The cow population of Tillamook county is more than the citizen population.

Wonder whether the league of nations is anything like the Oregon system, which was to cure all our political ills?

Germany has decided to accept the terms of peace imposed by the allies, and it is expected that the treaty of peace will be signed on Friday afternoon. Wonder whether the Germans will consider it merely a "scrap of paper," for it seems to be the opinion that she will violate it at the first opportunity if the allies are not insistent on the terms being carried out.

The destruction of the German fleet at Scapa Flow by the German crews is only another illustration of the treachery of the German people. It was a violation of some of the conditions of the armistice, but it again proves that the Germans treat treaties as scraps of paper. So it will be with the treaty of peace. They will treat that as a scrap of paper when they feel they are able to start another world war.

The National Republican says: "If, as some of the pulpites claim, we are living in a world that has been regenerated by the war, then the warriors and the politicians have accomplished in four years what the Christian religion and its preachers and teachers have failed to accomplish in nineteen centuries. But this theory about the world being born anew, all of a sudden is merely some of the big talk of the time that has a very small element of truth in it."

It must be that the women of Tillamook are not up to date in fashions. A woman, just arrived in the city from Portland was wearing men's duds with the exception of shoes which were high heeled. Last summer a large number of the fair sex breezed into Tillamook dressed in similar fashion. Wonder how the snap shot man and some of the business men would look strutting about the city dressed up in women's duds. It might be a drawing card as an advertising stunt.

It is reported that the government has on hand 280,000,000 lbs. of meat products, and is holding the same so as to prevent the pulling down of high prices. It seems to us that one of the planks in the Democratic platform promised to reduce the high cost of living. Since then it has doubled, and now that the government is holding 280,000,000 lbs. of meat products it is doing the opposite of reducing the high cost of living.

United States Senator Chamberlain having antagonized President Wilson, must be getting ready to run another non-partisan campaign, with the hope of catching a lot of Republican suckers. Our George is pretty foxy. He knows that Wilson and the Democratic party will go down to the ignominious defeat on account of the willful waste and spend thrift policy of the government in conducting the war, and like a rat in a sinking vessel, George don't want to go down in the wreck.

Two very important incidents occurred in the last stages of the peace controversy with Germany. One shows distinctly that the old military rulers and junkers are still in power in that country, and that was the reason they strenuously opposed that the ex-kaiser and those who are responsible for the war should be turned over to the allies. There is no getting away from the fact that the allies should have continued the war until Germany was badly licked and brought to her knees. The German government has become arrogant, and it is our candid opinion that as soon as Germany is in a position to renew the war it is going to do so.

Clean up, paint up, and everybody spruce up, before the 4th of July. Anyway it will give the city a better appearance if it had a good shaking up in this direction every once in a while. There is no reason why Tillamook City should be lagging behind in the clean-up movement. As it is said that charity should commence at home, it will make a wonderful improvement in the appearance of the city if there was a good clean up about the homes with all new coat of paint, and the weeds cut. Somebody must have the reputation of having the cleanest looking home in the city. Likewise somebody must have the cleanest, unsanitary looking home.

If the League of Nations is going to amount to anything we cannot see the necessity for the United States maintaining a standing army of 400,000 men. One third of that number is plenty. And then there are those that are harping on a big navy. It is the big army of non-producers especially at Washington, that is one cause of heavy taxation. When the allies confined Germany to an army of 100,000 men in the treaty of peace, it put a stop to a large amount of expenditure in that country and placed hundreds of thousands of men in productive occupation. The same rule would apply to the United States. One of our exchanges suggest that the United States needs a big army and navy to enforce the payment of nearly ten billion dollars loaned to European countries.

