

TILLAMOOK, OREGON, NOVEMBER 20, 1919.

Tillamook Jottings.

The County Court is in session this week and had under consideration the annual budget.

Dr. Shearer is in Seattle attending surgical, eye, ear, nose and throat clinics.

Drugless methods used in chronic diseases of stomach, bowels, liver, debetis, brights disease, and nervous conditions. Room 4 Masonic, Bldg.

Quite a large number of people from Tillamook are attending the International Live Stock Show in Portland this week.

Dr. Lebow will be at Dr. Wise's Tillamook office on Monday and Tuesday, at Bay City on Wednesday, at Nehalem on Friday and Wheeler on Saturday of each week.

Married on the 15th of November, in this city, Rev. H. E. Tucker, pastor of the Christian Church, performing the ceremony, Roy W. Hammond and Miss Maude Ellen Drinkwater.

John Wild and Barbara Wild vs. Irene Haverstick and Chauncey R. Haverstick, I. W. S. Owens and M. A. Finch and Jane Finch is a suit filed in the circuit court to recover $200 on a promissory note.

Dr. Lebow will be at Dr. Wise's Cloverdale dental office on Thursday December 4th and 18th, on Jan. 7th and 21st and Feb. 4th. After that dates weekly as usual.

George Smith, of Salem, is in on a visit, having resided in Tillamook County 20 years. He came here when a boy seven years of age in 1900, living in the Blaine district.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Briggs, of the Tillamook neighborhood, came to Corvallis to be present at the funeral of Mr. Briggs brother, the late A. L. Briggs, who died early in the week at Cheney, Wash.—Gazette Times.

The W. R. C. will give a bazaar in the Kuppenbender building on December 13, every corps member is expected to help. By order of the committee.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Curtiss, former pastor of the Christian Church of this city, now of Vancouver, Wash., will be pleased to learn of the birth of a son.

Shakespeare Club held its monthly meeting on Friday afternoon, the hostess for the occasion being Mrs. W. L. Campbell, who served a dainty lunch. The invited guests were Messrs. James Tucker, Hill, Hays, Koch and Matlock.

You are earnestly invited to a Social evening at the Methodist Church Tuesday night, Nov. 25, commencing at 7:30. It will be a farewell to the Swenson family and a reception to the new pastor, Rev. Oliver and family. A splendid program is arranged, music, fine moving picture comedy, games, refreshments, a genuine good time free to all. Everybody welcome, come and get acquainted.

Married on the 17th of November, in this city, Rev. H. E. Tucker performing the ceremony, Fay L. Rickerts and Miss Buens V. Huddleston.

An expensive fur glove was found and left at this office, and it remains unclaimed. If the owner does not want it and will give us the other glove, it will help reduce the high cost of living.

Mrs. Fred Christensen and Mrs. Clarence Stanley entertained the J. U. G. Club at the home of the former, on Wednesday, Nov. 12. A pleasant afternoon was spent in needle-work, after which the hostesses served a dainty luncheon to the following guests and members, Mrs. A. E. Williams, Mrs. Merrel Smith, Mrs. Carl Dawson, Mrs. Bohls, and Mesdames King, Hansmaier, Savage, Winslow, Dawson, Allen, Lewis, Stevens, McCracken, Swenson, Heisel, Small and Foster.

We are glad to hear that I. H. Moore and the County Court have agreed to settle the condemnation suits by arbitration. Mr. Moore to name two persons and the County Court two, the four selecting the fifth person. It is stipulated that each side is to abide by the decision of the arbitration committee. This will save considerable unnecessary expense, for had the cases been tried in Washington County it would have cost both sides more or less money in bringing witnesses there and bringing the juries to this county.

The funeral of L. H. Riefenberg, who died suddenly in the north part of the county took place on Sunday afternoon, Rev. A. A. McRea, pastor of the Presbyterian church, conducting the services at the undertaker's parlors. The interment was in the Oddfellows' cemetery. L. H. Riefenberg was born at Leprot, Mich., on March 17, 1861, and died November 12, 1919, in this county. He came to Oregon 27 years ago and has resided in Tillamook county since. He leaves two brothers and two sisters and one daughter, Mrs. V. R. Duncan, and one son, Samuel Riefenberg.

