

Convenience, comfort and economy

Wherever you go—city, country, mountains, seashore—there you will find Pearl Oil, the Standard Oil Company's kerosene. Gives the convenience of gas without the dust and dirt of coal or wood. Easy to handle.

With a good oil cookstove you will cook in comfort all year 'round. Bakes, broils, roasts, toasts—economically. Lights at the touch of a match. No waiting for fires to come up, no unnecessary work, no waste. Concentrates a steady heat on the cooking—leaving the kitchen cool and comfortable.

Pearl Oil is refined and re-refined by our special process which removes the impurities. It is clean burning.

Pearl Oil is for sale in bulk by dealers everywhere. It is the same high-quality kerosene as the Pearl Oil sold in five-gallon cans. There is a saving by buying in bulk. Order by name—Pearl Oil.

ABSOLUTE PROTECTION

Offered by the New York Life Insurance Company to Class A Risks

Amount $6,000, Age 35, Plan Ordinary Life

WHAT IT PROVIDES:

- IF YOU LIVE— It protects your old age. The cash value of your policy increases from year to year, and with the dividends left with the Company at interest, creates a rapidly compounding fund. The accumulated dividends can be used eventually to pay up the remaining premiums, leaving a paid up insurance for life, or the cash value and accumulated dividends may be drawn out in cash at the time of greatest need.
- IF YOU DIE— Your heirs will receive $6,000 cash, plus all dividends you have left with the Company to accumulate.
- IF YOU DIE—BY ACCIDENT— Your heirs will receive $12,000 cash (double the face value of the policy), plus all the dividends you have left with the company to accumulate.
- IF YOU BECOME WHOLLY AND PERMANENTLY DISABLED You yourself will receive $600 per annum cash income for life. All further premium payments, by you, will be waived, and whenever you die $6,000 cash will be paid to your heirs—or $12,000 if you die as the result of accident).
- IF YOU NEED MONEY After three years' premiums have been paid the Company will make a loan on the policy promptly on request at the interest rate of 6 per cent. and [if then insurable] for a slight additional sum you can arrange terms of the policy for the loan to be canceled in the event of death.
- IF YOU QUIT AFTER THREE YEARS Even then you come out ahead in money saved. Most of your premiums paid, after deduction of the cost of life insurance for the period in force, will be refunded.

Annual Premium—$182.76

You have the option of greatly reducing the amount of this premium by instructing the Company to deduct the annual dividends.

IN A NUTSHELL

If misfortune or accident befalls you this policy replaces your business activities and takes care of your family and yourself. If none of these things happen, you have lost nothing. You have put away every year a SMALL SUM, but you have accumulated a LARGE SUM that guarantees the bread and butter of your old age. This is absolute protection that no man who understands it will let that he can afford to be without.

What the Editors Say

They do say as how ministers' sons are always bad eggs. Well, there are some people, in view of the prohibition stand of our president, that are of the opinion that he is running true to form.—Observer.

The United States is to retain the 700,000 tons of German shipping seized in American ports when this country entered the war. Great Britain had proposed that this tonnage as well as German ships seized in other countries be placed in a common pool and allotted on the basis of tonnage lost through action of enemy submarines. The United States has steadfastly refused to accede to this plan.—Telephone Register.

Gov. Shoup, of Colorado, who is as democratic as an old shoe, seems to be a friend of the newspapers. He vetoed a drastic libel law put over by the legislature in an anti-free press crusade. It is a remarkable fact that the socialistic and soviet-inclined reformer want to cripple a free press. It is gratifying to know that one western governor is not afraid of the power of the press.—Sheridan Sun.

On the whole the experiment of government operation has been one of the most fortunate chapters in the economic history of the nation. It has tried an arrangement which formerly was an issue, and found it wanting. Government control of 240,944 miles of America's railway system, according to official figures for the first three months of 1919, shows cost to taxpayers to be $176,116,065. The same period in 1918 showed a loss of $146,462,329. And this with increased rates and reduced service.—Telephone Register.

A New York divine is advocating Sunday baseball. That is nothing. Every session of the Kansas legislature for years was invaded by cranks wanting to abolish Sunday baseball.

A Topeka minister was always on deck opposing the scheme. He wrote a brief in favor of Sunday baseball and succeeded always in beating the cranks on the bill. Of course, we know that any body can prove any theory he has by citing scripture, but we sincerely believe that if Jesus himself were here running the churches that he would favor Sunday baseball, Sunday movies and every other clean form of Sunday recreation.—Gazette Times.

