

TILLAMOOK, OREGON, NOVEMBER 27, 1919.

SIXTEEN I. W. W.'S INDICTED.

Five Plead Guilty and Eleven Not Guilty—Judge Sentence Men.

The grand jury was in session on Monday and returned indictments against 16 I. W. W.'s who were gathered up in the roundup in Tillamook county for being members of that organization by members of the American Legion and a number of prominent citizens.

Judge Geo. R. Bagley came in on the afternoon train on Tuesday and the grand jury handed the Judge the indictments. The wabblers were immediately arraigned and their pleas were as follows:

Harry Ashmore pleaded guilty. B. Walther, A. Larsen, and Gus Hersche pleaded not guilty.

Alex Simon, A. Lewis, Steve Rosschau, Hans Christiansen, Hollerand, John Lund, James O'Neil, J. A. La Clear, H. P. Haddock, Eugene Bander, James Andreen and William Pulse were given until next morning at eight o'clock to plead.

On Wednesday morning the men were again taken before Judge Bagley all pleading not guilty with the exception of four. The four were Harry Ashmore (who had pleaded guilty the previous afternoon), Alex Simon, John Lund and Hans C. Hollerand.

John Lund changed his plea of guilty to not guilty, and those who pleaded guilty were Harry Ashmore, Axel Simon, Hans C. Hollerand, Axel Larsen and James O'Neil.

Judge Bagley took quite a time in questioning these men and put them under a severe examination, finding that the men had never attended a meeting of that order and the organizer had told some of them that they could not obtain work unless they had an I. W. W. card. The Judge passed sentence on the five men as follows:

Harry Ashmore, ten years in the penitentiary and a fine of $1000.00. This young man had been in the Canadian service and his father was a captain in the Union army during the civil war and his grandfather had fought in the rebellion. The Judge paroled him on condition of paying a fine of $100.00.

James O'Neil, five years sentence and $1000.00 fine. Paroled on paying $200.00.

Axel Simon, Hans C. Hollerand and Axel Larsen, one year sentence and fine of $1000. Paroled on paying $200 each. These three men are aliens and have been reported to the federal authorities as such.

Judge Bagley will hold a special session of the circuit court on December 8th and he ordered County Clerk Mason to draw another trial jury of 15 persons.

More Divorce Cases.

Mary J. O'Brien vs. S. R. O'Brien is a divorce case filed in the circuit court, the plaintiff alleging cruel and inhuman treatment as well as personal indignities as to render plaintiff's life burdensome. Plaintiff also alleged that during their married life her husband never settled down to one business, and compelled his wife and family to move from place to place. He left Tillamook county this year to go to the harvest fields in Eastern Oregon, but instead of doing so went to the state of Washington and took up the business of bootlegging, and is now serving a four months sentence in the county jail of Whitman county. Plaintiff asks the court to dissolve the marriage contract and give her the charge of three minor children.

Henry Schild vs. Maude P. Schild is a divorce suit filed in the circuit court. These parties were married in Tillamook county on October 16, 1912. The complaint alleges that defendant is guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment and of personal indignities towards the plaintiff. In the year 1915 defendant told the plaintiff that she had lost any and all affection she may have ever cherished for him and defendant had consulted an attorney for the purpose of obtaining a divorce. The plaintiff induced his wife not to start divorce proceedings and this was done provided plaintiff promised to let her attend frequent dances, shows and other places of amusement and would permit her to smoke cigarettes. This the plaintiff agreed to with the exception of smoking cigarettes. Plaintiff also alleges that defendant neglected her duties at home, became more glaring and the plaintiff was forced to continue in poverty until the death of his mother, when he inherited some money. The plaintiff begged and besought the defendant to lend him such assistance as a wife should lead a poor man that he may acquire a comfortable home for his family, but she continued to take unnecessary expensive trips to Portland under the pretense of obtaining medical relief, and on her return would refuse to do housework. Last October she went to Portland, and when the defendant found her she said she could not and would not live with the plaintiff. One of the provisions of the settlement of property rights, plaintiff has allowed defendant the custody of the minor child, which has been settled by a contract in writing.

Tillamook Cow Sold for $2,100.00.

Countess of Sunnside De Kol, winner of the grand championship for Holstein cows, at the International Live Stock Show in Portland last week, brought $2,100 in the Holstein sales pavilion during Friday afternoon. Claude Harrison a farmer of Seattle, won the ownership of the prize animal after spirited bidding. The animal was owned by Jack J. Rupp, of Tillamook, and was the Holstein cow that won the first prize at the Tillamook county fair, when he was offered $1,000.00 for the animal. This is the biggest amount that any Tillamook cow sold for, and will increase the interest taken in blooded stock in this country.

New School to be Dedicated at Nehalem.