The first number of the Lyceum course in this city, when the Metropolitan Singers appeared at the Christian Church, the audience numbered only 13. If the other musicals are not better attended those who guaranteed these entertainments will be stuck for a goodly sum of money.

Tillamook County's canning team, composed of Misses Pauline Glenger, Marie Glenger and Gladys Klinehan, has been selected by the Extension Department of the O. A. C., to go to Corvallis and demonstrate during Farmers' week at the agricultural college.

Haberlach Visits Montesano—Improvement at Depot Taken Up.

Carl Haberlach and wife returned from a few days business trip to Portland. While out they took a flying trip to Montesano, the Mecca of Tillamookers. They saw a number of Tillamookers while in Washington.

Mr. Haberlach reports that he was surprised to see the great extent of improved lands in Grays Harbor country. Dairying is only in its infancy there, there being about 2,500 cows in the county. Most of the farmers have been growing grain and clover, all of which does well. Aberdeen and Hoquiam have a population of more than 5,000, and thus far most of the milk is used for city trade. There is also a condenser at Montesano, but this is operated only part of the time. The Grays Harbor Dairy Association has taken over the cheese factory at Satsop. There is some talk of a six vat factory at some central point, but thus far they do not produce enough milk to keep such a factory going and supply the city trade.

While in Portland, Mr. Haberlach and Jos. Maginnis interviewed railroad people regarding matters of improving team track at the depot and front street. They promised to give immediate relief at the depot team track. They also took up the matter of paving the depot grounds from Third street to Fifth street, which every Tillamooker would like to see done. They were told to figure out a proposition for the county and city and submit same. It is thought that the railroad may furnish the needed rock for pavement, other interests taking care of the cement work.

Mr. Haberlach reports the cheese market as being rather dull, due to the fact that the October production is more than 2,000 boxes in excess of last year and because a great deal of our storage stock has been sold. Storage stock is now only 1,140 boxes triplets and 30 cases longhorns.

Roaring Lions and Wedding Bells.

Members and friends of the Methodist church will have an opportunity to have the social time of their lives at the Methodist Church Tuesday evening, November 25th, at 7:30 p.m. The occasion will be a farewell reception to be given to the Swenson family who are leaving soon for Washington.

A program of music, song and moving pictures will be followed by a get-acquainted-social hour of good cheer and fellowship. The picture presented will be one of the best comedies ever made. "Roaring Lions and Wedding Bells." If you never laughed before in your life you will laugh at this. Leave your long face at home. Wear a smile. Everybody come. "Everybody" means you.

K. P. Hall Dedication.

On Monday night, November 24, 1919, the K. of P. will dedicate their new hall located in the Alderman building across the street from the City hall. This occasion will be honored by an official visit from Grand Chancellor Julien A. Hurley and other grand lodge officers, accompanied by many prominent Pythians who will assist in the work, and give some real Pythian talks which you cannot afford to miss.

This will be a grand meeting and every member that possibly can do so should be present. A light lunch will be served in the new dining room. All D. O. K. K. are requested to wear their fezzes. Work in third rank.

On Thanksgiving eve, Wednesday, November 26, the grand opening dance will be given. Our own band will furnish the music for the first hour, after which the famous Wilkin's Jazz Orchestra will play. Everybody come and bring your friends and lets make our first dance a grand success. Dokies wear your fezz.

Faces Wrong Judge! Girl Gets Three Years.

One of the most disconcerting situations ever put into a photoplay occurs in Dorothy Gish's latest Paramount picture "Peppy Polly" when Polly played by Miss Gish, after planning with the judge of the juvenile court to sentence her to three months in a reformatory, so she may obtain evidence of graft in the situation, come into court and finds the wrong judge on the bench.

