Floyd said he had to get the secret code cypher, etc., and that it was near two suit cases full. Everything is kept secret almost as much as in war times. He is well pleased with his berth and surroundings.
Peggy Hyland in Sweet Love Tale.
One of the most human, most tender stories of a pure girl's loyalty and devotion under the trying ordeal of two noble men's love will be shown at the Gem Theatre Thursday, March 13. The title of this photo drama is "Bonnie Laurie" and the title part is played by Peggy Hyland, the charming William Fox star.
In this new photodrama Miss Hyland portrays a winsome Scottish lassie who is the affianced bride of a gallant Scots captain. While the latter is at the front she saves the life of a shipwrecked stranger who wins her true heart's love, and later proves to be an American officer who has forgotten his own identity.
Cast out unjustly by her stern father, Bonnie Annie finds solace in ministering to the wounded soldiers of the Allies, and it is then her rival lovers are brought to her, blinded and injured. How a sudden turn of fate deepens her cruel dilemma, and how she finds true peace and happiness in the end, are features that rise this play to heights of sublime realism.
"Bonnie Annie Laurie" will be shown at the Gem Theatre March 13. Every lover of a love story should see it.
Creamery Ass'n. Monthly Meeting
Regular monthly meeting of the Directors of the Tillamook County Creamery Ass'n. was held at the city hall on Monday, when 19 directors were present.
Minutes of last meeting read were approved. Letter from Wheeler cow people read and secretary was instructed to purchase only their complete boxes.
Letter was read from C. J. Edwards regarding Oleo bill and Dairy Herd Inspector. Letter was read from advertising people showing that we had credit of $158.00 for advertising account, because 1918 advertising was enough to give the 12c. the line rate instead of the 14c. rate.
Letter was read from Oregon Dairymen's League showing decline of price on their milk of 65c. the 100 lbs., bringing their basis rate to $3.20.
Pres. Kuppenbender made a general statement regarding dairy situation, stating that he had sent letters of invitation to County Agent Roy C. Jones and the County Veterinarian to attend monthly meetings of Directors. Various matters were discussed from various angles.
Motion made and carried that Inspector see that the "Tillamook" be kept off of cheese made from four day old milk in the future.

Motion made and carried that this association co-operate with Cheese Makers' Association in regard to improving Tillamook cheese, and other matters of interest between the associations.
Motion made and carried that action of secretary and salesman in pro-rating amount received for January cheese among the different factories be confirmed, as some cheese sold for 38 1/2c. and some for 28c.
Roy Jones, County Agriculturist, appeared before the meeting with interesting talk.
The chairman was authorized to appoint committees on Dairy Herd Inspector, County Veterinarian, advertising, County Agriculturist and Cheese Makers' Association.
County Teachers in Session.
The Tillamook County Teachers' Association held its first meeting at the Tillamook High School building last Saturday. Considering that the day was so stormy the attendance was satisfactory. There were enrolled thirty teachers from various parts of the county.
The forenoon was devoted to a discussion of the Industrial Club work and the County School Fair held this fall in connection with the County Fair. The State Fair Board has cut from its list the open juvenile department. In order that a boy or girl make an entry at the State Fair or she must be an enrolled member in some Club project under the direction of the O. A. C. This is free to every child in the State between the ages of 9 and 19 years.
The State Fair Board recognizes this as an important work. Club work is important in that it teaches lessons of thrift and industry, furnishing agreeable occupation for leisure moments and in cultivating a love of the soil and a knowledge of growing and making things. No more profitable exercise could possible be devised.
The open juvenile list will be retained this year the same as last year.
The association went on record in the support of Club Work and in the support of the County School Fair. The County School Superintendent has worked out a plan for this and the details will be submitted to the teachers later. A committee of three teachers was appointed to advise with the Superintendent in the preparation of the premium list and the fair arrangements.
In the afternoon Supt. White, of the Tillamook City Schools, gave a very interesting talk on the Moral Responsibility of the Teacher.
The teachers all report the school attendance very good and the work progressing satisfactorily, as may be expected after so long a vacation.
Every school in the county is now in session except the Fairview school.
The next meeting will be held early next month.

"LET'S GET A DIVORCE"
CONVENT LIFE ROMANCE
At the Gem Theatre, Tuesday March 11—Featuring Billie Burke.
Of the large list of cinema successes achieved by Billie Burke through the sheer force of her art, charm and magnetism, there is none which will appeal to a wider following of motion picture theatregoers than "Let's Get a Divorce," the newest photo comedy starring the delightful film actress. The picture is based upon Sardou's "Divorcans," a celebrated stage success which was adapted for the screen by John Emerson and Anita Loos.
In this photoplay Miss Burke will be seen as an impressionable convent girl of romantic turn of mind who relieves the monotony of her existence inside the convent walls, with harmless flirtations. As Cyprienne, the convent girl, Billie Burke, has an unusual captivating role. She meets and loves a young writer, who begs the Mother Superior for her hand, but Cyprienne consents to become his bride only after an elopement, which is carried out with the connivance of the Mother Superior in a highly artistic manner.
Cyprienne is happy for a time, but when her husband pays more attention to his avocation than to his bride, the romantic spirit of Cyprienne revolts. Attracted by a personality and uniform of a young officer of the Forestry Service, she easily convinces herself that she loves him and implores her husband to grant her a divorce and although horrified, he readily accedes to her request. It is this compliance, so unexpected, that causes a change of sentiment in Cyprienne, and she ultimately discovers that her love is merely a fleeting passion and that her husband is necessary for her happiness.
There are numerous interesting scenes in which this regeneration is accomplished and she and her husband finally reconciled. The picture has been unusually well produced under the direction of Charles Gibby, and in Miss Burke's support appear an exceptional list of players. It will be shown at the Gem Theatre on Tuesday next.
More Flu Cases.
House known as N. J. Myers, West fifth Street, March 1, 1919, Miss Ellen Clark, Mrs. S. G. Clark and three daughters. Attendant, Mrs. Partridge.
Frances B. Stranahan, City Recorder.
Wedding Bells.
At the home of Mrs. Nora Goff, last Sunday afternoon, Mr. Henry Scovell and Miss Minnie Adams were united in marriage by Rev. Harry Tucker, pastor of the Christian Church. The groom is from Nehalem and the bride of Garibaldi. There were a few near relatives and many friends at the wedding. The home was nicely decorated with evergreen and flowers. The happy couple have many friends who wish them a long and happy voyage together.
McLeod-Mason Wedding.
Married on Monday morning, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mason, who lives north of the city, Alpha A. McLeod, of Salem, and Miss Allegra Mason. The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. Harry Tucker, of the Christian church. The happy couple left soon after the ceremony on the morning train for Salem where they will make their future home, carrying with them the best wishes of a large number of friends for their future happiness.
Handley's Good Sense.
Senator Handley, of Tillamook, was the only member of the senate who voted against S. B. 288 putting parts into the hydro-electric energy business for dock and port purposes, by permitting them to develop water powers, a hazardous and expensive business for any taxing body to get into. This is only one of Senator Handley's sensible votes. He is often in the minority, and most often right either when in the majority or minority. His sound judgment in voting has established him in the confidence of his associates and many observers. Already he is talked of as the man for president for the next state senate. He would be a fine selection.—Oregon Voter.
