IT MEANS—The opening of a year-round paved road from British Columbia to the Mexican border.

IT MEANS—The opening to sportsmen of the county's fishing and hunting paradise.

IT MEANS—The employment of thousands of skilled mechanics and laboring men in its construction.

IT MEANS—That Uncle Sam will match every state dollar for construction and will maintain the highway forever.

You owe it to your country—you owe it to your state, to go to the polls at the special state election June 3 and vote 310 X Yes.

For the Roosevelt Highway. Oregon's Road to Prosperity.

Drs. Wise and Lebow will be at Dr. Wise's office and residence across the street south of the court house Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays to do dental work. Thursdays at Cloverdale; Fridays at the Nehalem Hotel and Saturdays until noon on Sundays at Wheeler.

P. S. Brumby was in the city the first of the week. He represents the Blodgett Co., and was here to make arrangements for fire protection this summer. The County Court has promised to fix the Wilson river road and when this is done the timber company will put into service an auto for better fire protection.

The delegates to the grand lodge of the Oddfellows, which will be held at Salem next week are R. W. Watson, S. A. Brodhead, D. R. Tinnerstet, F. H. Matthews, J. L. Steinback and John Aschim. The editor would suggest that the delegation wear plug hats with a Roosevelt highway band. How about it, Rollie?

Next Monday a public sale of 35 head of high class grade Jersey and Holstein cows will take place at the Fair Grounds, which are said to be a splendid bunch of animals. They belong to J. W. Connell and W. T. Kerr of Hillsboro and are now at the fair grounds for inspection, and those wanting good cows should look them over.

Pete Lamar bought out a grocery store at Corvallis and is operating it on a cash basis. Corvallis is one of the several pretty and up-to-date cities in the Willamette Valley, with fine educational advantages for those who want to give their children a college education. There are several from Tillamook who are attending O.-A. C.

We are looking for a woman at Tillamook, past 30 years old as resident manager, to take charge of collections, renewals, circulation of most all magazines published. Must have some salesmanship ability and good references. Our new plan makes everybody a customer and saves the public much money. Position will pay from $1,000 to $3,000 a year. E. J. Hamilton, 311 Globe Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sander, of Proleta, California, who have been visiting at the home of E. P. Maine for several days left on Monday for the Willamette valley where they will visit with friends and relatives before returning to California. Mr. Sander is an employee of the Southern Pacific and was very much impressed with Tillamook county.

For Sale—Two improved lots, full size, well located, in desirable part of city, on one of the most prominent paved streets in town, concrete walks house of seven rooms besides bath, pantry, washroom, hall, closets and porch, modern plumbing, electric wired, commodious woodshed and barn. Price $2,650.00, $1,000 cash, balance on terms to suit purchaser. Apply at F. R. Beals office.

Here is an important ruling just issued by the postoffice department of the government: "War savings certificates are not transferable and postmasters have been instructed not to pay certificates on which erasures or changes in entry of the name have been made. When an affidavit is submitted, however, satisfying the postmaster that no change in ownership has taken place, and explaining the erasure or corrections, payment may be made to the original owner, the affidavit being attached to the paid certificate."

De Kol Grace Lilith Korndyke, a registered Holstein cow four years of age tested by Bert Folks, made the following record under the following conditions: Grace was turned into the pasture day and night and was given ten pounds of mill run and barley with a little oil meal added per day. Test was begun 28 days from calving. 560 lbs. milk containing 17.33 lbs. fat equivalent to 22.5 lbs. or 80 per cent butter. She has averaged 85.7 lbs of milk per day to date, which is better than she was doing when tested. As this is the first A. R. O. test to be made in Tillamook county, Folks and Noyes are pleased to start the good work, Grace and three others are continuing in semi-official or yearly test.

High School Notes.

The first semester examinations are now in progress at the High School. On Monday morning the work of the second semester will begin and it is hoped that all wishing to take up new subjects for credits will enroll between now and Monday.

Hon. C. J. Edwards was an assembly speaker this week as was also Mr. Henderson, both being greatly appreciated by the pupils.

The first semester examinations on Saturday, May 17th, the students and faculty will join for an all day picnic at Netarts bay. The trip will be made by auto truck, and each girl will prepare a bit of lunch for herself, plus one more, the boys will look out for the fruits and other needed accessories for the day.

Nazarene Church Services.

The special services at the Nazarene Church are continuing with increasing interest and the New England evangelists are preaching powerful sermons on the vital subjects of the times. Every evening at 7:30 o'clock the people gather for prayer and the song service begins promptly at 8. Rev. A. F. Ingler, the pastor, conducts the singing and renders an appropriate solo before the sermon, and sometimes at the close. Evangelists Hopkins and wife are encouraged with the devotion of the membership and see nothing but victory and prosperity ahead. The meetings will continue indefinitely at the usual hour daily and on Sundays at 11 a.m., 3 and 7:30 p.m.

Sunday School will convene at 10 a.m., as usual. All who have no church home are cordially invited to all the services and the public in general will be welcomed to hear the evangelists.