Kable "jaws" farmers and—"Why is it that no matter where you go you refuse to get along with the business man in your nearest city?" asks George W. Kable, county agent of Benton County, Oregon. "Why do you object to working with him for the interests of the entire county?" And why do you permit farmer Smith to do his trading in some other city, thereby alienating him from his own?" he inquires turning to the merchant. "The welfare of the country is not served by refusing to act together, and so long as the farmer or business man carries a chip on his shoulder conditions will not change." It's a pull together spirit that moves a community and spells "progress" which improves conditions and increases the valuation of all property.—Banks Herald.

It Might Have Happened.

"What you got to say for yourself, young man? Guilty or not guilty?" "Begging your pardon sir, or your Honor—I didn't know I was breaking no law, just taking a social drink and I had a kind of cold anyway." "Didn't know you were breaking the law? Don't you know what the prohibition law is? Don't you know Oregon is dry?—What's that you hadn't noticed it. How long you lived here, where've you been for the last two years?"

"Begging pardon sir—er Judge—er your honor—it's this way: I'm a stranger here, just come to Portland recently. I am a waiter sir by profession, used to wait in some of the hotels in New York, waited on some of the biggest men, sir, in the country. So I got a job at once at that big hotel down the street."

"Well, what's that got to do with your drinking alcoholic liquor?" "Begging pardon, sir, it's this way. As I was saying I waited on the table a week ago Friday at a banquet that the lawyers of Portland, Oregon City and the rest of the state were giving to a lot of young lawyers what has been lieuts., captains, soldiers and sailors in the war and there was a lot of speeches and judges and I seen a lot of them—"

"That'll do, that'll do, case is dismissed—bring on the next."—Oregon Voter.

Herron and his Crowd.

An effort is being made through the courts to secure the use of the United States mails for circulation of printed propaganda of the bolshevik government of Russia. Specifically, the contention is that a pamphlet by Nixolai Lenine justifying his methods should be admitted to the mail. The organization conducting the litigation is a radical institution in New York called the Rand School of Social Science, which by its newest enterprise definitely proclaims itself an active center of bolshevism in the United States. The founder of this school, and one of its mainstays, is Professor George Herron, advocate of extreme socialism, free love and allied doctrines, who early this year was named by President Wilson official representative of the United States to a conference that was to have taken place with bolshevik envoys from Russia. The conference did not take place, though Herron and his colleagues were present at the rendezvous. Apparently the bolsheviks were not as anxious to treat with us as our president was to treat with them.

Thus we see the type of man to whom the president was willing to give the responsibility and prestige of an accredited diplomatic representative of the country. Leaving aside the question of Herron's personal character and moral convictions, which were widely aired at the time of his appointment, we see him now in the role of leader of an organization that undertakes to be in the United States the mouthpiece of the Lenine government. What sort of statesmanship is there in an appointment of that kind?—Spokesman Review.

Ma and the Motor Car.

Before we take a motor trip, Pa says to Ma, "My dear. Now just remember I don't need assistance from the rear; If you will just keep still back there and hold in check your fright, I'll take you were you want to go and get you back all right. Remember that my hearing's good and also I'm not blind, And I can drive this car without suggestion from behind."

Ma promises that she'll keep still; then off we gladly start. But soon she notices ahead a peddler and his cart.

"You'd better toot your horn," says she, "to let him know we're near. He might turn out," and Pa replies, "Just shriek at him, my dear."

And then he adds: "Some day some guy will make a lot of dough By putting horns on tonneau seats for women folks to blow."

A little further on Ma says: "He signaled for a turn." And Pa says: "Did he!" in a tone that's hot enough to burn.

"Oh, there's a boy on roller skates!" Ma cries; "now do go slow; I'm sure he doesn't see our car." And Pa says: "I dunno; I think I don't need glasses yet, but really it may be

That I am blind an' cannot see what is right in front of me."

An' keeps him posted on the roads the dangers of the street If Pa should speed the car a bit, some rigs to hurry past.

Ma says: "Now do be careful! You are driving much too fast." An' all the time she's pointing out where street cars he will meet.

Last night, when we got safely home Pa sighed and said: "My dear, I'm sure we've all enjoyed the drive you gave us from the rear."

TAKE IT IN TIME.

Just as Scores of Tillamook People Have.

Waiting does not pay. If you neglect kidney backache, Urinary troubles often follow. Act in time by curing the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for weak kidneys.

Many people in this locality recommend them.

Here's one case: James C. Duncan, real estate dealer, 315 S. Meridian St., Newberg, Ore., says: "I used to be subject to kidney trouble. I had a too frequent desire to pass the secretions, especially during the night and had to get up several times. After taking a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, my kidneys became normal. Just as soon as I notice my kidneys are not acting just right, I take Doan's Kidney Pills a few days and they never fail to relieve the trouble."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Duncan had. Foster Milburn Co. Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Pr Adv.