The new public school building at Nehalem will be dedicated on Saturday afternoon, December 6th, when a number of prominent speakers will be present.

The new school building at Nehalem, although only a frame structure, is one of the best designed school buildings in the county. It cost over $15,000.

The dedication will be attended by State Superintendent Churchill, Prof. Ackerman, president of the State normal school at Monmouth, County School Superintendent Lamb and other prominent teachers of the county.

Swenson Reception.

One of the most pleasant and largely attended social events of the season was the occasion of the farewell reception given by the members and friends of the Methodist church of this city Tuesday night to Mr. Chas. Swenson and family, who for many years have been earnest and faithful workers in the church. After a program of song and a few brief addresses a two reel movie comedy afforded entertainment for those present. Numerous games were enjoyed by the young folks and bountiful refreshments were served by the ladies.

Viola Dana is Seen in Clever New Drama.

"The Microbe", an original story by Henry Altimus, published in Ainslee's Magazine, is the latest addition to Viola Dana's long list of success and will be shown at the Gem Theatre next Saturday night.

A girl of the slums—the Microbe, her friends call her—is rescued from the gutter by De Witt Spense, a young author, she is taken to his home, to be educated, much to the disgust of his friends and of Judith Winthrop, a young woman who has an eye on the author herself. Due to Judith's jealousy and treachery De Witt does not see her until he is called to a hospital to find her critically ill. All the treachery and unhappiness is cleared away and the romance, so rudely interrupted between the author and the girl who has become his inspiration, is resumed.

Dairy Cattle Feeding School, also Home Makers Course for Ladies.

Arrangements have been made with the extension division of the Oregon Agricultural College, for a series of Dairy Cattle Feeding Schools to be held in the county during the first week in December as follows:

December 1 and 2 at Cloverdale. December 3 and 4 at Tillamook. December 5 and 6 at Nehalem. This gives very little time for publicity but I am sure that all that attended these schools last year will be anxious to attend again this year and bring their friends.

The speakers will be: Prof. E. B. Pitts and E. L. Westover of the Dairy Extension Division of O. A. C. and Geo. R. Hyslop of the Farm Crops Division.

In connection with this school will be held a Home Makers School in charge of one of the ladies from the Home Science Department of O. A. C. Subjects to be taken up at the various sessions will be: Selection of Feeds, Balancing Rations, Economical Buying of Feeds, Feeding Practice, The Growing of Forage Crops, including the management of Clover Fields and the Growing of Silage Crops.

The ladies section will consider food values, food selection and proper methods of compounding a ration. These meetings are free. Let every one come and bring their feeding problems with them.

Auspices of the Tillamook County Farm Bureau.

Condemnation Suits Settled.

The condemnation suits growing out of the State Highway surveying a road through I. H. Moore's dairy farm was settled by arbitration, it being stipulated that Mr. Moore select two persons and the County Court two persons, and the four selected to choose the fifth. Both parties were to agree to the decision of the arbitrators. Mr. Moore selected Bob Richards and Wm. Maxwell and the County Court selected Joe Foster and W. G. Dwight, the fifth being Amos Vaughn.

The committee of arbitration award the damages at $3,400.00, which includes two cases at issue. The county court had offered $1,875 to settle the three Moore cases, one of which was tried before a jury.

Annual County Teachers' Institute.

The annual convention of the Tillamook County Teachers' Association will be held at the High School building in this city on December 3rd, 4th and 5th. County Superintendent G. B. Lamb was fortunate in obtaining some first class instructors, viz: J. H. Ackerman, President Oregon Normal School, Monmouth.

Mrs. Blanch R. Blumauer, Port-Chapter, Junior Red Cross.

J. A. Churchill, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Salem.

Ralph D. Coleman, department of physical education, O. A. C.

C. O. Gregory, bureau of educational research, U. of O., Eugene.

J. T. Mathews, department of Mathematics, Willamette University, Salem.

Edwin T. Reed, College Editor O. A. C., Corvallis.

Ida Mae Smith, primary critic, Oregon State Normal School, Monmouth.

H. C. Seymour, State Club Leader, Corvallis.

High School Notes.

The Armory was the scene of much merriment Friday evening. "Why?" you will say. Have you forgotten that the Junior-Fresh classmen were to give a party to the Senior-Sophomore classes in honor of the winning football team. The main booth was decorated with the Senior-Sophomore class colors. The chief amusements were the grand march and class stunts, with the Seniors carrying off the prize. Most all the High School students and members of the faculty turned out to this party. Everybody enjoyed the eats, which were plentiful and well served. At twelve, because the faculty were getting sleepy the party broke up.

Wednesday evening the 19th, the Zetageathian Debate Club met and decided to give the new members an initiation party after the Thanksgiving holidays. A committee was appointed to look after this matter and also a committee was appointed to see about club pins.

