SUPPOSE you had been a week in the trenches—can you imagine what it would mean to you to come out and run into a full-fledged good old American baseball game? The shipments of baseballs sent to France would make a line more than two miles long if they were laid side by side. The athletic orders placed by the war work agencies are the largest in the history of sport. Keep the boys' spirits high and they will tend to the Kaiser. Get behind the

WHAT chance will I have when the war is over? Thousands of boys are asking that question. They want to keep up with their studies; they want these warfare years to count. For them the war work agencies are conducting the greatest university in the world. Every hut in France is a classroom, and the leading college and high school teachers of the country, under the leadership of men like Professor Stokes of Yale and Professor Erskine of Columbia, are keeping your boy in touch. Get behind the campaign that will keep the boys from falling behind.

MOTHERS and sisters of America, there are a thousand girls over there who are representing you. They are the girls of the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A. and the lassies of the Salvation Army. Boys come back to them at night hungry for a woman's voice in a language they can understand. They bring your letters; and the pictures of you—their sisters and their mothers over here. Have you ever stopped to think that this is the first war in which the influence of good women followed the boys straight up to the front? It's worth a lot to you to keep that influence strong and permanent. Keep it so through the "Uncle Sam, here's a hundred and seventy millions. Keep the boys on their toes another year."

That's the message you'll be sending to your Uncle Sammy when you put the United War Work Campaign over the top.

A dollar will care for a soldier for a week. How many soldiers will you make happy next year? They are waiting for your answer to the United War Work Campaign.

The fitter the fighter the faster the finish.

Invest in morale through the United War Work Campaign.

TOWER'S FISH BRAND REFLEX SLICKER is a corker for staying on the job.

Who are the boys that will put the pill in Kaiser Bill? You know who they are. Give them more power to their arms by putting the United War Work Campaign over the top.

Keep the pep in the boys who are peppering the Kaiser. Give to the United War Work Campaign.
