Billy Burke in "Eve's Daughter."

Billie Burke's next appearance at the Gem Theatre will be in a Paramount picture "Eve's Daughter" from the play by Alicia Ramsey, which was originally produced starring Grace George. It depicts a girl, Irene Simpson-Bates, who chafes at the galling restraint placed on her by her wealthy father from whom she inherits a strong will, and who, at his death, takes all the small fortune he left her and squanders it in "one good time." How she is very nearly lured to an elopement and saved by her old father's lawyer who has always loved her, makes a thrilling story. Miss Burke wears some gorgeous frocks and has added many new and charming touches to her work, always so full of "Burkeisms" such as the quickly lifter chin and birdlike toss of the head which has endeared her to thousands. The supporting cast, including Thomas Meighan, William Riley Hatch, Florence Flynn and others, is worthy of being called "all star," and does some excellent work in support of Miss Burke. This fascinating play will be presented at the Gem Theatre Tuesday, April 22.

War-Torn France Shown in Picture.

France in war time, the atrocities of the German invaders and the adventures of a brave French officer who volunteers for desperate service, not to speak of the experiences of a moving picture actress on the firing line—these are the basis of Dorothy Dalton's new Thomas H. Ince-Paramount photoplay "Vive La France!" which will be shown at the Gem Theatre, Sunday, April 20.

Miss Dalton has the role of a charming girl who braves the Huns in her native town and finally succeeds in saving the man she has learned to love, from death at the hands of the Germans. The picture is filled with thrills and heart appeal and there are numerous dramatic moments that grip and hold the attention to the finish. Miss Dalton is capably supported by a staff of fine screen players, her leading man being Edmund Lowe, a sterling actor.

OUR SOUL WILL PAY

There was very little to find fault with in the spirit which the American people showed when the war was brought home to them daily by deeds of heroism sent back from the fields of France. In those days, beneath the selfishness of commercialism, was laid bare the soul of our people. It was the same true, untarnished soul which built the country through nearly a century and a half of struggles which tested every fiber of our being as a nation.

It is this spirit and soul of our nation which makes possible the achievement by the American people of any task which they set themselves to do from the bottom of their heart. Our nation never went into anything with a more determined will than it did to defeat the abominable militarism which had been the lone star of the German people. The American people won that battle.

The government is now making an appeal to the same spirit which won that victory. The only work that remains to be done to make sure of an oversubscription to the fifth loan is to bring home to the American spirit which won the war the realization that there is another great task which it is right to be done. That is paying the bill of the war. The American people know the bill is just and will pay it.