The Melville reformatory had needed investigation for years but every committee sent there had returned with a report that things were all right. Polly and the judge had decided to make an investigation from the inside. Accordingly, she got herself arrested for stealing and was sentenced for three months. But the judge was taken with a stroke of paralysis the night before and had left no instructions. The judge who took his place sent her to the reformatory for a period of three years.

What followed is splendidly pictured in "Peppy Polly" which will be shown at the Gem Theatre next Wednesday.

Union Thanksgiving Service.

The yearly union Thanksgiving service will be held in the United Brethren church, on Thursday, Nov. 27, at 7:30 p.m., Rev. Ingler, of the Nazarene Church will deliver the sermon. Good music will be furnished. Several select pieces will be sung. You are invited to be obedient unto the proclamation of our president and governor and attend the service.

Notice of Meeting of Jersey Cattle Breeders.

The Jersey Cattle Club will meet at the farm of Morrison Mills on Tuesday, November 25th, 1919.

All members of the club, and all those interested in Jersey Cattle are requested to be present. There will be business of importance to transact, reports of special and standing committees, and report on Portland Stock show are to be read.

A basket dinner will be served.

County School Supt. Lamb's Letter To Teachers.

I find the schools progressing nicely, and trust you are enjoying your work this year.

There never was a time when our children needed to be taught those lessons of patriotism and true Americanism more than today. The future of our country is in the hands of you teachers, for you have the education of the coming men and women, and as you make them today, so will be the nation tomorrow. I know you teach your children that America means a "square deal" for everybody, rich and poor alike; that this is no place for the anarchist nor radical advocating the overthrow of all government and civilized society.

We are still obliged to use the present edition of our Geography. Let me know how many copies in your school, and I shall mail you a sufficient number of the "Critical Note," by Dr. Schafer, to supply each one. This is very important. Do not fail to secure them; this is to be inserted in that part of the text dealing with Germany.

The Annual County Teachers' Institute will be held at Tillamook December 3, 4 and 5. I think you will find this an interesting and profitable meeting.

The spelling contests are to be resumed about the middle of January. Now last, but not least: There is to be held at Cloverdale on the 22nd of this month, at the hour of 11 o'clock a. m., a local teachers' institute. It is expected that all teachers who can will be present, particularly those from that section of the county.

Come and bring your lunch pail with you, and we will have an enjoyable and profitable conference at the school house there. Mr. W. E. Buell and his teachers well know how to act the part of host. An interesting program is to be given, for each of you will take part. Let this be an informal meeting, at which you will be free to bring up any subject you wish in connection with your work. The meeting will be profitable if you are free to help.

Hoping to meet you at Cloverdale next Saturday.

I. W. W.'S ROUNDED UP IN TILLAMOOK COUNTY.

Sixteen Wabblers are Landed in Jail And Will be Tried.

Last Friday evening the American Legion called a meeting at the armory at which a number of business men were invited, to devise some plan to rid Tillamook county of I. W. W.'s. The meeting developed into a fairly good sized vigilance committee, with the idea of acting quickly and quietly, and mum was the word that was passed out to those who took part in the plan to round up the Wabblers and place them where they could not do mischief nor sow the seed of anarchy and disloyalty in the United States. As a result of the meeting, about a dozen cars left this city Saturday morning, with about 50 armed men for different parts of the county, and they were told by Sheriff Campbell to take no chances and to shoot when necessary. Very few persons in this city were aware what was going on, for the affair was kept a secret until late in the afternoon, when the different parties returned to the city having in custody men who had been found with I. W. W. cards on them.

The names of the I. W. W.'s arrested are: H. P. Haddock, John Lund, Steve Rososhen, Frank Nichols, James O'Neil, Harry Ashmore, Alex Simon, Eugene Bandrez, W. F. Midleton, Alix Larson, Wm. Pulse, James Andreen, A. Lewis, Gus Hershie, J. A. LeClere and B. Walther.

The nationality of the men is as follows: Ten American citizens; one Frenchman, two Swedes, one Austrian two German. One being a German alien.

