

"The KAISER, the BEAST of BERLIN."

TRAITORS! Will not like this photo-play. Neither will SPIES!
For they are smoked out by the tremendous expose of:
"THE KAISER, THE BEAST OF BERLIN."

Don't fail to see it. Show your disrespect for the Kaiser by witnessing his exposure.

At the Gem Theatre SUNDAY and MONDAY,

Adults 35c. AUGUST 18 and 19. Show starts at 7:30. Children 25c.

The picture that will make your blood boil with rage. The picture that will make 100,000,000 fighting, clawing Americans.

Pronounced greater in power than our President's declaration of war. The picture that will make you thankful that you live in the United States.

The most terrific indictment of the man who made this war that has ever been presented.

What do you really know about the Kaiser, the Mad Dog of Europe. Did you know that the German Agents stole six reels of this picture during the Liberty Loan drive in Kansas City. The pro-German agents actually attempted to do away with the films.

It hits the Kaiser and all of his followers a Stunning Blow. This picture is endorsed by the American Defense Society.

ANOTHER SPHAGNUM MOSS PICKING DRIVE ON SUNDAY.

Arranged by Members of Tillamook Lodge, I.O.O.F.

Weather permitting, there will be another moss picking drive and picnic at Sandlake on Sunday, which has been arranged by the members of Tillamook Lodge, I. O. O. F. It is predicted that the largest amount of sphagnum moss gathered in the county in one day will be picked and sacked next Sunday, making a record breaker for the Oddfellow lodge.

F. H. Matthews, Noble Grand of the order, issued the following notice and request:

All members of Tillamook Lodge, No. 94, I. O. O. F., Rebekahs and friends are invited to join in a moss gathering picnic on Sunday, August 18th. All Odd Fellows having cars are requested to be at the city hall at 9 a.m. The ladies to bring well filled baskets as a picnic lunch will be served on the grounds. Let us all show our patriotism and be on hand.

Thankful to Tillamook People.

Mr. Fred C. Baker, Tillamook, Ore.

Dear Sir.—Your wire informing the Portland Chapter of the American Red Cross that 450 sacks of Sandlake moss had been picked and was being shipped was very cheering news to the Portland Chapter. The message was brought and read at the meeting of the Executive Committee and it was the sense of the meeting that word of the appreciation of this chapter be sent to you and the good people of Tillamook who have devoted their time to this service. The president and also the manager of the chapter are temporarily out of the city and I was instructed to write and to express to you and the people of Tillamook who had to do with the gathering of the moss the thanks of the Portland Chapter.

The work in connection with the moss here is assuming such proportions that the constant supply of moss is coming to be an important question in view of the fact that as the wet weather approaches there will be more difficulty in obtaining adequate supply.

When a report of the output of the chapter has been rendered I will be pleased to have a copy sent to you and this should show in detail the quantity of output in connection with the moss product.

Very sincerely,
Forest S. Fisher.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 12, 1918.
Mr. Fred C. Baker, Tillamook, Ore.

Dear Mr. Baker:—I have been intending for some time to acknowledge your letter and the photographs you were good enough to send. Some of them appeared in last Sunday's Oregonian, but I have not yet read the article to see whether or not Tillamook County was given proper credit. I may say that copies of these pictures have been forwarded to Leslie and Colliers, and other magazines, by local correspondents, and these mention Tillamook county exclusively.

Up here we are all wonderfully proud of the work Tillamook county is doing, regarding sphagnum moss.

And both Mrs. S. S. Johnson and yourself, as the hurlypury committee, are certainly performing wonders.

I have been so completely immersed in the Red Cross Day at the Oaks, which netted the chapter over $10,000, that I omitted to acknowledge your letter before. I wish to thank you also for the copy of the Headlight, which will supply me very valuable information for my files. Again expressing very warm appreciation, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,
Orton E. Goodwin.

Want 450,000 Sphagnum Pads.

With an order in hand for 450,000 sphagnum moss dressings to be supplied to the Red Cross Italian Commission, the northwest is once more called upon to greater activity in producing these absorbent pads.

Because of the fact that what is described as the finest sphagnum moss in the world comes from Tillamook County, where all other Red Cross activities have been suspended that a great pick of sphagnum moss may be made, the call comes with special importance to the Portland Chapter of the Red Cross, of which Tillamook is a branch.

"Scotland is now making 4,000,000 sphagnum moss pads each month and Canada 20,000,000 annually," said Major I. Lowengart, chairman of the Red Cross military relief committee.

"This is because British surgeons have suddenly realized the tremendous importance of sphagnum in surgical cases. Sphagnum is 20 times more absorbent than cotton.

"We want now to begin to operate our workrooms to maximum capacity and I call on Portland women once more to answer our call."

"The Woman God Forgot."

Geraldine Farrar, the noted prima donna, will make her debut under the Arcraft trade mark at the Gem Theatre, Tuesday, August 20, in "The Woman God Forgot," a spectacular photodrama written especially for her by Jeanie MacPherson, and produced under the personal direction of Cecil B. deMille, the noted director.

In the few photodramas in which Geraldine Farrar has appeared, she has established herself at the leading emotional actress of the film. Her first appearance, "Carmen," and her more recent production "Joan the Woman," have been the sensations of the photodramatic world.

Jeanie MacPherson, who wrote the story of "Joan the Woman," is also responsible for the authorship of "The Woman God Forgot," and also for Mary Pickford's recent production, "The Little American" and "A Romance of the Redwoods."

For her theme in "The Woman God Forgot" Miss MacPherson has taken the story of a Princess who sells her country for the man she loves. The whole story is taken from a chapter in the early history of America telling how the Spanish invaded Mexico and of their conquest of Montezuma and his Aztecs. Geraldine Farrar is seen as Tezca, daughter of Montezuma. She falls in love with a handsome young Spaniard, which role is played by the ever-popular star, Wallace Reid.

The production is one of the most elaborate and beautiful ever made by Cecil deMille. The work of this famous director is too well known to be exploited in this brief space. Noted as the creator of artistic effects—his last work is considered his best.

The reproduction of the famous Aztec pyramid of Teocalli, as seen in "The Woman God Forgot," is the largest setting ever built for a photodramatic production, the pyramid being nearly 200 feet in height and an exact reproduction, in every detail, of the famous temple to the Aztec gods. Over a thousand men took part in the thrilling battle scenes and the effects of the first few cannon and gun powder are graphically shown.

The cast supporting Miss Farrar, besides Wallace Reid, includes such prominent names as Hobart Bosworth, Theodore Kosloff, the famous Russian Dancer, Raymond Hatton, James Neill and other of equal prominence.
