

WAR ZONE WOMEN DRIVEN FROM HOME THREE TIMES BY HUN

Mothers of French Soldiers Flee
Life Abodes With Remaining
Few Treasures on Backs

By Mrs. Hazel Pedlar Faulkner

An army of French refugees was pouring into the relief station maintained by the American Red Cross. Carrying in their hands bundles of varying sizes—all their worldly possessions, old men and women, young women and children, came through the gates of the canteen where was furnished the first bit of rest and refreshment available for many hours. The Boches had made travel necessary for these dwellers in the occupied portions of France.

"May I help you any?" asked one of the workers in the canteen of a weary looking French woman.

"I can help myself," the woman replied, "you see I know just what to do when we are away from home like this. This is the third time I have had to leave."

"CAN HELP MYSELF," BRAVE ANSWER

The third time she had had to flee. Three times she had been obliged to leave her home, or what was left of it, and start out on an unknown journey. With her worldly goods reduced to the size of a napkin-bound bundle, this old woman, mother of French soldiers, had turned her back on all she loved, and gone out into the night, an enemy at her heels and the unknown before her.

Do we realize what that means; oh, women of the West? Can we visualize for a moment the tragedy of it all?

Yet there are women in France who have done that thing daily for four years, and all without a word of complaint, with never a sigh or a tear.

Ours has been a happier part. We have lived in plenty and peace. True, we have given our sons and have divided our food. But of the horrors of war we have known none.

What will you do to relieve the condition of those mothers of France? Our government is pledged to help. It has given its word to aid to the limit of its capacity. It calls for the assistance of every individual one of our people in the work.

EVERY AMERICAN MUST HELP

The Fourth Liberty Loan is our opportunity. You say you have subscribed three times before? The women of France have been driven out of their homes three times, each time more cruelly than before. Can we hesitate to save them a repetition of that suffering. Ours is the lesser part, however much it may seem to entail of sacrifice and deprivation.

An American mariner, wounded grievously, was visited in hospital by a Congressman from his State. "What shall I tell the folks back home?" asked the Congressman.

The mariner smiled. "Tell them we may not all come back, but we are all helping to win the war."

Shall we be able to answer as honestly, when the boys from over there ask us the question?

Nothing is too hard for us here. Nothing can be too hard in comparison with what has been borne for us already.

Let the Fourth Liberty Loan subscription be our answer to the call from over there.

You Can Stop These Casualties Quickly

The Brutal, Bloody Hun will be stopped when an overwhelming American Army lands in France and crushes him—not before.

The Fourth Liberty Loan is the next step in getting that army across the Atlantic.

Fire Wood.

It is an odd sight, here in Tillamook, to see carloads of slab wood being shipped in for the cheese factories and farms surrounding the town, and it is strange that they should choose to use this fuel for their winter use.

At its best, slab wood is poor fuel, it is expensive. The work of unloading it from the cars is hard. The hauling it from the freight depot is costly. It takes up car space now so badly needed for the transportation of war materials and every loyal American should bear this in mind. When it is finally set down at its destination it must be cut into stove lengths and this costs more money and more time for handling. In Tillamook and all through the county, wood of the finest quality is plentiful, and the only reason we can think of to account for the shipping in of slab wood is a shortage of labor. The cutting of logs has always been a slow job, and we suppose that the ranchers have found it impossible to get out their wood in the usual way, and so have turned to the slab wood. But the problem has been solved by those who have used the Vaughn Light Drag Saw. This useful little saw eats its way through a big log as a boy bites through a pie. They are mobile as machine guns and as steady as armored tanks. One of them in a day will get out an immense quantity of wood, cut out of big logs into stove length.

A number of farmers or cheese factories might co-operate in buying one of these saws and get out their winter's wood in a fortnight—bid defiance to the slab pile, have better wood at less cost, have more cleared land and more neighbors and the consciousness of having done something towards winning the war. Kuppenbender will demonstrate the Vaughn Light Drag Saw to you at any time. See him.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

BY COL. JOHN F. McCRAE,
DIED AT BOULOGNE, JANUARY 28, 1918.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place, and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing fly,
Scarce heard amidst the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe,
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch -- be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die,
We shall not sleep tho poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
