COAXING YOU TO SMILE

A young man decided to give his had never been in a train before, and over 40 lbs. each. he commenced the journey with trepidation. All went well until the train suddenly dashed into a tunnel. Bang went the old man's fist on his son's nose as he cried: 'I told you something would happen, you young villian! I'm struck blind!"

A lady had invited to dinner an old friend who had lost his nose in an accident. Taking her young daughter aside before his arrival, she cautioned her to be very careful to make no remarks about Mr. Robinson's nose, as he was very sensitive about it. At the table everything went well for a time, until Carry, who had been studying the guest's face in apparent perplexity, turned inquiring to her mother, and asked: "Ma, why did you tell me to say nothing about Mr. Robinsin's nose? He hasent got any."

A certain well known author has always professed astonishment at the unfalling memory of the attendants who stand at hotel dining-rooms, receive the hats of the guests as they enter, and unerringly return them to their proper owners as they come out. One day on leaving the dining-room of a large summer hotel he stopped and spoke with the attendant who had handed him his hat from among a hundred others. "How do you know," he asked him, "that this is my hat?" "I don't know sir,' was the reply. "Then why did you give it to me?" 'Because you handed it to me,

A teacher in "Comic School Tales" was giving a lesson on the circulation of the blood. Trying to make the matter clearer, he said: "Now boys, if I stood on my head the blood would run into it, and I should turn red in the face." "Yes sir," said the boys.

"Now," continued their teacher, 'what I want to know is this: How is it that while I am standing upright in the ordinary position 'the blood doesn't run into my feet? A little fellow shouted.

"Why, sir, because your feet ain't

Unbelieveable.

When Roosevelt was governor of New York he knew quite well a farmer who lived at a house on the road where the governor, riding horseback, would always stop for a rest. One day when the governor rode up the farmer was reading a New York paper, "Governor," he asked, "aren't those New York papers pretty tall liars?" "Why what makes you think they are?" "Well, here's a story I was just a-reading of a man who paid $14,000 for a picture of a cow, I don't believe it." "Why not?" asked T. R. "Because" said the farmer, "I don't believe there's any man in New York would pay $14,000 for anything he couldn't milk."

It really does seem unnecessary to pend a lot of government money hauling President Wilson around the ountry arousing public sentiment against the senate, when, as he admits himself, only a handful differ with him as it is.