"Such a Little Pirate" Filled With Highly Dramatic Incidents.

The remarkable contrasts, between the dainty sweetness and youth of Lila Lee, and a rollicking old grey bearded salt, between the dreams of a young girl and the bloody machinations of a cutthroat crew who are no less piratical in disposition because they are of present century instead of the days of bucanera—such contrasts make of "Such a Little Pirate," it is asserted, a most winning film subject.

This picture which will be shown at the Gem Theatre next Sunday, May 18th is the second starring Lila Lee on the Paramount list, and is declared by experts to surpass even her first offering. The story is by Monte M. Katterjohn, based on a novel by James Oliver Curwood. Geo. Melford did the directing. The marine scenes were taken at Catalina Island, aboard an old boat that has now been seized by the United States Government.

An interesting scene is that in which the old hooker is caught in a tropical storm. A fine cast surrounds the lovely little star and there is every reason to believe that the production will create a tremendous hit among those who are on the lookout for freshness, beauty and originality, as well as picturesqueness in plot and character.

Miss Brockwell Reads Complex Soul of Women.

A women's soul cannot be read like a book. It is too complex. Yet it is possible to take fragments of it and reveal some of the keen suffering, the unknown joy that surge through a women's heart.

Gladys Brockwell has done this to perfection in "The Call of the Soul," a William Fox photodrama which comes to the Gem Theatre Thursday, May 22nd. In this play she portrays a woman whose heart is torn between love for the little child that came to her as a result of a dreadful experience and her love for a man who believes her to be a pure woman. It is a bitter love she tastes while the child is kept in hiding, and still more bitter is the trial when her husband discovers the secret. But his heart softens as her overpowering motherlove is revealed, and he takes the mother and child into his arms.

The tensely emotional role of the mother is a typical Gladys Brockwell role, and Miss Brockwell does full justice to the manifold opportunities it offers her dramatic skill. The work of the supporting cast, also, is excellent.

Memorial Day.

Tillamook, Ore, May 14, 1919

To the public:—May 30th, memorial day, this year has a wider meaning than it ever had before, sacred as the day has been in our national life, because of the memory of the sacrifice of those who have given their lives for the establishment of the principles of liberty and justice in our beloved land.

This year its meaning has been broadened and enriched by our participation in the world war. Along with our own soldiers, men of other nations have fought and bled that these principles might be established through the whole world.

It is fitting, then, that in our observance of Memorial Day this year we give thought to its widened scope and that we render tribute to the memory of that multitude of men of all nations who in the recent war made the supreme sacrifice as soldiers of the army for the right, with this added weighty reason for the observance of Memorial Day no community should let the day pass without fitting recognition.

I can conceive of no recognition more fit than the observance of it in the school rooms, for in our schools lies the hope of the nation. So on the 30th day of May let us forget one and all the duties of every day labor and attend Memorial Services. As the Commander of Corinth Post, No. 35, G. A. R., I tender an invitation to soldiers of every war to come out and help to make May 30th the grandest Memorial ever pulled off in Tillamook City.

On May 25 the Post and W. R. C. will meet at the K. P. Hall and go to the Christian Church, at 11 o'clock a.m. All are invited to turn out.

By order,
C. E. Reynolds Commander.

GEM THEATRE PROGRAM

Saturday, May 17—"Her Inspiration" Metro production featuring May Allison. A splendid comedy drama, such as Miss Allison has always been so popular in.

"Hoot Mon" One reel Rolin Comedy.

Sunday, May 18—"Such a Little Pirate" Paramount production featuring Lila Lee. This will be a particularly pleasing photoplay. Miss Lee is cast as "Such a Little Pirate" which part she takes in wonderful style, in fact she makes a wonderful "Pirate".

Pathe News.

Tuesday May 20—"Wild Youth", J. Stuart Blackton production. A remarkable story and a remarkable cast. We are proud to be able to offer you a story by world-famous Sir Gilbert Parker. This is one of those rare pictures that you simply cannot afford to miss.

Pathe News.

Thursday, May 22—"The Call of the Soul" William Fox production featuring Gladys Brockwell. When ever Miss Brockwell appears in one of our photo productions, we feel that little need be said as to the ability of the star. She has won her way to great popularity with all.

"The Cook" Two reel Fatty Arbuckle Comedy.

"Wild Youth" At the Gem Theatre.

A story of the age-old call of youth to youth will be found at the Gem Theatre next Tuesday, May 20, when J. Stuart Blackton Paramount photoplay, "Wild Youth" will be shown. "Wild Youth" is an adaptation of Sir Gilbert Parker's famous book by that name and has been picture-ized and personally directed by Mr. Blackton himself. The story deals with the love of a young rancher for the girl wife of a crusty old neighbor, the latter role being taken by the intangible Theodore Roberts. The old husband is murdered and for a time the dark shadows of suspicion points to the girl wife and her young admirer—but events prove that another agent brought about his end. The photography which is by Paul Perry, adds greatly to the charm of the picture and the outdoor scenes, filmed in sunny California, will be greatly appreciated.
