Scraps of Paper.

Don't see why the Democrats got Cummings for chairman when it is so apparent that they should have picked someone named Goings.

A bull has been sold in Michigan for $125,000, but it is not the first evidence of the high price of bull the country has had in recent years.

The Democratic training in autocar at Washington has been so thorough that the Democratic minority in the senate announced the other day that it was aggrieved because it had not been permitted to make the majority assignments on the committees.

"Until there is concrete proof of the fact," says the New Work World "we shall refuse to believe that the United States Senate has gone crazy" Until there is some concrete proof of the fact people generally will decline to believe that the New York World has become sane.

There is no reason to believe that those who think the proposed league of nations would keep us out of war are insincere and most of them who cried in 1916 "Thank God for Wilson he kept us out of war" really believe they were making a reasonable statement.

The Democratic national publicity bureau announces: "Chataougas can't be used by the G. O. P." Doubtless the democratic managers have the idea that they have acquired exclusive rights, and judging from the administration dope that has been handed out in such nauseating quantities in between the jugglers and the bell ringers on some of the circuits they may be right.

The Democratic party's idea of democracy is exemplified in Mississippi from that state 25,000 black and 19,000 white men were conscripted to save the world from democracy. Not one of these black men, under the laws and practices instituted by democrats, has the slightest thing to do with electing even one of the congressmen authorized to conscript him for military service to defend democracy!

President Wilson says those who opposed his world constitution will some day be ashamed of themselves. If the fellows who ran the campaign of 1916 on the slogan "Thank God for Wilson: He kept us out of war" can hold up their heads it is not safe to predict that anybody is ever going to be embarrassed about anything.

Henry Ford thinks the Democrats constitute the "liberal" party of the country. Well, they were "liberal" in buying Eagle boats and other things with the people's money. By the way, the government's conscience fund is still awaiting the return of Henry's war profits.

During the brief period of government operation of telegraphs a deficit of a million dollars were created. The results of political control of industry are these: First, increased rates; second, inferior service; third, deficits to be paid by the people for the proud privilege of paying more and getting less than under private management.

Speaker Frederick Gillett expressed the opinion that Mexico ought to quit raising hell and go to raising food; quit playing politics all the time and go to work. This raising quite a storm. What a sensation it creates when a man in public life tells the real truth.

If delay in making peace is brought about through the scheme of political blackmail involved in incorporating the league of nations scheme in the peace treaty, where it has no more legitimate place than the Koran, then the responsibility for that delay rests squarely upon the shoulders of the framers of that covenant and their apologists and defenders, not upon those who decline to eat an apple with a dose of arsenic imbedded in it.

After helping to put the Wilsonized Democracy into power twice, William Randolph Hearst begins to squawk for a new party. Naturally enough, in view of what it is obvious is going to happen to his erstwhile organization, but in looking for something new does Hearst think the people are fools enough to follow the leadership of those who foisted the present conditions upon them?

Just the same the men who fell in the great war whose results have been so far frittered away by politicians in months of fruitless palaver died for the American flag and not the international flag. They do not find a true interpreter of their motives in any statesman who once boasted that Americans were "too proud to fight" in a war "whose causes do not touch us."
