They're all fighting the War; the man who shoulders the gun and the woman who is transfigured by the Great Love -- the love that places country above all else. You see the Dowager-Queen Alexandria, Lady Diana Manners, Miss Asquith and a host of England's "proudest," working side by side with the most lowly Londonites, in this picture. THEMSELVES, not impersonators. Really acting for the camera, not merely posing.

"Battling Jane" Is Splendid Picture.

Dorothy Gish's first Paramount starring vehicle, "Battling Jane" which will be shown at the Gem Theatre next Sunday, May 11, is said to be one of the finest photoplays issued anywhere in many months. That it affords Miss Gish a role of wondrous appeal is conceded by all who have seen the production.

Miss Gish appears as Jane, a nomad, who rides into a town in Maine out of nowhere on a bicycle while a Thrift Stamp drive is under way and who meets with most unusual adventures. She befriends a woman whose husband has deserted her and when the woman dies, she takes charge of the latter's child which is found by Jane in the deserted home. This babe wins first prize at a baby show and when the inhuman father returns to claim the money, James gives him a real battle and wins out in the end.

Miss Gish is finely supported by a picked company, including George Nichols, May Hall, Katherine MacDonald, Ernest Marion, Bertram Grasby, Raymond Cannon and Kate Toncray.

OPPOSITE CLOUGH'S DRUG STORE

The beautiful weather Sunday called out a number of the population to picnic and fish for flounders. The beach was grand.

Grandma and grandpa Harris went to Tillamook Saturday to be gone a week on business, they have been living with their son C. O. Harris, since last fall. Alpha and Roy Olson are at the ranch during their absence and Lela Smith a friend of Alphas is staying with them.

C. O. Harris returned last week from a trip to Portland and Vancouver, Wash., where he went to visit relatives and take a few days rest.

Frank Reynolds is patching the bad places in the road with new plank so the machines can come in with safety after the Rhododendrons which are just coming out.

E. G. Anderson, of Hemlock, has sold his Sandlake place to outside parties.

We are glad to say the flu took no death tolls from Sandlake, the Gal-lowsay and Reynolds families were the only ones afflicted with it and they have all fully recovered.

Resolution of Condolence.

Hall of Tillamook Lodge No. 94, I. O. O. F.

Whereas, at the command of an All Wise Father in whom we live and move and have our being, the Angel of death has entered our fold and summoned therefrom our dearly beloved brother Frank L. Dye, the loss of whom is a deep sorrow to us all.

And whereas, this brotherhood deeply mourns the passing of our brother in the pride of his manhood, and at the time when he was most earnestly engaged in his labors toward the fulfillment of the principles for which our order stands.

And, whereas, we realize that there are left to mourn their loss a family whom he dearly loved, and to whom the loss is even more deep than ours, as they sustain in his death the loss of the one whom they had always looked to for guidance and protection.

Be it further resolved, that we extend to the family and relatives of our departed brother, our deep sympathy in this their hour of affliction and sorrow.

That this lodge drape the charter for a period of thirty days in remembrance of our departed brother, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of Tillamook Lodge No. 94.

That a copy be transmitted to the family of our departed brother, and that a copy be given to the local press for publication.

Madlane Traverse, At the Gem.

Madlane Travers, the new William Fox star, will be seen at the Gem Theatre, next Thursday, May 15, in a story called "The Danger Zone." Miss Travers, who came under the Fox banner with her recent big success, "The Caillaux Case" won a fine reputation on the legitimate stage. For years she toured the country with her father, and she had a conspicuous part in "The Chorus Lady" which played so long in New York and then toured the country from coast to coast.

The story of "The Danger Zone" is that of a woman who overcomes obstacles which have bound her for some years. She rises into fame with her voice, and is about to marry a very wealthy man when her former sweetheart, thinking of profit by her fame, turns up. He is cut cold, but he places himself in a position that is dangerous for the woman. He threatens to tell her husband to be who and what she was. The climax is a powerful one.

Whooping Cough.

Give Chamberlain's Cough remedy to keep the cough loose and expectoration easy. It is excellent.—Adv.

Do You Sleep Well?

To be at his best a man must have sound, refreshing sleep. When wakeful and restless at night he is in no condition for work or business during the day. Wakefulness is often caused by indigestion and constipation, and is quickly relieved by Chamberlain's Tablets. Try a dose of these tablets and see how much better you feel with a clear head and good digestion.—Adv.

Pretty Polly.

"Polly, want a cracker?" "Why, yes," answered Polly as she plumed her plumage and neatly brushed out her cage with her port-side wing. "Now that the war is won and the necessity for food conservation has been reduced to a certain degree, I feel that I may indulge in my favorite dish without serious damage to my conscience."

And the wealthy munitions worker who overheard the remark bought her on the spot for $1,000 cash, saying that she should be surrounded with luxuries for the rest of her days, yet though she lived to be as old as the mother-in-law joke.

Note—Gentle readers who look for a moral to this particular piece of patriotic persiflage will please try to bear up under the disappointment. There ain't none.—Indianapolis Star.

Matter of Patches.

Seven-year-old James and his mother were visiting the latter's spinster aunts. As was their custom these maiden ladies showed their visitors their vast supply of home-pleaced quilts. "This is the first four-patch Jane ever made," announced one proudly, displaying a quilt whose blocks were made up of four square pieces.

"And this is Mary's nine-patch," explained Jane. "She made it when she was only seven years old."

The third quilt was an embroidered silk one, made of myriads of tiny irregular pieces—the gifts of friends and the remnants from ancient wedding and reception clothes. James stared at it a few minutes and then he turned to his mother. "Is this one an all-patch?" he asked.

For Colds, Catarrh or Influenza.

Do you feel weak and unequal to the work ahead of you? Do you still cough a little, or does your nose bother you? Are you pale? Is your blood thin and watery? Better put your body into shape. Build strong!

An old, reliable blood-maker and herbal tonic made from wild roots and barks, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This "nature remedy" comes in tablet or liquid form. It will build up your body, cure your cold, and protect you from disease germs which lurk everywhere. One of the active ingredients of this temperance alternative and tonic is wild cherry bark with stillingia, which is so good for the lungs and for coughs; also Oregon grape root, blood root, stone root, Queen's root,—all skillfully combined in the Medical Discovery. These roots have a direct action on the stomach, improving digestion and assimilation. These herbal extracts in the "Discovery" aid in blood-making, and are best for scrofula. By improving the blood they aid in throwing off an attack of influenza.

Catarrh should be treated, first, as a blood disease, with this alternative. Then, in addition, the nose should be washed daily with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Send 10c for trial pkg. of Medical Discovery Tablets or Catarrh Tablets to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.
