We are advised that Clatsop county is making progress in the erection of bunkers and bins for the rock crushing plant which that county is installing on the rocky point on the road just above the Clatsop County line. The plant when in operation next spring and summer will supply rock to surface the road from the county line to Seaside. With that stretch of road surfaced it will be possible for machines to drive from here to Portland at any season of the year, for the Columbia River Highway from Astoria to Portland has now been surfaced for all year travel. We also understand that Tillamook County officials have made arrangements for a joint use of the big rock-crushing plant.—Wheeler Reporter.

FATAL AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Mrs. W. G. Obertooffer Killed
Mrs. W. G. Obertooffer, of this city, who resided at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Clancy, met a violent death by being run over by an automobile driven by A. S. Nordlund on Monday evening, shortly after six o'clock.
A. S. Nordlund who was driving the car was returning from the Walline home and the accident occurred just inside the city limits west of the railroad track on Third Street.
Mrs. Obertooffer, who for some time has been working at the S. P. depot, was on her way home from work and was walking on the pavement when the auto struck her.
Nordlund stated at the coroner's inquest that he did not see Mrs. Obertooffer, being blinded to some extent by the glare of the lights of an auto ahead of him. This automobile belonged to Miss Kathleen Mills, who was headed east on her way home, but who was obliged to stop at the side of the street opposite the Laborwirth residence on account of engine trouble. Miss Mills says that she dimmed her lights shortly after her machine stopped. The light which Nordlund saw may have been the light on the motorcycle which brought the person who came to repair Miss Mills' car. Miss Mills' car stood about 200 feet west of the spot where the accident occurred.
Mrs. B. D. Lamar was a witness at the inquest and noticed Mrs. Obertooffer just before she was struck. Immediately after the collision she ran out to where the body lay and others gathered around, but nothing could be done. In the meantime Nordlund went to Dr. Boals, who was soon on the scene and took the injured woman to the hospital, where it was found that her skull was fractured, her right jaw bone broken and her right arm broken at the elbow. When found she lay diagonally across the road with her head toward the middle of the road. She was evidently struck on her right side. She died at 8.10 never regaining consciousness.
Mrs. Fletch Wilson who was on the street at the time and saw the car coming stated at the inquest that Nordlund was not exceeding the speed limit. Mrs. Lamar's testimony was to the same effect.
Deceased was a fine young woman, held in high esteem and liked by all who knew her. She was 25 years of age and had been married five years. Her husband is serving his country as engineer on a submarine chaser, with headquarters at New York. The body will be taken to Portland for burial, but will be kept in a vault until the husband arrives for the funeral.
A coroner's inquest was held on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday. The jurors returned a verdict of gross negligence on the part of Nordlund. The jurors were: S. A. Broadhead, Otis Frisbie, D. E. Robinson, L. E. Partridge, S. Sicky and F. M. Oliver.
On Tuesday three sisters and two brothers of the deceased arrived here from Portland; viz: Mrs. Grace Burke, Mrs. Dr. Walls, Mrs. Hazel Fulton, A. Clancy and John Clancy.
The grand jury was called to investigate the case and after deliberation for eight hours brought in a indictment for manslaughter.
Nordlund was placed under $5000 bonds and given until Saturday to plead.

TESTIMONY AT CORONER'S INQUEST.

Testimony of Mrs. B. D. Lamar.
I went to dining room window to pull the curtain down and saw Miss Mills' machine on the other side of the street and I thought they were trying to fix the engine and they didn't have any light on the front of the auto. Miss Mills and some man were looking at the engine. I did not know who he was. After I pulled the blinds down I went back to the kitchen. I told the girls she was having trouble with her machine. I thought of my flash light and I went to the front door and was going to ask her if she needed the light, but, when I looked up they had the motorcycle light thrown on the engine and I knew that she did not need any more light. I turned round and looked up the street and could see Mrs. Obertooffer coming between Miss Mills light and that of Mr. Nordlund coming diagonally across the road. The street lights were out, and when she got by the side of the road I could not see her, but I heard the noise when he struck her. He came down the street a ways and stopped and got out of his car and went back to look at her. I went down the steps and he came running up to me, and he asked me if I had a Bell Phone. I told him no but that he could find one at the second house on the left hand side of the road. Instead of going to the phone, he went and got Dr. Boals. I could not see the lights on his car when he struck her on account of the porch post, but I could see the right fender of his automobile and I am positive that he was not exceeding the speed limit. After speaking to Mr. Nordlund I went back to the house to get my flashlight. I flashed it on and ran toward the body and I passed Mrs. Wilson out in the road and told her that Mrs. Obertooffer was knocked down by a car, and I ran up to the body. She was laying face down her body diagonal across the road, head in the middle of the road and her feet toward the curbing. Her umbrella was lying diagonal between her feet and the curbing. Mrs. Wilson was standing at her head and she said she should be turned over, and she was bleeding at the mouth. By that time my daughter came. I handed her the flashlight. I turned the body over and held her in my arms as long as I could. When I turned her over the fur that her face was on was across her chest. I raised her head and slipped this fur over her head and under it so that she could rest her head on it. I looked up and saw another car coming. I took the flashlight from my daughter and flashed it so that they could see the light. The auto went past us and stopped. Mr. Himes and one of the Bester boys, I do not know which one it was. I was talking to them when Dr. Boals and Mr. Nordlund came up. Mr. Boals got out of his auto felt her pulse and got the stretcher to put her on. Mr. Nordlund was out there and Dr. Boals told them to put her on the stretcher. Mr. Nordlund and Mr. Himes picked her up and put her on the stretcher and put her in Dr. Boals automobile. From the time he struck her I think he could have stopped his car at any time.