The football game is the big talk this week. There is no subject in curriculum having a more prominent place. The Fresh delightfully agreed to build a big bonfire west of the school house and the foot ball rally is going to start from that place on Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Why We Should Have a Gym.

Among the numerous reasons for the need of a school gymnasium, physical education, athletics, etc, each one in itself more than enough to justify a gymnasium, comes the one of hall renting. For every high school function or indoor activity a committee is appointed which scours the town in search of a hall. Sometimes the committee succeeds and sometimes it does not. In all previous years we have had to rent a hall in which to play basket ball and this year we started on the usual search for a suitable place and so far find there is none available.

Of course we are still hopeful and trying to find a place to put up a couple of baskets and play ball. If we do not succeed in getting a hall we will be the only high school in the State of Oregon that cannot play.

Douglas Fairbanks in "Arizona."

Filming "Arizona" is a radical change in the Fairbanks policy of stories, but it was suggested by Augustus Thomas, the author, and Douglas Fairbanks, respecting the latter's judgment, decided to adapt this well-known play to the screen. It will be shown at the Gem Theatre next Tuesday, Dec. 2.

Needless to harp on its dramatic qualities. "Arizona" is an American stage classic, and judging by the enthusiasm that Douglas Fairbanks displayed during the filming of the picture, it promises to be an American screen classic.

An excellent cast has been engaged to play the principal parts, and technical director James P. Hogan spared no pains in his settings.

Mr. Fairbanks plays "Lieut. Denton" a part that has all the charm and qualities in keeping with the well known Fairbanks personality.

Legion Post has 156 Members.

The usual semi-monthly meeting of Tillamook Post of the American Legion was held at the Armory last Friday evening. Charges preferred by the Post against Dr. R. T. Boals were withdrawn by resolution following an explanation given by Dr. Boals to the members present. The complaint of the Legion was based upon an advertisement which appeared in the German language newspaper of Portland. As explained by Dr. Boals, he was misled into inserting the ad by statements that the paper was to devote a full page "boosting" Tillamook county. The proposition had the endorsement not only of well known residents of this city but also of prominent citizens of Portland, some of whom had taken an active interest in war activities. The ad has been withdrawn.

A contribution of $25.00 to Grant Hodge Post of Centralia was authorized. The money is to be used for the benefit of the families of victims of the outrage of Armistice day and in bringing the criminals responsible for it to justice.

Basket ball will probably be one of the activities of the Post during the coming winter. An athletic committee, composed of Arthur Wallace, Floyd Embersen, Clarence Provost, Everett Wells and Bruce Hare was appointed and steps towards the organization of a team will be undertaken without delay.

The rule requiring payment of a membership fee of $2.00 was ordered suspended up to and including December 31st. The Post now has 156 members enrolled and it is expected that the roster will contain more than 200 names before the 1st of the year. Some difficulty has been met in reaching prospective members on account of failure to find lists of men who went into the service from Tillamook county. So far as can be learned, only one list was kept by draft officials, and this has been misplaced. The annual dues of the post are $2.00 and this is the only payment required of members.

Teachers Meet at Cloverdale.

Last Saturday, twenty-three teachers responded to the invitation of the County School Superintendent to meet at Cloverdale. It was an excellent meeting in every respect and all enjoyed it.

The meeting was called at 11 a.m. by Supt. Lamb. Mr. F. C. Baker, president of the Tillamook Red Cross, aroused the interest of the teachers present in a very pleasing and instructive talk to them concerning the needs of the Red Cross. All responded, and expressed themselves as willing to assist in the drive in their various school districts.

After a few remarks by the County Superintendent, the teachers adjourned until one o'clock.

The teachers spent a very pleasant hour over lunch, visiting and renewing acquaintances. The afternoon session opened by a most interesting and instructive talk by Mrs. Clara Burge, of the Primary department of the Tillamook School, on the use of the Beacon Method of teaching reading. Her talk was illustrated by a class of eight first grade children. Her suggestions as to busy work for the little folks were good.

Miss Edna Reusser, primary teacher of the Cloverdale school, using a class of small children for the purpose, illustrated splendidly the value of story telling in the school by a competent teacher.

Teachers' salaries and professional relation to the public was the subject of an interesting talk by Supt. L. W. Turnbull, of the Tillamook City schools.

Mr. J. I. Montgomery of Pacific City, entertained the teachers by relating some experiences he had experienced in many years of service.

After remarks by Mr. Parkes, Mr. Buell and others, the institute adjourned.

The meeting was a valuable one. It is by such meetings that the professional spirit of the teacher is built up and maintained. They are more beneficial to the boys and girls than to the teachers themselves as the teacher is able to do better work after having attended such a meeting.

