WARNING!

"Don't Change Your Husband!"

Wait at least until you have seen Cecil B. De Mille's Special Arcraft Production "Don't Change Your Husband." Which is the worst, a wife's uncombed hair or a husband's unshaved face? Which would you rather see, a faded kimono or a coatless, berag-gled man? The question will be easily answered after you see this production. Don't miss it.

Pathe News.

Thursday, Nov. 27,

"Can You Tell When Love is Love?"

You will be able to after you see Albert Ray and Elinor Fair in the Big William Fox Production "Love is Love." He was unhappy, he was beset by evil, yet love and grit lifted him up and made a man of him. A picture of smiles and tears. Come and laugh a little and weep a bit for your own betterment.

A 2 reel comedy, "Squared," will add to the pleasure of the evening.

Marcus Hook (Pa.) Press: "Who can exceed the Democrats in committing political harikari? The preposterous idea is now given out by the Democrats of the Senate, that if the Republicans succeed in adopting reservations by a majority vote, they, the Democrats, will by a majority vote defeat the whole treaty. This is bluff or it is partisan pig-headedness."

"Cheating Cheaters."

Clara Kimball Young and her own company will be seen at the Gem Theatre on Sunday, Nov. 23 in her Select picture "Cheating Cheaters" a film adaptation of the famous Broadway stage success of the same name. "Cheating Cheaters" is one of the most unusual plays ever produced on either stage or screen. In it Miss Young has the role of a clever secret service operative, who apparently is a member of a famous band of crooks. As the leader of one hand she plans to rob the home of the supposedly wealthy Palmers, but at the last minute she learns that the Palmers also are crooks, and are themselves planning to rob the Brocktons, the name which the first band has taken. There is a general mix-up of families, crooks, and secret service people, but in the end things are smoothed out, and the seed of an unusual romance takes root.

Boarders Wanted.

Will take boarders by the week or day. Mrs. Alice B. Wolfe, 701 East Seventh Street, Tillamook.