Testimony of Dr. Boals.
Mr. Nordlund called me on the phone and I went out there and the young lady appeared to be badly injured. She was lying diagonally across the road towards the north curbing, and I felt her pulse and I saw that she was hurt pretty bad and I got the stretcher out and put it down on the pavement by the side of her and Mr. Himes and Mr. Nordlund put her in my car and I took her to the hospital and made an examination. I called Dr. Hoy and we applied stimulants and restored her and applied heat to her body. She died ten minutes past eight as a result of a fracture at the base of the skull and shock. She also had a broken right arm and broken right jaw.
Testimony of Miss Mills.
I was going home from my work, a little after five o'clock and when I got to Mr. Laborwirth's house my car stopped and refused to go any further. I tried to start it up for a few minutes and found that I could not so I went to Mr. Clough's house and telephoned for a mechanic. I then went back to the car and there watched for him to arrive. He came in a few minutes and saw that it was necessary to have gasoline and came back to the garage on his motorcycle and during his absence I worked with the car trying to get it started. I looked up the road and saw a car coming towards town. I gave it no further thought until I heard a crash. I thought the car had struck the curbing and did not think that a serious accident had occurred. I still worked with the car until Mrs. Lamar's little girl came running and told me. I asked her what had happened. She then told me that this car had struck Mrs. Obertooffer. Mrs. Wilson also came down and asked me to come up. I did so and when I saw how serious an accident it was I went to my car and told Miss Crawford to go for a doctor, as I did not know that the doctor had already been informed. Miss Crawford went to Mr. Byers' residence and phoned for Dr. Boals but was told that he was on his way. By this time Dr. Boals arrived and as I could be of no assistance I went home.
Testimony of Mrs. Wilson.
I was going home from the post-office. I saw Mr. Nordlund's car coming. He wasn't driving fast. I stopped and said a few words to Miss Mills. Mr. Nordlund drove up to Mr. Lamar and I saw him running up to the house and I heard Mrs. Lamar tell him that he would find a phone at the second house on the left and he got in his car and drove off. Mrs. Lamar came out and saying she thought it was Mrs. Obertooffer that had been knocked down. Mrs. Lamar was a few feet ahead of me when we came to the body. She was lying diagonally across the road her head to the south and her feet to the north. She was lying on her face. I told Mrs. Lamar that I believed we ought to turn her over and she turned her over and put her fur under her head. Then the auto came that Mr. Himes was in and in a few minutes Dr Boals came. He felt her pulse and then got the stretcher. Mr. Himes and Mr. Nordlund layed her on the stretcher and carried her to the car.
Testimony of A. L. Nordlund.
I started from Mr. Walline's residence for Tillamook, crossing the railroad track at a speed of about 12 miles an hour as close as I can judge. My speedometer was out of order. Coming in abreast of the barn on the south side of the street. I noticed two strong lights ahead at a small angle to the north. My wind shield was full of small rain drops and the glare from the lights ahead, I was unable to see anything ahead of me, but I did not dim my lights, on account of my lenses is "No Glare". I was running, taking the north half of the street. I felt something on the forward end of my machine. I looked at my right fender, through the wind shield, I could then through the light of my headlight see a green or blue shadow. At the same moment I felt a small shaking in my machine. I tried at the point to stop my machine which I did after running around forty or fifty feet. My brakes did not seem to stop the car as soon as I expected. I jumped out of the car and ran back to the place where I felt the first shock and discovered then that it was a young lady. I ran to the last house and asked them if they had a phone and they said no. But advised me that some of the neighbors had a phone, but in a hurry I could not catch or grasp from them what it was, so I then jumped back in my car and headed for Dr. Boals' office. Dr. Boals was not in his office at that time so I ran to the cigar store across the street and phoned to his residence and informed him that I had a serious accident. A young lady laying on the street unconscious about half ways between the big barn on the north side of the street and the first house on the north side. I took my car and went to the place where the accident occurred and found Dr. Boals arriving at the same time. Dr. Boals and me and a few people, to me unknown, took the body and placed it in Dr. Boals' car and took it to Dr. Boals' hospital. Dr. Boals and I and Mr. Himes, whom at that time I had learned to know, carried the lady in the hospital where she was examined by Dr. Boals.
