W. G. Dwight and Rollie Watson have made a deal quite recently for the Joseph Haskins tract, being 12 lots in Blocks 1 and — of Park Addition. These two blocks lay between 3rd and 5th Streets near the S. P. depot. It is the intention of the purchasers to improve this property and to place the same on the market shortly after the first of the year.

O. A. Schultz returned from Portland on Sunday. The A. F. Coats Lumber Co., have an option on the saw mill at Hobsonville, and there are some probability that it will acquire that property. Should it do so it will be put in working condition, which, however would take some time, as there is considerable work to be done before it could start up.

T. B. Watt, of the Brighton Mills Co., returned from Washington, D. C., on Sunday, where he had gone on business connected with the saw mill Mr. Watt said the living expenses were twice as high in Washington as in Chicago, the hotel, rooming house and restaurant proprietors doing a profiteering business owing to the congestion brought about by the war.

Sheriffs throughout the state have some work making out the notices of tax delinquency which will be mailed to owners in lieu of advertising, as provided by the initiative law adopted at the November election. The envelopes bear a notice to the postmaster stating that the contents pertain to official business of the county and requesting return if not delivered or forwarded. Four months after taxes are delinquent the sheriff will post a list of unpaid parcels at four places in the county and file a copy with the county clerk.

Death of Mrs. L. S. Maynard.

Terry had died from pneumonia, following an attack of influenza, the deaths taking place within 12 hours of one another. Mrs. Terry passing away Thursday night and her husband the next morning. The young couple were highly respected and had a large number of friends. W. S. Terry had been in the employ of the Coast Power Co.

Brown, and sister, Mrs. Ira Landis, of Salem and brother, E. T. Brown, of Hoff, Ore.

Rev. Chas. Gibson, of the Allied Churches, conducted the funeral services.

Woods Samuel Terry was born Sept. 21, 1886, in Okoholma. He was an honest, upright man and he leaves a host of friends to mourn his departure. He was a member of the I. O. O. They resided a while in Portland and Oregon City, when they finally settled at Sandlake, Ore. For the past three years she had made her home in Tillamook City. She was married April 21, 1918, to Woods Samuel Terry, at Tillamook, Ore. Carrie was a member of the Morning Star Rebecka Lodge, No. 52 of Tillamook, also of the Women's Relief Corps. She was loved and respected in those orders for her conscientious work in them. She died December 12, 1918, at Dr. Robinson's hospital of Spanish Influenza. She leaves to mourn her departure a father, mother, six brothers and one sister. The remains were laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Fairview on Dec. 15, 1918, and were laid to rest in the same grave. Rev. C. Gibson conducted the services at the undertaking chapel and the I. O. O. F. and Rebecka had charge at the cemetery.

County Superintendent And The Schools.

To all Teachers of Tillamook County:

There has never been a time in the history of the schools of this county, when the work is in such a chaotic condition as now. These conditions are due to the general prevalence of influenza, and we cannot avoid the conditions. By using the utmost care we can help the conditions. The health of the children should be closely watched and the sanitary conditions in and around the school made the best possible.

No teacher should attend, nor encourage pupils in attending public gatherings of any kind at present. No school entertainments of any kind should be given until the conditions are different.

Most of the schools of the county are now closed, and such as are open have a very small attendance. I trust the teachers will do their utmost in such schools as are open, that they may remain open and not endanger the health of the children.

Do not forget the Junior Red Cross. Every school that is now open should at once collect the membership fee for the school and forward to this office. This office will send the applications to the Portland Chapter, and your membership certificate and buttons for 1919 will be sent directly to you. After your membership fee has been paid, Mrs. H. C. Hanson, of Tillamook will see that you get the literature and material for work. She has charge of the work department of the county. Every school should be enrolled. The need is greater now than ever, and the children need the practical lesson in helpfulness to others. Let us have the enrollment this month of every school now in session, and others as they open later.

Owing to the epidemic of "flu" the State Teachers' Association has been indefinitely postponed. The Representative Council will meet on Friday, December 27th, at Portland for the business usual to it.

The chief object of this letter is to remind schools now in session of their duty as to the Junior Red Cross. Our boys "on the other side" did not relax until their job was done and Hun beaten. Let us not quit until our job is done.

Christmas time is here. Now is the time for boys and girls to remember others. All that is asked of them by the Red Cross is the membership fee of 25 cents.

Wishing you a merry Christmas, I am, Yours truly,
G. B. Lamb.
County School Supt.

That defendant with further intent to gratify defendant's hatred toward plaintiff and injure and defame her among the citizens of Garibaldi, did last October have the above letter read by one Mrs. Powell, as her agent, at a public meeting of the Red Cross Society at Garibaldi and did cause the letter to be printed and disseminated among many of the citizens of Tillamook.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL.

Want Everybody in Tillamook County to Become a Member.

Everybody in Tillamook County should become a member of the Red Cross. That is what the vocal workers of the Red Cross are striving to bring about. It can and should be done if everybody will do their bit. Workers in all parts of the county are now at work hoping to obtain the above result. They are meeting with a good deal of success in some places, but not so in this city, where the work is dragging behind, so something will have to be done between now and Monday. The Executive Board, of the Red Cross decided to put the Boy Scouts to work at once, and this no doubt will result in most everybody in this city becoming members of the Red Cross. Some of the outside districts are doing good work, but it is hoped that everybody in the county will join the Red Cross between now and Monday. The Red Cross button shows whether you are a member or not. Hurry up and procure a button.

Yes, Guess This Explains It.

Charles H. Henry, of Spartansburg, S.C. writes the New York World that the reason the Democrats lost the recent election was because the pro-Germans voted the Republican ticket. Yes, this explains why Iowa, where one person in four bought Liberty Bonds, went heavily Republican, while South Carolina, where one person in twenty bought bonds, went Democratic; why South Carolina, which decorated the very tail end of the procession in the matter of volunteer enlistments in the war, sent a solid Democratic delegation to Congress, while Indiana, which topped the whole list of states in the matter of volunteer war enlistments in proportion to population, sent a solid Republican delegation. A South Carolina lecture on loyalty to the flag and to the Union is always interesting, even if not convincing.
