

COAXING YOU TO SMILE.

One For Hoover.
Representative James, of Michigan is passing around a story that has to do with the five-year-old daughter of a near neighbor. According to the Representative, Helen's mother had tried to impress her with the necessity of conserving everything to help to do their bit to win the war. Recently the stork brought twins to her home. Upon receiving the news Helen exclaimed: "Oh! daddy, two babies! What will Mr. Hoover say?"

One On Himself.
General Crowder tells one on himself. Seems they had posted a new sentry in front of the draft office and the general thought he'd try him out. So he approached and asked "Have you your general orders?" "Nope" retorted the rookie. "Have you any special orders?" persisted the general. "Nope" once more. "Do you mean to tell me that the sentry you relieved left you without a word?" "Nope" said the private. "He said, Look out for Crowder, he's a crab."

The Peril of "Buttin' In"
The owner of a dry goods store heard a new clerk say to a customer: "No madam, we have not had any for a long time."
With a fierce glance at the clerk the smart employer rushed up to the woman and said:
"We have plenty of everything in reserve, ma'am; plenty upstairs."
The customer and the clerk looked dazed. Then the proprietor, seeing that something was wrong, said to the customer: "Excuse me, what did you ask for?"
The woman simply replied: "Why, I said to your clerk that we hadn't had any really nice weather lately."

The Brute.
At a recent social affair, according to the Philadelphia Telegraph, turned to sentimentalism. Congressman Edward Gilmore, of Massachusetts was reminded of a story about Uncle Josh.

"Uncle Josh was comfortably lighting his pipe in the living room one evening when Aunt Maria glanced up from her knitting. "Josh" softly remarked the good woman, "do you know that next Sunday will be the twenty-fifth anniversary of our wedding?"
"Ye don't say so, Maria!" responded Uncle Josh, pulling vigorously on his corn cob pipe. "What about it?"
"Nothing," answered Aunt Maria, "only I thought we ought to kill them two Rhode Island Red chickens."
"Say Maria" impressively demanded Uncle Josh, "how can you blame them two Rhode Island chickens for what happened twenty-five years ago?"

ALL WRONG.

The Mistake is Made By Many Tillamook Citizens.

Look for the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

If it's weak kidneys You must set the kidneys working right.

A resident of this vicinity shows you how.
Mrs. Kenneth Chase, 1214 S. River St., Newberg, Ore., says: "My back ached all the time and my kidneys acted irregularly. My feet and ankles were so badly swollen that in the morning, I couldn't get my shoes on for several hours. I felt generally depressed. The first few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills helped me wonderfully. My back stopped aching, my kidneys acted more regularly and the swellings in my feet and ankles went down. After I had taken one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, I felt as well as ever."

Bernhardt and Rostand.

Mme. Bernhardt's admiration for Edmond Rostand was due in part at least to natural human gratitude. When once a guest of the great actress at Belle Isle, her lonely island home near Quiberon, the distinguished dramatist had rescued her from drowning. But apart from this she always swore by him. I have heard her rhapsodize in terms that seemed extravagant about his genius. He was to her the beginning and end of that form of the drama in which she had excelled as an interpreter. She loved him as a reaction visible against realism, as a protest against Ibsen and a renewer of the flamboyant in art. Yet who can doubt that when Rostand is forgotten men will know Ibsen? The romantic episode at Belle Isle merely strengthened Mme. Bernhardt's profound and touching faith in this follower of Hugo.—Exchange.

Getting Down to Business.

If there's any one thing that marks the big man it is his ability to get down to business. While the average fellow sits drumming at his desk the man of skill starts things. There may be a thousand things to do, but they will be done sooner if they are done one at a time. It's a fine thing to be able at a glance to spot the essential and go at it. The next best thing is to get busy at the job that seems to be most urgent and put that on the shelf a finished product. You are then ready for the next thing. But it's just the lack of this ability that puts the sprags in most men's progress. They are confused by the many things to be done. Instead of getting busy at once they waste time in wondering where to begin. It's no wonder they fail to accomplish things.

Too Limited a Route.

"Would you object to marrying a traveling man?"
"Not if he travels far enough," replied Miss Cayenne. "I couldn't care for one of these chaps who puts in all his time traveling between here and Baltimore."

The socialist and the free trader have got together on common ground—both are internationalists, or rather anti-nationalists.