The Tillamook Bar Association held a meeting on Monday which was attended by all the attorneys of the City with the exception of Attorneys H. T. Bots and S. S. Johnson, the former being out of the city and the latter was sick. It was decided that the attorneys would not take I. W. W. cases.

The grand jury is called to meet on Monday morning, and Judge Bagley being advised of the situation here decided to come in and dispose of the cases as quickly as possible. He will come in Monday on the afternoon train, and in all probability the men will be arraigned Tuesday morning. It was the intention of the District Attorney Goynne to call the grand jury together today but one of the jurymen was out of the county.

The statute under which the Wabblers will be indicted is as follows:

"Or organizers, or helps to organize or become a member of, or voluntarily assemble with any society or assemblage of persons which teaches, advocates or affirmatively suggests the doctrine of criminal syndicalism, sabotage, or the necessity, propriety or expedience of doing any act of physical violence of the commission of any crime or unlawful act as a means of accomplishing or effecting any industrial or political ends, change or revolution or for profit, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for a term of not less than one year nor more than ten years, or by a fine of not less than $1,000, or by both such imprisonment and fine.

All who have seen Bryant Washburn in "Venus in the East," "Poor Boob" and other delightful photoplays, should see him as the lively young millionaire in "Something to Do," his latest Paramount picture which will be shown at the Gem Theatre Monday, Nov. 24. Mr. Washburn's magnetic personality in the stellar role, and his vivid and enthusiastic acting never fails to key up his audiences to the highest pitch of enjoyment. An excellent cast headed by Ann Little, who supported Elliott Dexter in "The Squaw Man" with great success, has been provided for this splendid Washburn picture.

Important to Guernsey Breeders.

There will be a meeting of the Tillamook County Guernsey Breeders' Association at the Court House, in Tillamook City, on next Monday evening, at 8 o'clock p.m., when Mr. Hills, Field Agent of the American Guernsey Cattle Club of Peterboro, New Hampshire; Mr. Westover, of the Oregon Agricultural College; Mr. John T. Whalley, and probably a number of other members of the State Guernsey Association, will be present, who will give valuable and interesting talks for the good of the association and this splendid breed of cattle.

Be sure and be present and bring with you all you can that are interested in the Guernsey breed.

There will also be a meeting at Wheeler next Tuesday, when these gentlemen will meet the Guernsey breeders of the north part of the county.

Tillamook Holstein Wins Prizes.

Jack Rupp was awarded the champion and grand champion prizes at the Pacific International Live Stock Exhibition in Portland, this week for Holsteins, and it is reported that there are about half a dozen prizes awarded the Holstein cattle sent from Tillamook county.

There was a large number of Tillamook dairymen and others present from this county when the judging of the Holstein cattle was going on and when the Rupp cow began to crawl up they became highly excited, especially when it was placed third in the row. Then it was placed at the head and when the judges placed the blue ribbon on the animal the Tillamookers enlivened the scene by letting out a great big yell, for the Tillamook Holstein cow obtained the highest honors in the class, taking it away from cows that were valued at $20,000. Mr. Rupp was offered $1000 for the cow at the county fair, but refused to sell. It is worth considerable more than that now.

It is reported that the Burns Bros. Guernsey bull obtained either fourth or fifth prize at the Live Stock Exhibition.

(From The Oregonian.)

"I'm here to extol the virtues of the foster mother of the world—the Holstein cow," was the proud announcement of Rollie W. Watson of Tillamook, are presenting the Tillamook County Holstein Breeders' association and the Holstein-Friesian association of America.

As secretary-treasurer of the Tillamook county association Mr. Watson was responsible for bringing that county's choicest Holsteins to the Pacific International exposition for exhibit purposes, and he had every reason to rejoice yesterday when he learned that six out of seven of the Tillamook Holstein entries had been given ribbons in the judging yesterday morning. He is an ardent booster for the local livestock show, and when O. M. Plummer made his trip to Tillamook county for funds for the new pavilion, the dairy cattle breeders and owners oversubscribed their allotted quota by more than 50 per cent.

