so by the Red Cross. He made a record time in delivering moss on Sunday. After loading his own sack with all the good things, he "beat it" with the load of moss delivering it at the depot before the moss pickers were through picking and sacking moss.

C. I. Clough was stripped for work, and is now in a position to give good advice as to what is the best anti-fat tonic, for he carried off the honors of doing the most prespiring, with Old Sol glared down on him, so as to warm him up to his work a little more, but he wanted to see some of the other heavy weights amongst the business men turned into pack horses. Charley, however, was not in it with John Zumstein who was the young Sampson of the party, whose hirculean efforts packing out moss was not only a surprise, but a wonderful help.

G. W. Kiger and L. V. Eberhardt were dressed up in suitable duds and pitched in with a good deal of vim.

W. J. Reichers had his first introduction to moss banks and the combination as to how they should be picked.

County Surveyor Coates did not need his life preserver on this occasion, for the editor took more precautions and did not have to be pulled out.

Attorney Johnson is another legal light to get into the moss band wagon, and if Bros. Botts and Goyne can beat him picking and packing sacks filled with moss the legal profession is doing its bit. But Attorney Henderson has decided next Sunday to pitch in, just to show that attorneys are capable of doing a strenuous day's work.

Address to Class 1 Selective Service Men.

You have been selected, by the Congress of the Nation and by the board of your own community, to fill the ranks of our National Army. Your appointed task is to defend our country from the force and fraud of a ruthless enemy. Begin now.

Your call to arms is coming, in due season. But in the meantime your very selection by the board of your community marks you as possessing already a privilege and a duty. You are not only to bear arms when the time comes. You are to prepare to be worthy and capable. Begin now!

The more you think now about the things which a true soldier must know, the more competent and satisfied you will be when the actual call arrives. What do you know of a soldier's daily duties? What do you know of an army's organization? What do you know of the work and the science of its several branches—Infantry, Cavalry, Artillery, Signal, Quartermaster, Ordnance, and the rest? What do you know of the weapons, the tools, and the materials that each of them uses? What do you know of the geography of the great battle field of Europe? What do you know of the nations arrayed for and against us? How intelligent are you as to the causes and objects of this war? Do you realize that as a good soldier you have much to learn, and the sooner you learn it the better a soldier you will be when you arrive in camp? Begin now!

Do you know the men of this town and county that are to join the ranks with you? Have you reflected that the greatest friendship that one man ever has for another in this world is the friendship that grows up between those who have fought side by side? Have you realized that all of you, here in this county now form a picked band of brothers in arms, destined to see each other through, in many a crisis, in the days to come? Have you made a start of these friendships yet? Begin now!

Have you ever thought that our enemy is attacking us, not only in Europe, but at home? Have you realized that his special trickery consists in seeking to make men disloyal here in our own community? Have you tried to discover and suppress the enemy's work here in the peaceful region of our own homes? Since your appointed task is to act as the defenders of our country, why wait until you are called to camp? Your time for that has come already. Begin now!

From now on, regard yourself as a selected fraternity of active patriots. Strengthen those who are weak. Encourage those who are timid. Inspire the indifferent. Inform the ignorant. Search out the slackers. Begin now to make every one of you into a good soldier, a capable defender of our country, in spirit, in knowledge, and in physical fitness.

There never was a war to which men could give themselves with greater confidence and devotion. There never was a war in which a man had less excuse for holding back. There never was a time when a man could be more desirous to be known as a soldier. There never will be a century in the world's history in which a man's family, his townsmen, and his countrymen, will be prouder to point him out as one of their men—one of the men who had the honor of being in the Army.

This is your war. You are going to win it by what you are—good Americans and good soldiers. You are good Americans already. It will take some time to make good soldiers out of you. The sooner you start, the sooner you will arrive. Begin now!

E. H. Crowder,
Provost Marshal General.

Coming "Peg of the Pirates" at Gem.

"Peg of the Pirates" a tale of the deep blue sea in the old days when Captain Kid was a terror. This is the play in which the delightful Miss Peggy Hyland will appear at the Gem Theatre, Thursday, August 8th. It is a play that every motion picture follower will enjoy. It has sterling action and some unique scenic effects. In it Miss Hyland does the best work of her exceptionally bright career. She is about to be married to a man she adorns when the pirates come and whisk her away to their vessel and go on their journey of sea hold-ups. A youth without fame who loves Miss Hyland in the story puts to sea in another vessel and after thrilling adventures rescues her and wins her heart.

On board ship Miss Hyland does some of her best work. Her trials and tribulations with the pirates are not only stirring but have much humor. She discovers the treasure hiding place of the pirates and this keeps her and her sweetheart in later life. An exceptionally fine cast supports Miss Hyland. In it are Carlota Macey, James Davis, Sidney Mason, who is the man without fame; L. Welheim, Ajax Carroll and Eric Mayne.

Coming.

Herbert Rawlinson, the Bluebird screen star in "Brace Up" at the Gem Theatre, Monday, August 5th, in which he is supported by Claire Du Brey, Alfred Allen, Blanch Gray and Sam De Grasse.

Thought transmission is the foundation of the plot of "Brace Up" Henry Court (Herbert Rawlinson) is an American college boy, who is deliberately disabled in a football game in a manner that effects his mind and his nerve.

His father and his fiancée are both disgusted with him, but the father puts him in the Secret Service, of which he is a prominent official, in the hope of bringing "him back."

All things failing, Henry employs a number of men to think of him at a given hour in connection with the word "power." When they do it, he is on the most important smuggling case in the history of the Secret Service, and surprises galore are the result to Henry as well as to every body who sees the picture.

Protection from every form of loss

from a strayed parcel

to a burned block

THE wonderful thing about Hartford insurance service is its scope. It provides against losses you never think of until they happen to you. You will never know that you could have been saved from the consequences of them unless you talk to this agency today. Every loss of property can be measured in money. The loss may be caused by fire, accident, sickness, theft, storm, carelessness, circumstances. All these have been foreseen and provided for by some form of Hartford policy. Fire comes first as causing the greatest losses, but is first for that reason alone. Some other form of fatality might be far worse for you than a fire. Do not learn these things after they happen. The two Hartfords can protect you on all sides. The policies will surround you with an interlocking coat of mail, leaving no unprotected point. This agency will be pleased to explain the complete protection offered by the

INSURANCE Service OF THE TWO HARTFORDS

For over one hundred years the Hartford Fire Insurance Company has paid losses with unflinching promptness. The same responsibility is behind the Hartford Accident & Indemnity Co.

Billy Burke, at The Gem Theatre.

In accordance with their progressive policy of presenting "the biggest and best" in the motion picture line, the management of the Gem

Theatre, announce the engagement of the second Billie Burke picture released by Paramount, "The Land of Promise" to be shown Friday, August 2nd.

The story has to do with the unhappy life of a girl "companion" to a wealthy old woman and her longing for the happiness that comes to other girls and seemed to have passed her by. How she went to Canada, thinking it "The Land of Promise," and found only more misery even in that fair country; how she married a rough farmer, loathing him all the while, but hoping to escape from the monotony of her life; and how she finally came to love him and appreciate his good qualities; all this and much more, is graphically shown in "The Land of Promise."

ASTOUNDING R'port for Tillamook.

The wife of a merchant had stomach trouble so bad she could eat nothing but toast, fruit and hot water. Everything else would sour or ferment. One spoonful buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka benefited her instantly. Because Adler-i-ka flushes the entire elementary tract it relieves any case constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has quickest action of anything we ever sold. J. S. Lamar, druggist.