From the tone of an editorial in the last week's Nestucca Valley Enterprise Bro. Bialock seems to think that some of the county officials should be sent to the state penitentiary on account of the auto accident at Meda last week. This is what he says: "There ought to be a law to punish officers who criminally neglect their duty." Let's see, Brother Bialock is a preacher and supposed to be a Christian gentleman, yet is wanting to send some of our citizens, who are equally as good citizens and probably better Christians than he is to the state penitentiary for criminal negligence. A narrow minded preacher running a newspaper is a misfit. True there are many roads in the county that are not in the condition most of us would like to see them, but that does not constitute criminal negligence on the part of the county officials. If Bro. Bialock had stated that it is criminal negligence for autos to be driven at furious speed over the county he would come near preaching the truth and not falsehoods. Well, it is hard to make some people's Christianity jibe with genuine Christianity when they want to send their fellow citizens to the state penitentiary.

The untimely death of Wayne Jackson last week, the victim of an automobile accident at Meda, is to be deplored, for the county lost an industrious young man. We do not coincide with those who are attempting to throw the blame of the accident upon county officials. The cause of so many auto accidents and deaths is because people forget the slogan "safety first." The very fact that the county officials were forced to employ a "speed cop" and a large number of arrests are being made go to prove that the county officials are endeavoring to prevent accidents as much as possible. Here is the whole trouble: There are not many roads in the county that are suitable to drive over at the 30 mile speed limit, but it is an every day occurrence to see persons traveling at fifty miles an hour, and the tin lizzies traveling as fast as it is possible for them to travel. Considering there are a thousand and one dangerous places in the county, the person who fails to use proper precautions are the ones to blame, not the county officials, when an accident happens. It will never be known how the accident happened to young Jackson. He may have been using wise discretion, or he may have been traveling too fast over a piece of road that was not suitable for fast driving. So it is just as well to take this into consideration before condemning anyone for Jackson's untimely death, for it is generally conceded there is too much speeding and not enough precautions taken by those who drive machines to prevent accidents, and that is the reason why the taxpayers have to employ and pay a "speed cop". It may not be generally known that the road where the accident happened is to be improved by money obtained by the sale of bonds which the voters authorized at the special election, consequently the county officials were not disposed to expend much money upon it until it is permanently improved. Just to show how sudden auto accidents happen, we have in mind several that happened recently. One was a gentleman who was driving around the Hobsonville hill and went over the grade in a dangerous place. Asked how it happened, his reply was: "I don't know. The first thing I knew I was over the grade." The same remark was made where two other accidents occurred in this county recently. As auto accidents are every day occurrences, it behooves people to be more careful in driving, especially over roads that are not suitable for fast driving, and where it is dangerous. That is the class of people who should be admonished, not county officials, who are doing their best, with a limited amount of money, to give as good roads as possible. One reason why the snap shot man has been advocating a hard surfaced roads through the county is because we know it will prevent fatal accidents similar to that which happened to young Jackson last week.

Junior Class Party—Harrison-Stam Wedding—K. P. Picnic Saturday.

The Junior Class of the High School gave a party to the seniors on the evening of Saturday, June 21. The hosts and their guests with the faculty assembled at the High School and then went to the Gem Theatre, to see Alla Nazimova, in her picture, "Out of The Fog". After the show they went back to the High School where the young ladies had prepared a banquet in the domestic science rooms, which had been transformed for the occasion into a beautiful room of old gold and royal purple, the class colors.

A most enjoyable time was had by all, the affair being handled and planned with care that caused every one to have a pleasant evening. About forty seniors and juniors attended.

The Misses Helen Gibson, Audrey Eari, Essie Erickson and Lucile White were on the committee that handled the affair, and much credit goes to them for their overseeing thoughtfulness in the arrangements.

The wedding of Leslie Harrison and Miss Helen Stam was solemnized Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stam, with Rev. Harry Tucker, of the Christian Church, officiating. The bride's home was decorated with flowers for the ceremony. The bride was a popular young lady who has taught school in the county and the groom is returned from the army, where he was in the Tenth Coast Artillery and was stationed at Ft. Columbia and was in France only two days when the armistice was signed.

Only a few friends and members of the family attended the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Doty acted as best man and bridesmaid. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Harrison, Rev. Tucker and Mrs. Tucker, Herbert Stam, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stam.

M. T. Chance and wife, who was Mrs. Erma Buffum and a teacher near Cloverdale, returned from a short honeymoon trip to Portland and will live on Mr. Chance's farm near Beaver.

