Dean Straub Prophecies Great Future For Tillamook.

Dr. John Straub, dean of men and of the College of Liberal Arts at the University of Oregon, came in Friday to deliver the address to the graduating class of the High School at the Christian Church Friday night. He stayed over Sunday to attend the K. of P. Picnic at Netarts, and liked the beach so well that he is trying to make arrangements to come over and stay a month, leasing the cottage, "The Breakers."

Dean Straub is very enthusiastic over the beach and Tillamook, saying that he thinks the beach is wonderful, and prophesying a great future for Tillamook. The fine factory cities just west of town on the Tillamook river, he said should in twenty years be lined with factories. If a basin could be dredged there so the boats could turn round, he believes a great harbor could be had for Tillamook. Dr. Straub left Monday morning.

Swastika Club—Mr. White's Party For Seniors—Senior Party Kill Kare Meeting

Mrs. Webster Holmes gave an informal afternoon party Wednesday at her home at Hobsonville. A large number of her friends were present.

A most delightful evening was spent by all who attended the High School Senior day program last Thursday night, at the assembly room. A surprise that would please everybody was promised by the committee in charge, and when the guests arrived they found a campfire in the front of the room surrounded by cushions, blankets and rugs, while at the back was a large tent. This was the feature of the evening and part of the "Class Will," for no sooner did Elaine Todd read, "is willed a milk pail and three-legged stool," then out of the tent came the stool and pail, much to the amusement of the audience.

The tent contained many and curious articles, all of which were being willed to the students, and the hilarity and spontaneity of the "gifts" presentation, kept everyone laughing. One girl was willed a wash tub and wash-board, and when all the will was finished the hob-nobbing of milk maid, wash-woman and millionaire was funny and laugh provoking in every way.

The class song was an original composition, both as to words and music, and was written by Miss Faye Harris and Miss Olive Ingler, who both deserve praise for the niceness of their composition. A song by the girl's quartette, the Misses Ozella Hart, Olive Ingler, Ella Glad and Esther Heusser delighted the audience. A violin solo by Joe Schnal, accompanied by Miss Olive Ingler, and a song by Miss Mayme LaFollett, accompanied by Miss Helen Gibson, made up the rest of the charming musical numbers of the evening.

The class prophecy was read by Miss Hazel Klinehan, and the history by Bill Wilmot. Miss Eugenia Smith gave a reading pleasantly, and in a way that the audience appreciated. The introductory address of the evening was made by supt. of schools, O. V. White, whom the students say, had kindly helped them, and encouraged a good time in every way. His talk was followed by that of Carl Anderson, the Senior class president, which was responded to by the Junior class president, Harry Elliott.

With a great deal of merriment and laughter from all sides, the party ended with everyone noisily cheerful and happy.

One of the largest parties of the season was held after the graduation exercises last Friday night, when the graduates and a number of friends were invited to the home of Supt. O. V. White for a little lunch, as a parting token of his regard for them. Thirty six guests in all were asked and enjoyed the delightful party.

Toasts were made by Dean Straub, the graduation exercise speaker; by J. Merrill Smith, a member of the board; by Carl Anderson, the senior's president; and Professor White gave a word or two. The dining room had been turned into a forest bower, with evergreen boughs lining the walls, while the tables were strewn with beautiful, sweet smelling flowers. Delicious cakes and ice cream were served before the midnight hour.

Those beside the nineteen graduates bidden to the charming affair and for whom place cards were laid, were: Dean John Straub, J. Merrill Smith and wife, Miss Ethel White, Mr. Bennett, the Misses Skidmore, Brakel, Curry and Everson; Mr. and Mrs. Hanson, Mr. Johnson and wife.

Miss White played for the guests during the serving of refreshments and the party broke up with every one wishing the seniors could graduate three or four times a year.

The Kill Kare Klub met at the home of Mrs. Carl Haberlach, on Thursday last, with Mrs. J. E. Reedy assistant to the hostess. After the business meeting, games were played, and in a guessing contest, Mrs. C. J. Edwards won first prize. Besides the 13 members who were present, the guests were Mesdames, Crenshaw, Partridge, H. H. Rosenberg, J. H. Rosenberg and D. Kuratli.

Delicious refreshments were served and the next meeting place will be with Mrs. Roy Jones, with Mrs. Morrison assisting.

The Swastika Club met at the home of Mrs. H. E. Tucker, Friday, June 27. The guests were Mrs. Buell, Mrs. Jones, and Mrs. Hart. A pleasant afternoon was spent with fancy work and playing games. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, after which the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Burge in July.

An informal surprise dinner-party was given by Mrs. White at the charming home of O. V. White on Monday evening in commemoration of his birthday. The house was decorated with bowls of lovely, varicolored flowers, and the table beautified with a beautiful centerpiece of pansies. Miss Lucile assisted her mother with the serving.

Among those enjoying the hospitality of the White's were the Rev. and Mrs. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Carstiff, Mr. Tracy Byers and Mr. and

To the School Boys and Girls of Tillamook County.

