Lumber Co., arrived in Tillamook Mr. Fred Sumner, of the Sumner Iron Works, Everett, Wash., and his .74 mill designer, Mr. Lustig. Mr. Lustig .37 is preparing plans for the remodel-.00 ing of the Hobsonville plant. The improvements contemplated will be a Simondson Log Turner, one Sumner Steam Skid Raiser, a 40 foot Sumner Air Lift Trimmer, a 40 foot Siab Slasher, a Mechanical Spotter for the edger. Another improvement contemplated is a log chain with chairs operated on an endless chain. .77 The logs will be brought up to the slip and there is a device attached to chain that grabs the log and rides it up the log slip. The mill will also be .68 equipped with the very best of live rolls throughout and there also will be a great many more improvements. .66 When the mill is complete it will be .14 one of the most modern mills on the Coast and will have a capacity of 175,000 to 200,000 feet in eight hours. There will also be installed a large band resaw on the sorting chains and a ready sizer attached to the sorting chains including an up-.30 to-date rip saw. These three machines will all be operated from the .62 sorting chains. There will be a new conveyor built, including refuse burner, and it is also contemplated put-.00 ting in spur tracks, loading sheds, .00 modern dry kilns, and modern plaining mill of sufficient capacity to handle the output of the mill. The boilers that were in the mill have .13 been removed and there will be new .86 modern boilers installed of the very .29 latest type. Mr. Lustig will give his entire time

e above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. C.A. McGhee, Cashier. ibed and sworn to before me the 21st day of May, 1919. Louis V. Eberhart, Notary Public for Oregon	ed up their new electric shingle mill at Tillamook on double shift last Monday and are now turning out 140,000 shingles per day. This new shingle mill is employing 20 men. This is quite a help to Tillamook City's payroll. The shingle mill is equipped with the latest Sumner Gold Medal Machines and they are turning out an excellent brand of shingles.
