 Wednesday, Sept. 3—"His Parisian Wife" A Paramount production featuring Elsie Ferguson.
 Thursday, Sept 4—"Words and Music", featuring two new stars, "Perfectly Fiendish Flannigan" 2 reel comedy.

SOCIETY

A happily thought out surprise party was given Will Coburn at his home Saturday night. Games, cards and dancing were all indulged in by the merry-makers, and the jolly lasted until the wee small hours when the party ended. A lovely birthday cake with twenty—you can guess how many more, candles on it, was brought in and later served with the delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Coburn received the guests, and later were assisted by several of the ladies in serving the refreshments. Those bidden to the cheerful affair included the Misses Evelyn Hoag, Gladys and Vera Jones, Edna Mills, Blanche Stark, Gladys Glaisyer, Hazel Lamar, Faye Hill and Gordon Hare, Walter Stark, Howard Erskine, Tracy Byers, Harry Elliott, Dewey Handley, August Boquist, Alfred Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Clark and children, Mr. and Mrs. Cardiff, Mrs. Feldshau and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Oathout and Mr. and Mrs. Hoag.

Appropriately engraved announcements of the marriage of Miss Pearl Miller, daughter of Mrs. Nora Gard Miller, of Canby, to Forrest M. Gist, of Cloverdale, have been received here by friends of the bride and groom. The ceremony took place at the church at Canby. The happy couple will be at home at Cloverdale after November 1st.

Greatly charmed with the ways, customs and beauty of the United States is Miss Kathreen Lambert, of London, England, who came to the United States during the war, and is living at Portland. Miss Lambert has been a guest of Miss Harriett Gaylord for a while, and left for her home Tuesday morning.

Miss Lambert is particularly impressed with the school system of the United States, for in England, high schools are not public, and there are practically no openings for women in the business world. She is now attending the Franklin high school in Portland.

May Allison to be Seen in New Metro Romance.

"Castles in the Air," the brilliant comedy romance of which May Allison is the star, will be the feature at the Gem Theatre next Saturday.

In this lively and appealing drama Miss Allison enacts the role of Fortuna, a poor but romantic girl who believes that some day, like the heroines of the lurid novels of which she is fond, she will meet a millionaire and have all the happiness of her namesake.

How she does meet the man of wealth but how her own romance comes from another and quite unexpected quarter, are incidents which go to make a play of distinction and charm. Fortuna is a lovable little character—a character of the kind in which May Allison excels,—and her dreams and expectations, and her eventual happiness, combine to create a picture of winning appeal.

Ray-Fair Production is Opera Romance.

A story which is said to have a special appeal to musicians, and particularly to those who have written the lyrics or music for songs and have had difficulty in getting them published, will be told in a motion picture, at the Gem Theatre Thursday, September 4. The production is a William Fox drama entitled "Words and Music By—" in which two new stars, Albert Ray and Elinor Fair, are featured.

The actors are seen in the roles, respectively, of composer and singer, and the action deals with their struggle to achieve success. The boy has written an opera, part of which is stolen, and the difficulties he encounters in establishing his claim to authorship are not overcome until the end of the picture in a dramatic scene showing the first night of the opera in New York. Much of the action centers about a music publisher's studio in famous Tin Pan Alley. The play is said to be typically American, strong in heart interest and well flavored with comedy and stirring action.

Alice Brady in "The Knife."

As Kate Tarleton in "The Knife," adapted from Eugene Walter's dramatic success of the same name by Charles Maigne and directed by Robt. G. Vivnola, Alice Brady appears in a third Select Star Series production. This picture, which follows her brilliant achievements in "Her Silent Sacrifice" and "Woman and Wife" will be the attraction at the Gem Theatre next Sunday.

Kate is a Southern girl on a visit to New York, where her interest in fortune tellers leads her into a trap disguised as a clairvoyant's establishment, where she is drugged and imprisoned. Her lover and guardian, Dr. Robert Manning, famed for his surgical researches, finally finds her there; and reaks his vengeance on the villainous pair who are responsible for his fiancee's predicament by using them as subjects for his experimentation. Later, Kate is restored to health, and although at first she recalls nothing of her life before she was drugged, it all comes back to her soon after, and she feels herself unworthy of Manning's love. He reassures her however, and they decide to pass their lives together in the placid surroundings of her Southern home.

A gripping photoplay with real heart-interest, superbly cast and splendidly produced in Southern and metropolitan settings—a worthy successor to Alice Brady's other Select triumphs.

GARIBALDI NEWS.

Mr. Lon Henderson and wife came in from their home in Portland last Sunday and are visiting with old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Phelps of Garibaldi.

Mr. Erick and family left for their home in Portland Sunday, after a month's stay at Garibaldi.

AFTER CLOUDS COMES SUNSHINE.
 AFTER DESPONDENCY COMES JOY.
 AFTER SICKNESS COMES HEALTH.
 AFTER WEAKNESS COMES STRENGTH.
 In the spring when you're "all in"—fagged out—blood thin, if you will turn to Nature's remedy, a tonic made from wild roots and barks, which has stood fifty years as the best spring tonic—you will find strength regained. No need to tell you it's Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, put up in tablet or liquid form, and sold by every druggist in the land. After a hard winter—shut up indoors, your blood needs a temperance tonic, a tissue-builder and blood-makers such as this "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce's. Send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package of tablets.

Seattle, Wash.—"I was in a general run-down condition. Had bad blood, disordered stomach, kidney trouble and nervousness. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and five or six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and was completely cured. Have never been sick a day since."—Mrs. Mary Hoskins, 907 27th Ave.