Would you like to have a souvenir of the Great War? Of course every boy and girl wants that very thing. Here is how you may obtain one.

When the war closed the government had on hand fifteen million hand grenades, for use on the Western front.

Now they are savings banks. They have been provided with a slot and a chamber to receive the pennies and dimes of American boys and girls who are saving to invest in savings stamps.

The Savings Division of the Treasury Department is offering you these to encourage you to save during your vacation. That department has made this plan whereby you may secure this bank. One grenade bank may be secured at any opening school in September by any pupil ten years old or younger who exhibits one War Savings Stamp, and if more than ten years old two War Savings Stamp, purchased with money earned during vacation, and who brings with it the story showing how much money was earned.

I hope all school boys and girls will earn one of these "Souvenirs of the War."

G. B. Lamb,
County W. S. S. Chairman.

Industrial Clubs in the County.

Certificates of achievement for completion of required industrial work for those enrolling in the Industrial Clubs at county schools have been received by three of Tillamook county's schools. These successful clubs were the Sand Lake school, which has won a certificate for three years; the Hemlock school and the Hunt school.

The teachers under whose charge the work was completed are Mrs. Lelia Doty, at the Hunt school; Miss Vera Barnes, at the Hemlock school; and Miss Claudia Brown, at the Sand Lake school. The work undertaken to win these certificates must be completed by at least 75 percent of the club, a report sent to the Oregon Agricultural College and an exhibition prepared.

The Hunt school which had slightly over 75 percent complete the work had the following successful pupils: Ernest Gienger, Nelson Paul, James Tone, John Gienger, Agnes Hunter, Pauline Gienger, Gladys Klinehan, and Marie Gienger. The Hemlock club which won its certificate with 100 percent had Henry Newberg, Raymond O'Neil, and Annie Newberg as its members. The Sandlake school with the largest number enrolled in its clubs also made a record of 100 percent completions with these students: Augusta Edwards, Mary Ward, Alice Carter, Maude Webb, Alta Galloway, Mabel Galloway, Clara Galloway, Eola Brown, Edward Cameron, Floyd Cameron, Jim Anderson, Miles Robertson, Harry Robertson, Milo Carter, Claude Webb, Gertrude Brandt, Florence Hayes, Marion Davis, and Clara Ward.

Many new families are moving into town since the mill put on both day and night shifts, about June 15th. More household goods arrive at the depot every day or so.

Mrs. O. E. Shelley lost a garnet bead necklace last week and put an ad in the Headlight, and the necklace was returned the next day.

The beginning of the season at Bayocean caused Jones' Merchandise store to open a branch there last Sunday.

Bernice Nelson, an O. A. C. student, returned home last week and will spend the summer in part in clerking in her father's store.

A change in the management of the Bay View Hotel is expected soon.

Monday night Clare Provoost had just driven up in front of his father's store, when a runaway team, with a wagon from the mill dashed by. Clare jumped in the machine, and sped after the runaways, catching up with the team and passing them. Then he got his machine directly in front of the team and began slowing down, crying "Whoa", all the time. The team had to slow down too, and finally stopped. Mr. Provoost may be congratulated on his thoughtfulness.

Frances Provoost is expected home before the Fourth. He has not been home since he entered the army two years ago, and was a lieutenant.

Nazarene Annual Report.

The Pentecost Church of the Nazarene has just closed its conference year at the annual District Assembly which convened at Newberg, Oregon, June 18-22. By a unanimous vote of the local church, the pastor, Rev. A. F. Ingler, was called for the ensuing year, and the General Superintendent returned him with congratulations.

Rev. Ingler came to Tillamook last October upon recommendation of the District Superintendent and the call of the church, and, in spite of the flu and other handicaps, the church was enabled to send an excellent report to the annual assembly. Last Sunday evening was devoted to giving reports of the recent Assembly by the pastor, delegates and friends who were in attendance, and they were inspiring and encouraging. The outlook is one of increasing faith and hope, and the little flock is grateful to the Great Shepherd for His care and approval. The following is a financial report which was read to the congregation on a recent Sunday morning and is published herewith at the request of friends who are not members of the Nazarene church:

Value of Church property	$2,490.50
Indebtedness on same	750.00
Amounts raised for
Building & improvements	$ 656.12
General Superintendent	15.00
District Superintendents	75.00
Pastor, for 3 months, benevolence (sides parsonage)	600.00
Home Missions	54.64
Foreign Missions	269.35
Church extension	204.56
Education	260.00
Publishing House	25.00
Other benevolences	72.58
Rent of Church lot	36.00
Evangelists	132.79
Current expenses	167.40
Sunday School Expenses	105.86
Total amount raised	$2,674.20

The church reported 34 members at their annual meeting and, of this number, about 20 persons paid the bills for the conference year. Cheerfully submitted,
A. F. Ingler, Pastor,
Wm. Fletcher, Treasurer