Popular Paramount Star Breaks Automobile Records in His Latest

In his new Paramount picture "The Roaring Road," which will be shown at the Gem Theatre Next Monday, Wallace Reid blossoms out as a speed king. During the filming of the scenes, Mr. Reid himself drove his racing car, taking all kinds of chances and driving at incredible speed, to secure the last word in realism.

Most of the races scenes for the picture were filmed on the famous Santa Monica race course over which numerous road races have been contested by some of the world's most famous drivers.

There is one especially dangerous curve, known as "death curve", and it is notorious for the number of accidents there. In one scene of the picture Mr. Reid rounds this curve with perfect ease and accuracy of control, and at the same time, it is said, breaking the record for speed in rounding the curve which had been established and broken many times by various famous speed kings.

John Barrymore in Dramatic Picture.

Appearing in one of the strongest roles in which he has appeared on the screen, John Barrymore will be seen in his latest Paramount production, "The Test of Honor", at the Gem Theatre next Wednesday, Dec. 3. There are few more popular actors than Mr. Barrymore, who is equally well known as comedian and dramatic player.

In his latest starring vehicle, Mr. Barrymore is seen as Martin Wingrave, a young Virginian, who loves a married woman. When her jealous husband interferes, there is a fight, in which the husband is knocked down. The man subsequently dies, not as a result of the battle, but because of his weak heart. Wingrave is accused of murder and the treacherous widow openly accuses Wingrave, who is convicted and sent to prison for seven years.

How Wingrave is finally exonerated and finds happiness in the love of a pure girl, is shown in a series of thrilling scenes that afford Mr. Barrymore abundant opportunities for the display of his genius.

Rally Day.

Next Sunday will be observed as Rally Day at the Methodist Church. Program by the Sunday School begins promptly at 10 a.m. The attendance is rapidly increasing, it ought to be 150 next Sunday. New classes are being organized and new adjustments made to meet the growing demand. Optimism is the predominant note. A splendid record has been attained by this school in having already subscribed $800 to the Armenian Relief Fund, with the possibility of making it $1000.

Following the Rally Day program will be the preaching service at 11, at which time Dr. T. B. Ford, Supt. of the Salem Dist., will preach. At the close of the morning worship a fellowship luncheon will be served by the ladies of the church and congregation, of which all are most cordially invited to participate. Everyone interested in the welfare of the church is urged to come prepared to remain for this important feature of the day's program.

New members are being received at almost every service. Eleven adults have united with the church in the last two weeks and others coming next Sunday. If you are looking for church work you are needed in this organization, if you desire a church home you are most cordially welcome and will receive inspiration and help. The organization of each department of the church is being perfected and it is hoped that in the near future the ideal of "everyone a job and everyone working the job" will be attained.

Carpenter Work on Flour Mill Completed.

The contract for the carpenter work to be done on the new flour mill was completed Tuesday and the work will now be in the hands of J. M. Camatta, of Spokane, Wash, who will finish the installation of the machinery. Mr. Camatta will do all the milling and have complete charge of the flour and feed manufacturing.

Mr. Frank Bester together with Mr. Bettcher will manage the sales end of the business and they are anxiously awaiting the shipment of the machinery which was to have been here this week, so as to go on with the work.

All necessary bins, and spoons are ready and it will be simply a matter of a short time after the machinery arrives that Tillamook will have its own flour and feed manufacturing plant. Mr. Camatta has just completed a plant of the same kind in Eastern Oregon, and also was a millwright in the new Sperry Plant in Spokane, Wash.

Mr. Bettcher has some 50 or 60 two and a half pound sample sacks of Flavo Flour which was made in Rosalia, Washington, also a sack of bran and middlings, which are fair samples of the kind of flour and feed produced by this milling process. Anyone who would like such a sample is welcome to try it and judge for themselves as to the merit of the product. Call at the mill and receive one before they are gone.

Anyone desiring information of any description in regard to the policy of this organization is perfectly welcome to call at the mill and we will be glad to talk to them. We also wish to state that the stock selling campaign will be discontinued until the mill is turning out the goods and the people can judge for themselves if the home industry is worthy of their support.

Mr. and Mrs. McKimens moved from Tillamook last year making their home near Corvallis, where the deceased was buried.

The deceased's maiden name was Miss Mary Robertson, and she was born in Illinois in the year 1867, and was married to Geo. R. McKimens in 1884. Besides her husband she is survived by ten children, viz: Mrs. Percy Vansiel, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. L. Bonn and Mrs. Ray Letson, of Cloverdale, Ore.; Banard McKimens, Klamath Falls, Ore.; Frank (who is in the U. S. navy), Marie, Ralph, Elton, Eula and Harden.