A picnic was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Coats, of Seattle and Mrs. Gertrude Fredericks and son of Portland on Wednesday last. The party drove to Bester's Ford where they spent the late afternoon fishing and later had a picnic lunch, coming back about eleven o'clock. Those who enjoyed the affair were Mr and Mrs. A. O. Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Schultz and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Schultz and children, Mrs. F. B. Stranahan and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Anderson and family, F. C. McGuire, C. F. Beltz and A. F. Beltz, Mr. MacShane, Miss Laura Bays and Miss Eugenia Smith.

The marriage of Miss A. Johnson and Elmer Bailey took place Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage. Rev. Chas. Gibson officiating.

High School Seniors Ready to be Graduated.

The Tillamook High School graduating class of nineteen, will be given their diplomas Friday evening, June 27, at the close of the exercises in the High School auditorium. The seniors are having a merry time before their graduation, as many affairs are being given by their friends and classmates for them before they leave school.

On Saturday night, they were guests of the Junior class at a party at the Gem Theatre, when at the close of the show they returned to the high school, the domestic science rooms had been transformed into a lovely banquet hall with the aid of many flowers and ribbons of old gold and royal purple, the class colors. Here they stayed and had many speeches and enjoyed the evening till Sunday neared.

Sunday morning, Dr. E. S. Richards, of Willamette University delivered the baccalaureate address at the Christian Church. Supt. of Schools, O. V. White presided. On Thursday, the seniors will celebrate senior day with a big party and program in the evening.

Dr. Richards address was on "The God in You". You ought not to be selfish in regard to your self, he said, for man is created in the image and likeness of God, more than any other animal. A persons first duty was to oneself, in seeing that one could benefit society.

The speaker eloquently and convincingly cried that the self used as a means of personal advancement, was a poison in a community. This was the greatest crime of selfishness, he said, and should be guarded against at all times. One should devote themselves to a life of service and to harmony with the social group they are in, he pointed out.

At the opening of the morning, Miss Eunice Swenson played a march as the class came into the church, after marching from the High School with the faculty. The program was as follows: Invocation... Rev. Harry Tucker. Song... Congregation. Scripture Reading... Dr. Richards. Music by Double Quartet... Mrs. Oscar Swenson, Mrs. Carl Swenson, Mrs. Cook, Miss Alice Todd, Miss Jones, Mrs. Rose Williams, Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Emburn.

Introduction to speaker, O. V. White. Sermon... Dr. E. S. Richards. Benediction... Rev. C. E. Gibson. The pupils who will receive diplomas are: Hazel Klinehan, Edna Anderson, Carl Anderson, Arthur Bester, Ella Glad, Beverly Daniels, Faye Harris, Ozella Hart, W. G. Willmot, Laura Leach, Glenn Lench, James R. May, Maude Miller, Joseph Schnal, Elaine Todd, Eugenia Smith, Mayme LaFollett, Bernice Ripley and Esther Heusser.

Dr. John Straub, dean of the school of Liberal Arts at the University of Oregon, will deliver the address at the exercises Friday night.

"Under the Greenwood Tree" To be Shown at the Gem Monday June 30.

When Emil Chautard, director of Elsie Ferguson's latest Artcraft starring vehicle, "Under the Greenwood Tree" which will be shown at the Gem Theatre next Monday began the production of that photoplay he was in urgent need of a bad real gypsies. Mr. Chautard believes in realism in picture producing and when he needs pirates, burglars or bar-maids in a photoplay, he insists upon having the real thing every time.

So when the story of "Under the Greenwood Tree" called for a bunch of gypsies, he went out in search of them. In the hills of Northern New Jersey tribes of gypsies may be found and Mr. Chautard started out in his motor car in search of them. In the woods above Suffern, he encountered a band of picturesque gypsies one of whom approached him with extended arms.

It then developed that Mr. Chautard had met this same gypsy in Hungary twenty five years ago and the latter was proud to introduce the director to his fellows, particularly Mr. Chautard spoke their language. The entire band was engaged and all appear in Miss Ferguson's new photoplay.