"That indicates how Tillamook county feels about this big exposition and you can take my word for it that our interest will never wane so long as I am on the top of the grass that's green the whole year round," he declared.

If a man really believes that his product is entitled to real recognition a few temporary reverses will not cause him to loose heart. For instance F. W. Christensen, cheese inspector for Tillamook county, took eight cheese entries to the Oregon State fair and went away from the state exhibition without a ribbon—even a white one. Undaunted, he brought the same six entries to the Western Dairy Products show and secured the first six prizes and a tie for seventh out of the eight entries.

"To show the difference in judging I sent the same batch of cheese which secured the lowest score at the state fair to the national show at Chicago a month later and secured ninth place out of 120 entries," he said.

"Then we brought them all here to the Pacific International show and carried off every ribbon that was given for high grade cheese."

Although there are a few federal and state laws prohibiting raffles, when the Red Cross is interested Uncle Samuel is willing to wink his left eye and close the right. All of which means that these eight prize-winning heads of cheese from Tillamook will be raffied off Saturday evening and the proceeds will be given to the Red Cross. O. M. Plummer, general manager of the exposition, will handle the raffle.

Ray and Fair in New Photoplay.

Albert Ray and Elinor Fair are coming to the Gem Theatre next Thursday, Nov. 27, in what is said to be the best and most distinctive offering they have presented to date. It is entitled "Love is Love," is an intensely dramatic story, and shows young Albert Ray in the part of a youth who has been forced into aiding thieves despite the revolt of the good that is in him—which at last triumphs through the influence of his love for a beautiful girl (played by Mill Fair.) The boy is drawn up from his criminal environment, and finally realizes his ambition to become somebody in the world.

"Love is Love" promises to be a delightful surprise to Ray and Fair admirers, for it makes an unusual demand upon the versatility of these brilliant young Fox stars.

The Red Cross Membership Roll Call.

There have been more or less trouble in obtaining the assistance of those who were appointed to canvass their districts for memberships for 1920 memberships in the American Red Cross Roll Call, while in quite a number of districts good results have been obtained. This will necessitate continuing the drive until such time as each district is thoroughly canvassed.

A Program Teaser.

"The Million Dollar Dollies!" The very title suggests luxury, daintiness, refinement, fascination. All of these are realized in this Metro screen production de lux which will be seen at the Gem Theatre on Saturday. And when one discovers that the "Dollies" in question are the famous Dolly Sisters, Roszika and Yansci, Broadway's celebrated dancers, "the plot thickens."

The charm of these clever girls permeates the entire production, which has been prepared with an Oriental splendor in keeping with the brilliant story that has been written to display the talents of the Dolly Sisters. It reads like a chapter from the Arabian Nights, and deals with the Rajah and a Maharajah, an Indian Palace, and other exciting things. The Dollies swim, dance, and otherwise disport themselves daintily in beautiful and glittering apparel. And there is a love story.

Roszika and Yansci impersonate themselves in this five act succession of marvels, and naturally no one could improve on that. They are surrounded by a capable cast in production of excitement and charm.

Why Do Some Wives Leave Their Homes?

Why do wives apparently without reason to the outside world, suddenly leave their husbands and seek the divorce courts? There are many reasons doubtless of which the general public is unaware, but a novel one is introduced in "Don't Change Your Husband," the new Cecil B. DeMille Aircraft photoplay which will be played at the Gem Theatre next Tuesday, Nov. 25. It is a novel picture and wonderfully presented.

Gloria Swanson, one of the loveliest women of the screen, has the leading feminine role and Elliott Dexter shares with Lewis Cody the honors of the male characterizations.

Jeanie Macpherson is the author. It is an original story presenting the women's viewpoint on a question rather pertinently put in "Old Wives for New," by David Graham Phillips, which Mr. DeMille recently produced. But this is not a sequel to that story. On the contrary, it is an entirely new and original photoplay with a wealth of novel qualities and a beauty that is indescribable. It is one of the real high art pictures of the year.
